Dated at Wellington this 26th day of April 2016.

Kathryn Beck,
President, New Zealand Law Society.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the rules, but is intended to indicate their general effect.

These rules amend the Lawyers and Conveyancers Act (Lawyers: Conduct and Client Care) Rules 2008 (the principal rules). They come into force on 1 July 2016.

The amendments made are as follows:

- rule 15.2.4 is replaced with new rules 15.2.4 to 15.2.6 to clarify the scope of practice for an in-house lawyer. The amendments make it clear that an in-house lawyer may work for certain organisations closely associated with the lawyer's employer:
- a footnote is added to rule 15.2 to remind in-house lawyers of their obligations to comply with other provisions of the principal rules:
- minor drafting changes are made to chapters 2 and 13 to correct errors.

Issued under the authority of the Legislation Act 2012.

Date of notification in Gazette: 30 June 2016.

These rules are administered by the Ministry of Justice.
