An Act to amend the Airport Authorities Act 1966

[13 December 1968

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Airport Authorities Amendment Act 1968, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Airport Authorities Act 1966 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2. Bylaws relating to the disposal of lost property—(1) Section 9 of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting in subsection (1), after paragraph (f), the following paragraph:

“(ff) Providing for the establishing and maintaining of facilities at the airport for the reception and storage of lost property, and, after the insertion of suitable advertisements in a newspaper circulating in the district where the airport is situated, providing for the sale by way of auction of any such property that is unclaimed after being held by the authority for not less than three months:

“Provided that in the case of lost property which is perishable or valueless the bylaws may provide for the disposal of the property in such manner as may be determined by the authority:”.

(2) The said section 9 is hereby further amended by inserting, after subsection (1), the following subsection:

“(1A) Subject to any direction given by the Audit Office either in respect of airport authorities generally or in respect of any specific airport authority, the proceeds of every sale made pursuant to bylaws made under paragraph (ff) of subsection (1) of this section, after deducting the costs of the sale, and any lost money which is unclaimed, shall be paid into such bank account as may be kept by the authority and shall thereupon form part of its funds.”
