Title. AN ACT to amend the Air Services Licensing Act 1951.
[23 October 1952]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short Title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Air Services Licensing Amendment Act 1952, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Air Services Licensing Act 1951 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

1951, No. 25

Extension of rights of appeal.

2. Section forty of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing subsection two, and substituting the following subsection:—

“(2) The following persons and no others may appeal as aforesaid, namely,—

“(a) The person in respect of whose application the decision of the Licensing Authority was given:

“(b) The holder of the licence in respect of which the decision was given:

“(c) The Minister in Charge of Civil Aviation:

“(d) The Minister of Defence:

“(e) The General Manager of Railways:

- “(f) Any holder of a transport licence under the Transport Act 1949 affected by the decision 1949, No. 7 or any incorporated body the principal object of which is the protection of the interests of owners, or of any group of owners, of transport services licensed under that Act:
- “(g) Any shipowner operating a coastal shipping service between New Zealand ports affected by the decision or any incorporated body representing shipowners operating any such services:
- “(h) The local authority of a district the inhabitants of which are affected by the decision:
- “(i) Any other person affected by the decision who,—
- “(i) Is the holder of a licence; or
- “(ii) At the sitting at which the decision was given, was an unsuccessful applicant for a licence in respect of a service the same as, or substantially the same as, the service in respect of which a licence was granted by that decision; or
- “(iii) Is a person who has applied for a licence but whose application has not been heard.”
