1979, No. 74

An Act to amend the Agriculture (Emergency Powers) Act
1934 [13 December 1979]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Agriculture (Emergency Powers) Amendment Act 1979, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Agriculture (Emergency Powers) Act 1934 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2. Regulations for giving effect to recommendations of Commission of Inquiry—Section 27 of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing subsections (5) to (7), and substituting the following subsections:

“(5) All regulations made under the authority of this section shall be laid before Parliament not later than the 16th sitting day of Parliament after the day on which they are made.

“(6) Any regulations required by subsection (5) of this section to be laid before Parliament shall—

“(a) If not so laid, expire on the close of the 16th sitting day of Parliament after the day on which the regulations are made; and

“(b) If they are so laid, expire on the close of the last day of the session of Parliament during which they are so laid except so far as they are expressly validated and confirmed by an Act of Parliament passed during that session.

“(7) All regulations made under the authority of this section shall, while they continue in force, have the force of law as if they were enacted by this Act.

“(8) The validity of any regulations made under the authority of this section shall not be affected by reason only of the repeal of an Act of Parliament validating and confirming them.”

This Act is administered in the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries.
