Regulations

1 Title

These regulations are the Community Trusts (Fees) Regulations 2000.

2 Commencement

These regulations come into force on 1 July 2000.

3 Fee for appointment and reappointment of trustees

- (1) Every community trust must pay to the department for the services provided by the department in relation to the appointment and reappointment of trustees a fee calculated at the rate of $312.50 for each trustee who holds office in any year, excluding a trustee appointed to replace a trustee who ceases to hold office in that year.
- (2) In this regulation, year means the period of 12 months commencing on 1 July and ending on the close of 30 June.

4 Fee for remuneration reviews

Where, in accordance with the provisions of a community trust's trust deed, the department reviews the remuneration of the trustees of the community trust, the community trust must pay to the department a fee of $74.30 per hour for each hour of work carried out by the department in relation to the review.

5 Fee for approval of variation of trust deed

If a community trust requests that the Minister approve a variation to its trust deed, the community trust must pay to the department a fee of $74.30 per hour for each hour of work carried out by the department in relation to the request.

6 Payment of fees

Fees payable by a community trust must be paid not later than 30 days after the community trust receives an invoice from the department for the amount due and payable by the trust.

7 Goods and services tax

The fees prescribed by these regulations are inclusive of goods and services tax.

Marie Shroff,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explanatory Note

This note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These regulations, which come into force on 1 July 2000, prescribe fees payable to the Department of Internal Affairs by community trusts under the Community Trusts Act 1999 for services provided by the department.

The fees prescribed are—

- an annual fee of $312.50 per trustee in respect of the appointment and reappointment of trustees;
- an hourly fee of $74.30 for services provided to a community trust in relation to a review of remuneration of trustees;
- an hourly fee of $74.30 for services provided in relation to a request by a community trust that the Minister approve a variation to its trust deed.

The fees are inclusive of goods and services tax.

Notes*1 *General

This is a reprint of the Community Trusts (Fees) Regulations 2000. The reprint incorporates all the amendments to the regulations as at 2 June 2000, as specified in the list of amendments at the end of these notes.

Relevant provisions of any amending enactments that have yet to come into force or that contain relevant transitional or savings provisions are also included, after the principal enactment, in chronological order.

2 *Status of reprints

Under section 16D of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, reprints are presumed to correctly state, as at the date of the reprint, the law enacted by the principal enactment and by the amendments to that enactment. This presumption applies even though editorial changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in the reprint.

This presumption may be rebutted by producing the official volumes of statutes or statutory regulations in which the principal enactment and its amendments are contained.

3 *How reprints are prepared

A number of editorial conventions are followed in the preparation of reprints. For example, the enacting words are not included in Acts, and provisions that are repealed or revoked are omitted. For a detailed list of the editorial conventions, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/editorial-conventions/> or Part 8 of the Tables of New Zealand Acts and Ordinances and Statutory Regulations and Deemed Regulations in Force.

4 Changes made under section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989

Section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 authorises the making of editorial changes in a reprint as set out in sections 17D and 17E of that Act so that, to the extent permitted, the format and style of the reprinted enactment is consistent with current legislative drafting practice. Changes that would alter the effect of the legislation are not permitted. A new format of legislation was introduced on 1 January 2000. Changes to legislative drafting style have also been made since 1997, and are ongoing. To the extent permitted by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, all legislation reprinted after 1 January 2000 is in the new format for legislation and reflects current drafting practice at the time of the reprint.

In outline, the editorial changes made in reprints under the authority of section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 are set out below, and they have been applied, where relevant, in the preparation of this reprint:

- omission of unnecessary referential words (such as “of this section” and “of this Act”)
- typeface and type size (Times Roman, generally in 11.5 point)
- layout of provisions, including:
  - indentation
  - position of section headings (eg, the number and heading now appear above the section)
- format of definitions (eg, the defined term now appears in bold type, without quotation marks)
- format of dates (eg, a date formerly expressed as “the 1st day of January 1999” is now expressed as “1 January 1999”)
- position of the date of assent (it now appears on the front page of each Act)

- punctuation (eg, colons are not used after definitions)
- Parts numbered with roman numerals are replaced with arabic numerals, and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- case and appearance of letters and words, including:
  - format of headings (eg, headings where each word formerly appeared with an initial capital letter followed by small capital letters are amended so that the heading appears in bold, with only the first word (and any proper nouns) appearing with an initial capital letter)
  - small capital letters in section and subsection references are now capital letters
- schedules are renumbered (eg, Schedule 1 replaces First Schedule), and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- running heads (the information that appears at the top of each page)
- format of two-column schedules of consequential amendments, and schedules of repeals (eg, they are rearranged into alphabetical order, rather than chronological).
