Order

1 Title

This order is the Fisheries (Transfer of Functions, Duties, and Powers to The New Zealand Seafood Industry Council Limited) Order 2006.

2 Commencement

This order comes into force on 1 October 2006.

3 Interpretation

- (1) In this order, unless the context otherwise requires,—

Act means the Fisheries Act 1996

SeaFIC means The New Zealand Seafood Industry Council Limited.

- (2) Any term or expression that is defined in the Act or regulations made under the Act and used, but not defined, in this order has the same meaning as in the Act or those regulations.

4 SeaFIC declared to be approved service delivery organisation

SeaFIC is declared to be an approved service delivery organisation for the period beginning on 1 October 2006 and ending with the close of 30 September 2013.

5 Transfer of chief executive's functions, duties, and powers to SeaFIC

The chief executive's functions, duties, and powers listed—

- (a) in Schedule 1 are transferred to SeaFIC on and from 1 October 2006:
- (b) in Schedule 2 are transferred to SeaFIC on and from 1 October 2007.

Clause 5: substituted, on 1 October 2007, by clause 4 of the Fisheries (Transfer of Functions, Duties, and Powers to The New Zealand Seafood Industry Council Limited) Amendment Order 2007 (SR 2007/243).

6 Certain data and information of SeaFIC is property of the Crown

All data and information received, held, or generated by SeaFIC in relation to the functions, duties, and powers transferred by this order to SeaFIC is the property of the Crown.

7 Rights of the Crown in relation to certain data and information of SeaFIC

- (1) This clause applies to all data and information received, held, or generated by SeaFIC in relation to the functions, duties, and powers transferred by this order to SeaFIC.
- (2) The Crown has, and SeaFIC must provide to the Crown, at no cost to the Crown, access to the data and information in accordance with standards and specifications issued by the Minister under the Act.
- (3) The Crown has full rights to use the data and information.
- (4) Without limiting subclause (3), the Crown may use the data and information for 1 or more of the following purposes:
 - (a) to further the purpose of the Act:
 - (b) to undertake research on matters related to the Act:
 - (c) to provide public access to the data and information as required by the Act:
 - (d) to comply with requirements under the Overseas Investment Act 2005:
 - (e) to comply with legislative requirements relating to archives and statistics.
- (5) This clause does not limit clause 6.

Schedule 1

Notes

1 General

This is a reprint of the Fisheries (Transfer of Functions, Duties, and Powers to The New Zealand Seafood Industry Council Limited) Order 2006. The reprint incorporates all the amendments to the order as at 16 December 2010, as specified in the list of amendments at the end of these notes.

Relevant provisions of any amending enactments that contain transitional, savings, or application provisions that cannot be compiled in the reprint are also included, after the principal enactment, in chronological order. For more information, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/reprints/>.

2 Status of reprints

Under section 16D of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, reprints are presumed to correctly state, as at the date of the reprint, the law enacted by the principal enactment and by the amendments to that enactment. This presumption applies even though editorial changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in the reprint.

This presumption may be rebutted by producing the official volumes of statutes or statutory regulations in which the principal enactment and its amendments are contained.

3 How reprints are prepared

A number of editorial conventions are followed in the preparation of reprints. For example, the enacting words are not included in Acts, and provisions that are repealed or revoked are omitted. For a detailed list of the editorial conventions, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/editorial-conventions/> or Part 8 of the Tables of New Zealand Acts and Ordinances and Statutory Regulations and Deemed Regulations in Force.

4 Changes made under section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989

Section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 authorises the making of editorial changes in a reprint as set out in sections 17D and 17E of that Act so that, to the extent permitted, the format and style of the reprinted enactment is consistent with current legislative drafting practice. Changes that would alter the effect of the legislation are not permitted.

A new format of legislation was introduced on 1 January 2000. Changes to legislative drafting style have also been made since 1997, and are ongoing. To the extent permitted by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, all legislation reprinted after 1 January 2000 is in the new format for legislation and reflects current drafting practice at the time of the reprint.

In outline, the editorial changes made in reprints under the authority of section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 are set out below, and they have been applied, where relevant, in the preparation of this reprint:

- omission of unnecessary referential words (such as “of this section” and “of this Act”)
- typeface and type size (Times Roman, generally in 11.5 point)
- layout of provisions, including:
 - indentation
 - position of section headings (eg, the number and heading now appear above the section)
- format of definitions (eg, the defined term now appears in bold type, without quotation marks)
- format of dates (eg, a date formerly expressed as “the 1st day of January 1999” is now expressed as “1 January 1999”)
- position of the date of assent (it now appears on the front page of each Act)
- punctuation (eg, colons are not used after definitions)
- Parts numbered with roman numerals are replaced with arabic numerals, and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- case and appearance of letters and words, including:
 - format of headings (eg, headings where each word formerly appeared with an initial capital letter followed by small capital letters are amended so that the heading appears in bold, with only the first word (and any proper nouns) appearing with an initial capital letter)
 - small capital letters in section and subsection references are now capital letters
- schedules are renumbered (eg, Schedule 1 replaces First Schedule), and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- running heads (the information that appears at the top of each page)

- format of two-column schedules of consequential amendments, and schedules of repeals (eg, they are rearranged into alphabetical order, rather than chronological).
