No. XLVIII.

AN ACT to vest certain Public Reserves in the Taranaki County Council.

TARANAKI COUNTY RESERVES.

[29*th November*, 1877.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act shall be "The Taranaki County Reserves Act, 1877." Short Title.

2. From and after the passing of this Act the lands specified in the Schedule hereto, set apart under "The Taranaki Waste Lands Act, 1874," as reserves for the improvement of roads in the Tarurutangi and Hua and Waiwakaiho Road Districts, and vested in the Superintendent of Taranaki, shall, without any conveyance or assurance, be vested in the Taranaki County Council in trust for the improvement of the junction road in the said county. Lands in Schedule vested in County Council.

3. The Taranaki County Council may lease the said lands by public auction or tender, for such period and on such conditions as they shall think fit not exceeding forty-two years, and apply the rents or profits arising therefrom to the improvement of the said road. Council may lease lands.
