1902, No. 43.

- Title. AN ACT to amend the Law relating to Accident Insurance Companies. [2nd October, 1902.]
- BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—
- Short Title. 1. The Short Title of this Act is “The Accident Insurance Companies Act, 1902.”
- Interpretation. 2. In this Act, if not inconsistent with the context,—
- “Accident” means accident resulting in loss of life or in bodily injury :
- “Accident insurance” includes the following, whether the contract be one of primary insurance or of reinsurance, and whether the premium payable be a sum certain, or consists of sums uncertain or variable in time, number, or amount :—
- (a.) Insurance against accident, disease, disability, or any change of physical or mental condition ;
- (b.) Insurance or indemnity against employers’ liability, whether under statutory law or common law ;
- (c.) Insurance or indemnity against charges under section eighteen of “The Workers’ Compensation for Accidents Act, 1900,” taking precedence of encumbrances, mortgages, or charges lawfully existing ; and
- (d.) Generally any contract in the nature of any of the foregoing whereby the benefit under the contract accrues payable on or after the occurrence of some contingent event :

“Company” means any person or association, whether incorporated or otherwise, not being established under any Act relating to friendly societies, who issues or is liable under accident-insurance policies in New Zealand, and includes companies now established in or out of New Zealand, and includes also mutual associations as well as proprietary.

3. (1.) From and after the commencement of this Act every company shall at the expiration of each of its financial years prepare a statement of its accident-insurance business transacted in New Zealand during such year, and of its balance-sheet at the close of such year, in the form in the Schedule hereto.

Company to prepare annual statement.

(2.) Where a company transacts any other class of insurance business besides accident insurance, the statement shall include an explanation of the manner in which the expenditure common to the business as a whole has been apportioned amongst the different classes of business.

4. Every such statement shall be signed by the principal officer of the company managing the accident-insurance business in New Zealand, and shall be printed, and the original so signed, together with three printed copies thereof, shall within four months of the close of the company's financial year be deposited with the Colonial Treasurer.

Printed statement to be deposited with Colonial Treasurer.

5. The Colonial Treasurer is hereby empowered to ask for such additional explanation of any item in the statement deposited as he deems necessary for the purposes of this Act.

Further information to be given if required.

6. The Colonial Treasurer shall lay annually before Parliament copies of all statements deposited with him.

Statements to be laid before Parliament.

7. (1.) If any company makes default in duly complying with the requirements of this Act, or with any request the Colonial Treasurer may make under section five hereof, and continues in default for seven days after notice by the Colonial Treasurer, then in every such case the company and also its attorney, general agent, or other agent shall be severally liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds for every day during which such default continues after such notice.

Penalty in default.

(2.) If any such default as aforesaid is continued for a period of three months the Colonial Treasurer may, by notice in the Gazette, prohibit the defaulting company from carrying on business in New Zealand, either absolutely or for such time as he thinks fit.

(3.) If any company, or any person as attorney, general agent, or other agent of such company, or otherwise for or on behalf of such company, after the publication of such notice as last aforesaid, receives any application for insurance, or accepts any premium for insurance, or otherwise carries on the business of such company within New Zealand, then, in addition to and irrespective of the penalty hereinbefore provided, such company and person shall be severally liable to a penalty of one hundred pounds for each and every act done in breach of this provision.

8. Every person who signs or deposits any statement required by this Act, knowing the same to be false in any particular, is liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

Penalty for signing false statement.

Penalties recoverable summarily.

Commissioner's powers.

Policies free of stamp duty.

9. All penalties imposed by this Act are recoverable in a summary way.

10. The powers of the Commissioner under "The Government Accident Insurance Act, 1899," shall include, and be deemed to have at all times included, power to enter into contracts of accident insurance as defined by this Act.

11. Accident-insurance policies shall be exempt from stamp duty, and the exemption shall apply to every such policy heretofore issued and not stamped.
