Regulations

1 Title

These regulations are the New Zealand General Service Medal (Korea 1954–57) Regulations 2002.

2 Commencement

These regulations come into force on the 28th day after the date of their notification in the Gazette.

3 Korea 1954–57

- (1) The award of the New Zealand General Service Medal in bronze with the Clasp “KOREA 1954–57” in bronze is approved.
- (2) The Medal and the Clasp are awarded subject to the Royal Warrant and to regulation 4.

4 Qualification for award

A person qualifies for the award of the Medal and the Clasp who has served during the period beginning on 27 July 1954 and ending with 31 December 1957 in Korea, its adjacent waters, or Japan if—

- (a) that service was as a member of the New Zealand Army (within the meaning of the New Zealand Army Act 1950), the Royal New Zealand Air Force (within the meaning of the Royal New Zealand Air Force Act 1950), or the Royal New Zealand Naval Forces (within the meaning of the Navy Act 1954); and
- (b) that service included a period of service as part of the British Commonwealth Forces, attached to the United Nations Unified Command in one of the following:
 - (i) on the posted strength of a unit or formation; or
 - (ii) while posted for duty in HM Ships of the Royal Navy or HMNZ Ships of the Royal New Zealand Navy; or

- (iii) while seconded or on exchange with a Commonwealth or foreign defence force; and
- (c) one of the following applies:
 - (i) that service was for 30 days or more, continuous or aggregated; or
 - (ii) that service was ended, before the completion of 30 days, due to death or evacuation owing to illness or injury or a disability arising from that service; or
 - (iii) that service was less than 30 days' service, but the person was given a royal honour for gallantry in Korea, its adjacent waters, or Japan.

5 Delegation

Under clause 11(2) of the Royal Warrant, the Chief of Defence Force or a Chief of Staff acting for the Chief of Defence Force is authorised to award the New Zealand General Service Medal with the Clasp “KOREA 1954–57” to any person who is qualified for the award of that Medal with the Clasp “KOREA 1954–57”.

6 Revocation

The New Zealand General Service Medal (Korea 1954–57) Regulations 1998 (SR 1998/193) are revoked.

Dated at Wellington this 23rd day of July 2002.

Mark Burton,
Minister of Defence.

Notes1 *General

This is a reprint of the New Zealand General Service Medal (Korea 1954–57) Regulations 2002. The reprint incorporates all the amendments to the regulations as at 2 August 2002, as specified in the list of amendments at the end of these notes.

Relevant provisions of any amending enactments that have yet to come into force or that contain relevant transitional or savings provisions are also included, after the principal enactment, in chronological order.

2 Status of reprints

Under section 16D of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, reprints are presumed to correctly state, as at the date of the reprint, the law enacted by the principal enactment and by the amendments to that enactment. This presumption applies even though editorial changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in the reprint.

This presumption may be rebutted by producing the official volumes of statutes or statutory regulations in which the principal enactment and its amendments are contained.

3 How reprints are prepared

A number of editorial conventions are followed in the preparation of reprints. For example, the enacting words are not included in Acts, and provisions that are repealed or revoked are omitted. For a detailed list of the editorial conventions, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/editorial-conventions/> or Part 8 of the Tables of New Zealand Acts and Ordinances and Statutory Regulations and Deemed Regulations in Force.

4 Changes made under section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989

Section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 authorises the making of editorial changes in a reprint as set out in sections 17D and 17E of that Act so that, to the extent permitted, the format and style of the reprinted enactment is consistent with current legislative drafting practice. Changes that would alter the effect of the legislation are not permitted. A new format of legislation was introduced on 1 January 2000. Changes to legislative drafting style have also been made since 1997, and are ongoing. To the extent permitted by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, all legislation reprinted after 1 January 2000 is in the new format for legislation and reflects current drafting practice at the time of the reprint.

In outline, the editorial changes made in reprints under the authority of section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 are set out below, and they have been applied, where relevant, in the preparation of this reprint:

- omission of unnecessary referential words (such as “of this section” and “of this Act”)
- typeface and type size (Times Roman, generally in 11.5 point)
- layout of provisions, including:
 - indentation
 - position of section headings (eg, the number and heading now appear above the section)
- format of definitions (eg, the defined term now appears in bold type, without quotation marks)
- format of dates (eg, a date formerly expressed as “the 1st day of January 1999” is now expressed as “1 January 1999”)
- position of the date of assent (it now appears on the front page of each Act)

- punctuation (eg, colons are not used after definitions)
- Parts numbered with roman numerals are replaced with arabic numerals, and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- case and appearance of letters and words, including:
 - format of headings (eg, headings where each word formerly appeared with an initial capital letter followed by small capital letters are amended so that the heading appears in bold, with only the first word (and any proper nouns) appearing with an initial capital letter)
 - small capital letters in section and subsection references are now capital letters
- schedules are renumbered (eg, Schedule 1 replaces First Schedule), and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- running heads (the information that appears at the top of each page)
- format of two-column schedules of consequential amendments, and schedules of repeals (eg, they are rearranged into alphabetical order, rather than chronological).
