1958, No. 55

An Act to amend the Administration Act 1952

[2 October 1958]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Administration Amendment Act 1958, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Administration Act 1952 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2. Grant of letters of administration to a trust company—Section forty-two of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing subsection one, and substituting the following subsection:

“(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Act, any trust company shall be entitled—

“(a) To apply for and obtain letters of administration of the estate of a deceased person, either with or without the will annexed; and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in section seventy-three of the Court of Probate Act 1857 of the United Kingdom Parliament, it shall not be necessary in the absence of evidence to the contrary for a trust company to prove in the case of any estate, whether insolvent or not, that there is any circumstance rendering it necessary or convenient to appoint it rather than any other person who would by law be entitled to a grant of administration of the estate:

- “(b) To perform and discharge all other acts and duties of an administrator as fully and effectually as a private individual may do when granted letters of administration.”
