Note

Changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in this reprint.

A general outline of these changes is set out in the notes at the end of this reprint, together with other explanatory material about this reprint.

This order is administered by the Treasury.

3 Additional condition 2

Order

1 Title and commencement

- (1) This order may be cited as the State-Owned Enterprises (Post Office Bank Limited) Goods and Services Order 1987.
- (2) This order shall come into force on 1 April 1987.

2 Goods and services provided by Post Office Bank Limited

Whereas pursuant to the State-Owned Enterprises Act 1986 the rights and obligations to provide goods and services in relation to banking services to third parties have been transferred to Post Office Bank Limited, being goods and services previously provided by the Crown on terms and conditions wholly or partly prescribed by the Post Office Act 1959, it is hereby declared that section 23(7) of the State-Owned Enterprises Act 1986 shall apply to those goods and services, which shall, to the extent that those terms and conditions are not already contained in contracts between the Crown and third parties, on and after 1 April 1987, be deemed to be provided pursuant to contracts between Post Office Bank Limited and the third parties, each such contract including the terms and conditions (with all necessary modifications) contained in regulations 4, 10, 11, 12(3) and (4), 13 to 24, 26, 28 to 32, 37 to 41, 44, 45(1) and (2), 46 to 50, 65, 66, and 68 to 100 of the Post Office Savings Bank Regulations 1985, whether or not the regulations are revoked.

3 Additional condition

In addition to the terms and conditions specified in clause 2, each contract to which that clause applies shall be deemed to include a condition permitting variation or termination at any time by Post Office Bank Limited on giving to the third party 1 month's notice in such manner (including newspaper advertising) as Post Office Bank Limited thinks fit.

P G Millen,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the order, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

These regulations provide that certain terms and conditions set out in the Post Office Savings Bank Regulations 1985 in relation to services provided by the Post Office Savings Bank are to continue to apply to services provided by Post Office Bank Limited. It also provides that Post Office Bank Limited may vary or terminate any such terms and conditions by giving 1 month's notice.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.
Date of notification in Gazette: 31 March 1987.

Notes1 General

This is a reprint of the State-Owned Enterprises (Post Office Bank Limited) Goods and Services Order 1987. The reprint incorporates all the amendments to the order as at 1 April 1987, as specified in the list of amendments at the end of these notes. Relevant provisions of any amending enactments that contain transitional, savings, or application provisions that cannot be compiled in the reprint are also included, after the principal enactment, in chronological order. For more information, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/reprints/>.

2 Status of reprints

Under section 16D of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, reprints are presumed to correctly state, as at the date of the reprint, the law enacted by the principal enactment and by the amendments to that enactment. This presumption applies even though editorial changes authorised by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 have been made in the reprint.

This presumption may be rebutted by producing the official volumes of statutes or statutory regulations in which the principal enactment and its amendments are contained.

3 How reprints are prepared

A number of editorial conventions are followed in the preparation of reprints. For example, the enacting words are not included in Acts, and provisions that are repealed or revoked are omitted. For a detailed list of the editorial conventions, see <http://www.pco.parliament.govt.nz/editorial-conventions/> or Part 8 of the Tables of New Zealand Acts and Ordinances and Statutory Regulations and Deemed Regulations in Force.

4 Changes made under section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989

Section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 authorises the making of editorial changes in a reprint as set out in sections 17D and 17E of that Act so that, to the extent permitted, the format and style of the reprinted enactment is consistent with current legislative drafting practice. Changes that would alter the effect of the legislation are not permitted. A new format of legislation was introduced on 1 January 2000. Changes to legislative drafting style have also been made since 1997, and are ongoing. To the extent permitted by section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989, all legislation reprinted after 1 January 2000 is in the new format for legislation and reflects current drafting practice at the time of the reprint.

In outline, the editorial changes made in reprints under the authority of section 17C of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989 are set out below, and they have been applied, where relevant, in the preparation of this reprint:

- omission of unnecessary referential words (such as “of this section” and “of this Act”)
- typeface and type size (Times Roman, generally in 11.5 point)
- layout of provisions, including:
 - indentation
 - position of section headings (eg, the number and heading now appear above the section)
- format of definitions (eg, the defined term now appears in bold type, without quotation marks)
- format of dates (eg, a date formerly expressed as “the 1st day of January 1999” is now expressed as “1 January 1999”)

- position of the date of assent (it now appears on the front page of each Act)
- punctuation (eg, colons are not used after definitions)
- Parts numbered with roman numerals are replaced with arabic numerals, and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- case and appearance of letters and words, including:
 - format of headings (eg, headings where each word formerly appeared with an initial capital letter followed by small capital letters are amended so that the heading appears in bold, with only the first word (and any proper nouns) appearing with an initial capital letter)
 - small capital letters in section and subsection references are now capital letters
- schedules are renumbered (eg, Schedule 1 replaces First Schedule), and all cross-references are changed accordingly
- running heads (the information that appears at the top of each page)
- format of two-column schedules of consequential amendments, and schedules of repeals (eg, they are rearranged into alphabetical order, rather than chronological).
