1967, No. 17

An Act to apply certain sums of money out of the Public Account and other accounts towards the service of the current financial year [29 August 1967

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—(1) This Act may be cited as the Imprest Supply Act (No. 2) 1967.

(2) This Act relates to the year ending with the thirty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and sixty-eight (hereinafter referred to as this year).

2. Imprest grants—(1) In addition to all sums otherwise granted, there may be issued and applied, by way of imprest, towards the service of this year,—

(a) Out of the respective accounts (being part of the Public Account) mentioned in the First Schedule to this Act, any sums not exceeding in respect of any such account the appropriate amount specified in that Schedule, and not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of two hundred million dollars:

(b) Out of the respective accounts mentioned in the Second Schedule to this Act, any sums not exceeding in respect of any such account the appropriate amount specified in that Schedule, and not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of twelve million nine hundred thousand dollars.

(2) All sums issued and applied under this section shall be charged in the manner hereafter to be expressed in the Appropriation Act for this year.

3. Transfers from National Development Loans Account—(1) In addition to all sums otherwise authorised, there may from time to time during this year, without further authority than this section, be transferred from the National Development Loans Account to the respective accounts mentioned in the Third Schedule to this Act any sums not exceeding in respect of any such account the appropriate amount specified in that Schedule, and not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of twenty-six million dollars.

(2) All sums transferred under this section shall be included in the amounts to be authorised to be transferred from the National Development Loans Account by the Appropriation Act for this year.
