“Lecturer” includes an associate professor:

“President” means the person for the time being holding office as President of the College:

“Principal” means the person for the time being holding office as Principal of the College; and includes the person for the time being holding office as Acting Principal of the College: Part. 19 No. 2

“Professor” does not include an associate professor:

“Professorial Board” means the Professorial Board of the College:

“Vice-President” means the person for the time being holding office as Vice-President of the College.

The College

3. (1) There shall be a College of the University of New Zealand, to be called the Auckland University College. Part. 19 No. 2
Constitution of the College. 1882 (Local), No. 3, ss. 2, 4

(2) The College shall consist of the Council, the Principal, the professors and all other teaching members of the College staff for the time being in office, the professors emeriti, and the graduates and undergraduates of the University of New Zealand whose names are for the time being on the books of the College.

(3) The College shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal, and shall be capable of holding real and personal property and of doing and suffering all that bodies corporate may do and suffer.

4. The College established under this Act is hereby declared to be the same College as that established under the Auckland University College Act 1882.

5. The Minister of Education shall be the Visitor of the College, and shall have all the powers and functions usually possessed by Visitors.

The Council

6. (1) There shall be a Council of the College, to be called the Auckland University College Council.

(2) The Council shall consist of—

(a) Three members to be appointed by the Governor-General:

(b) Two members, being members of the Professorial Board, to be appointed by the Professorial Board:

(c) Six members to be elected by the District Court of Convocation of the Auckland University District:

(d) One member to be appointed by the Auckland Education Board:

(e) One member to be appointed by the Auckland City Council:

(f) One member to be appointed by the Executive Committee of the Auckland University College Students' Association Incorporated:

(g) One member to be elected from and by the members of such class or classes of the teaching staff of the College, not being professors, as the Council from time to time determines:

(h) Two members to be elected by such of the members of the House of Representatives as for the time being represent electoral districts wholly or partly within the boundaries of the Auckland University District:

(i) One member to be elected by the principals of the secondary schools (including registered private secondary schools) and technical schools situated within the Auckland University District:

(j) The Principal, or while there is no Principal in office the Acting Principal, or while there is no Principal or Acting Principal in office the Chairman for the time being of the Professorial Board.

(3) The powers of the Council shall not be affected by any vacancy in the membership thereof.

7. (1) Except as hereafter provided in this Act, the members of the Council elected by the District Court of Convocation of the Auckland University District shall be elected for a term of four years expiring on the date hereinafter specified, the members of the Council appointed by the Governor-General and the member of the Council appointed by the Auckland City Council shall be appointed for a term of three years expiring on the date hereinafter specified, and the other appointed members and the other elected members of the Council shall be appointed or elected for a term of two years expiring on the date hereinafter specified.

Term of office
Council.

1912, No. 14,
ss. 6, 7

1947, No. 36,
s. 3

(2) On the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred and fifty-five, and on the same day of every year thereafter, the term of office of the member of the Council appointed by the Governor-General whose term commenced earliest shall expire, and his successor (if then appointed) shall forthwith thereafter come into office.

(3) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in paragraph (c) of subsection two of section six of this Act, the number of members of the Council elected by the District Court of Convocation of the Auckland University District shall continue to be four until the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred and fifty-five. On that date the term of office of the two members of the Council elected by the District Court of Convocation of the Auckland University District whose terms commenced earliest shall expire, and four members elected by the District Court of Convocation of the Auckland University District shall (if then elected) forthwith thereafter come into office. On the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred and fifty-seven, the term of office of the two members of the Council elected by the District Court of Convocation of the Auckland University District whose terms commenced earliest, and of one of the other members of the Council so elected (to be determined by lot) shall expire, and their successors (if then elected) shall forthwith thereafter come into office. On the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred and fifty-nine, and on the same day of every second year thereafter, the term of office of the three members of the Council elected by the District Court of Convocation of the Auckland University District whose terms commenced earliest shall expire, and their successors (if then elected) shall forthwith thereafter come into office.

(4) On the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred and fifty-five, and on the same day of every third year thereafter, the term of office of the member of the Council appointed by the Auckland City Council shall expire, and his successor (if then appointed) shall forthwith thereafter come into office.

(5) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in paragraph (h) of subsection two of section six of this Act, the three members of the Council who were elected before the commencement of this Act by the members of the General Assembly resident in the Provincial District of Auckland shall all continue in office after the commencement of this Act and shall be deemed to have been elected by such of the members of the House of Representatives as for the time being represent electoral districts wholly or partly within the boundaries of the Auckland University District. They shall all go out of office on the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred and fifty-five, when the number of members of the Council elected by the said members of the House of Representatives shall be reduced to two. On the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred and fifty-six, the term of office of one of the members of the Council elected by the said members of the House of Representatives (to be determined by lot) shall expire, and his successor (if then elected) shall forthwith thereafter come into office. On the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred and fifty-seven, and on the same day of every year thereafter, the term of office of the member of the Council elected by the said members of the House of Representatives whose term commenced earliest shall expire and his successor (if then elected) shall forthwith thereafter come into office.

(6) On the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred and fifty-five, and on the same day of every second year thereafter, the term of office of the appointed or elected members of the Council (other than those specified in subsections two to five of this section) shall expire, and their successors (if then appointed or elected) shall forthwith thereafter come into office.

(7) The appointment or election of members of the Council in any year shall be made or held not later than the third Monday in June in that year.

(8) Unless he sooner vacates his office as hereinafter provided, every member of the Council who is in office at the commencement of this Act or thereafter comes into office shall continue in office until his successor comes into office, notwithstanding that the term for which he was appointed or elected may have expired.

(9) Every retiring member of the Council shall be eligible for reappointment or re-election.

8. Except as provided in paragraphs (b), (g), and (j) of subsection two of section six of this Act, no person in the employment of the College shall be capable of being elected or appointed to be or of being a member of the Council.

Persons in employment of College not capable of being members of Council.

9. (1) If any member of the Council—

- (a) Dies; or
- (b) Resigns his office by writing under his hand delivered to the Council or the President; or
- (c) Becomes bankrupt; or
- (d) Becomes a mentally defective person within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1911; or
- (e) Is absent without the leave of the Council from three consecutive meetings of the Council; or
- (f) Being a member appointed by the Professorial Board, ceases to be a member of the Professorial Board; or
- (g) Being a member elected pursuant to paragraph (g) of subsection two of section six of this Act, ceases to be a member of the teaching staff of the College; or

(h) Being the Principal or Acting Principal, ceases to hold the office of Principal or Acting Principal, as the case may be,— he shall thereupon cease to be a member, and the vacancy thereby created shall be deemed to be a casual vacancy.

(2) Where the Chairman of the Professorial Board becomes a member of the Council under paragraph (j) of subsection two of section six of this Act by reason of the fact that no Principal is for the time being in office,—

(a) If he has been appointed as a member of the Council by the Professorial Board under paragraph (b) of that subsection, his appointment under the said paragraph (b) shall thereupon terminate, and the vacancy shall be deemed to be a casual one:

(b) Upon his ceasing to be a member of the Council by reason of the subsequent appointment of a Principal, the members of the Council appointed by the Professorial Board shall go out of office, and the vacancies shall be deemed to be casual ones.

(3) Every casual vacancy shall be filled by the appointment or election of a new member in the manner in which the vacating member was appointed or elected, and the member appointed or elected to fill any casual vacancy shall be appointed or elected for only the residue of the term of the vacating member.

(4) The appointment or election of a member to fill a casual vacancy shall,—

(a) In the case of a member elected by the District Court of Convocation, be made not later than sixty days after the vacancy occurs:

(b) In the case of any other appointed or elected member, be made not later than forty-two days after the vacancy occurs.

(5) If any vacancy, whether casual or otherwise, is not filled within the time prescribed by this Act, the Council may thereafter appoint a suitable person to fill the vacancy.

10. (1) Whenever a vacancy, whether casual or otherwise, occurs that is to be filled by appointment by the Governor-General it shall be the duty of the Council forthwith to report the fact to the Minister of Education.

(2) Whenever a vacancy, whether casual or otherwise, occurs that is to be filled by appointment by the Professorial Board, or by the Auckland Education Board, or by the Auckland City Council, it shall be the duty of the Council forthwith to report the fact to the Board or Council which appointed the vacating member.

(3) Whenever a vacancy, whether casual or otherwise, occurs in respect of the office of any other appointed or elected member of the Council it shall be the duty of the Council to do all things necessary to secure the filling of the vacancy.

11. (1) The Registrar of the College or such other person as the Council appoints shall be the Returning Officer for the purpose of conducting elections of members of the Council.

Election of members of Council.
1912, No. 14,
s. 4

(2) The Returning Officer shall prepare a separate roll for each class of electors.

(3) The said rolls shall be prepared and completed and the said elections shall be held and conducted at such times and in such manner and in accordance with such rules and by-laws as may from time to time be made and prescribed by the Council in that behalf.

(4) In the event of an equality of votes, the election shall be determined by lot by the Returning Officer in the presence of the President or some other member of the Council appointed in that behalf by the Council.

(5) In the event of any dispute arising as to the validity of any election the Council shall have full power to determine the matter as it thinks fit and may if it thinks fit order another election to be held.

12. A member of the Council who is in the employment of the College shall not be entitled to vote on any question before the Council which directly affects his salary or in which he, either alone or in common with other members of the staff, has a direct pecuniary interest.

Disqualification of employees of Council from voting on certain questions.

13. (1) Unless it otherwise resolves, the Council shall meet at least once in each month at such time and place as it determines.

Meetings of Council.
1882 (Local),
No. 3, ss. 14,
15, 17

(2) At any meeting of the Council seven members shall form a quorum.

(3) Every question before the Council shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the members present at the meeting of the Council and entitled to vote on that question.

(4) The Chairman at any meeting shall have a deliberative vote, and, in the case of an equality of votes, shall also have a casting vote.

Special meetings of Council.
1882 (Local),
No. 3, s. 15

14. The President or any five members of the Council may at any time call a special meeting of the Council. Notice of any such meeting shall be posted to each member at his usual address at least forty-eight hours before the time fixed for the meeting.

Council may appoint committees and delegate powers.

15. (1) The Council may from time to time appoint standing or special committees, and may delegate any of the powers and duties of the Council to any such committee.

(2) Any committee to which any powers or duties are delegated as aforesaid may, without confirmation by the Council, exercise or perform those powers or duties in like manner and with the same effect as the Council itself could have exercised or performed them.

Council to be the governing body of the College.

16. The Council shall be the governing body of the College through which the corporation of the College shall act, and shall have the entire management of and superintendence over the affairs, concerns, and property of the College; and, subject to the provisions of this Act, shall in respect of all such matters have authority to act in such manner as appears to it to be best calculated to promote the interests of the College or of any other institution controlled by the Council.

1882 (Local),
No. 3, s. 19
See Reprint of Statutes,
Vol. II, p. 1152

17. Subject to the provisions of section three of the New Zealand University Amendment Act 1928 (relating to the establishment of new Chairs), the Council shall have full power to appoint and remove all professors, associate professors, lecturers, teachers, examiners, officers, and servants of the College or of any other institution controlled by the Council.

Seal.
1882 (Local),
No. 3, s. 20

18. The seal of the College shall be in the custody of the President, and shall not be affixed to any document except pursuant to a resolution of the Council.

Council may make by-laws.

19. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Council may from time to time make by-laws—

(a) For the purpose of regulating its procedure and the general administration of the affairs of the College:

- (b) Prescribing any matters which by this Act are required or permitted to be prescribed or with respect to which by-laws are necessary or convenient for giving effect to this Act.

1882 (Local), No. 3, s. 12

1923, No. 8, s. 2

(2) Every person so elected shall hold office for such period as the Council, before holding the election, shall determine, or until he sooner ceases to be a member of the Council.

(3) For the purpose of the election of the President, the Registrar of the College shall preside at the meeting, but shall not be entitled to vote.

(4) In the event of an equality of votes in any election under this section the election shall be determined by lot by the Registrar in the presence of the Council.

(5) The President shall preside at every meeting of the Council at which he is present. If at any meeting of the Council the President for the time being is not present or there is no President, the Vice-President shall preside at the meeting; and if the Vice-President also is not present at the meeting or there is no Vice-President, the Council shall appoint some member present to act as Chairman in respect of that meeting. The Vice-President or person so appointed shall have and may exercise in any such case all the powers and functions of the Chairman for the purposes of the meeting.

(6) Subject as aforesaid, on the occurrence from any cause of a vacancy of the office of President or during the absence from New Zealand or incapacity of the President, the Vice-President shall have and may exercise all the powers and duties of the President.

Principal and Acting Principal

21. (1) The Council may from time to time appoint a member of the Professorial Board or some other person to be Principal of the College. Every person so appointed shall hold office during the pleasure of the Council.

to act as Chairman in respect of that meeting. The Deputy Chairman or person so appointed shall have and may exercise in any such case all the powers and functions of the Chairman for the purposes of the meeting.

(2) At any meeting of the Professorial Board the Chairman shall have a deliberative vote, and in the case of an equality of votes shall also have a casting vote. All questions before the Board shall be decided by a majority of the valid votes recorded thereon.

(3) At every meeting of the Professorial Board a quorum shall consist of such number of members as the Board with the consent of the Council from time to time determines.

(4) Save as expressly provided in this Act, the Professorial Board shall have power to make rules as to the time and place of its meetings and the procedure thereat.

Powers of Professorial
Board.
1882 (Local),
No. 3, ss. 22, 23

27. (1) The Professorial Board shall have power of its own motion or at the request of the Council to make recommendations or reports to the Council in any matter affecting the College.

(2) The Professorial Board shall have the power of granting College terms.

(3) In addition to the powers hereinbefore conferred on it, the Professorial Board may, subject to the approval of the Council, exercise the following powers:

(a) To arrange courses of study and times of lectures at the College:

(b) To make rules for the attendance of students:

(c) To prescribe the subjects of examination for scholarships, exhibitions, prizes, and other College distinctions and awards.

(4) The Professorial Board shall, subject to the control of the Council, have power to manage the College library.

(5) The Professorial Board shall have power to deal with all matters relating to the maintenance of discipline among the students of the College, and shall have such powers of fining, suspending, and expelling students guilty of breaches of discipline, and such other powers of whatsoever kind, as may be conferred on it by the by-laws made under the authority of this Act:

Provided that any person aggrieved by any action of the Professorial Board under this subsection may appeal to the Council, whose decision shall be final.

Financial Provisions and Property

28. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and to the terms of any trust or endowment, the annual income of the College shall be applied in such manner as the Council thinks fit towards all or any of the following purposes:

Application of income of College and vesting of its property. 1882 (Local), No. 3, s. 26

- (a) The maintenance of the College and of every other institution controlled by the Council, and the payment of salaries and expenses connected therewith, and of prizes, exhibitions, scholarships, and other rewards for the students therein:
- (b) Generally in doing whatever the Council thinks expedient in order that the College may best accomplish the purposes for which it exists.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in subsection one of this section, the Council may from time to time set apart such portion of its annual income as it thinks fit, and may either add such portion to the capital fund or set it aside as a reserve fund to meet extraordinary expenses and in the meantime to accumulate at interest.

(3) All property, rights, and privileges which immediately before the commencement of this Act were vested in or belonged to the Auckland University College Council are hereby vested in the Auckland University College without conveyance, transfer, or assignment but (subject to the provisions of this Act) for the same purposes and upon the same trusts as were applicable to them immediately before the commencement of this Act. The District Land Registrar, on request by the College and on payment of the appropriate fee, shall make such entries in his register and on any outstanding documents of title as may be necessary to give effect to this subsection.

29. (1) All money belonging to the College amounting to five pounds and upwards shall, within seven days after they have come into the hands of the proper officer of the College, be paid into the account of the College at such bank as the Council from time to time appoints.

Money to be paid into bank.

(2) No money shall be withdrawn from the bank except by authority of the Council and by cheque signed by the Registrar or by an officer of the College approved by the Council and countersigned by a member of the Council.

Loan money to be paid to a separate account.

30. All money borrowed by the Council on behalf of or for the purposes of the College shall be paid into a separate account in the name of the loan at the said bank, and shall not be drawn out of the account or expended except for the special purposes for which it was borrowed.

Investment of money.

31. Subject to the terms of any trust or endowment, any money belonging to the College and available for investment may be invested in any manner authorized by or under the Trustee Act 1908 or any other Act for the investment of trust funds, or in any other manner which the Governor-General for the time being approves.

See Reprint of Statutes, Vol. VIII, p. 873

Travelling allowances and expenses of members of Council.

32. Every member of the Council shall be paid such travelling allowances as may be fixed by the Council with the approval of the Minister of Finance, and shall in addition be entitled to receive a refund of all money reasonably expended by him for railway, steamship, or other passenger fares in respect of his attendance at any meeting of the Council and in transacting the business thereof.

Unauthorized expenditure. 1950, No. 91, s. 3

33. The Council may in any year expend for purposes not authorized by any law for the time being in force any sum or sums not exceeding in the aggregate five hundred pounds.

Fees. 1912, No. 14, s. 11

34. There shall be payable by the students of the College such fees as the Council from time to time prescribes.

Fees payable to associations of students.

35. The Council shall have power to impose and collect from time to time from students of the College or from any of them such fees as it shall consider reasonable for the benefit of any association or organization of students of the College and to dispose of those fees accordingly.

Grants by Council to associations of students.

36. The Council may from time to time make grants from its funds to any association or organization of students of the College.

37. (1) Without limiting the powers conferred upon the Council by the Auckland University College Reserves Act 1885 or any other Act, it is hereby declared that, subject to the provisions of this section, the Council may do all or any of the following things on behalf of and for the purposes of the College, namely:

Powers of Council in respect of property.
1948, No. 68,
s. 20
1885 (Local),
No. 1

- (a) Establish, build, maintain, repair, rebuild, reinstate, conduct, manage, and control hostels for students, professors, lecturers, and teaching staff, and houses for professors, lecturers, teaching staff, and any other of its employees whatsoever, and buildings and rooms for the recreation or social use of students, professors, lecturers, and teaching staff:
- (b) With the consent of the Minister of Education, contract to purchase or take on lease any land for any of the purposes mentioned in paragraph (a) of this subsection or for any purpose whatsoever in connection with the College:
- (c) With the consent of the Minister of Education, sell any right, title, estate, or interest in land vested in the College:
- (d) With the consent of the Minister of Education, borrow money from the Crown or from any corporation or person; and (for the purpose of securing any money so borrowed) mortgage, charge, or pledge any right, title, estate, or interest in any land vested in the College:
- (e) Grant leases of any land, except the site or grounds of the College; and for that purpose the Council is hereby declared to be a leasing authority within the meaning of the Public Bodies' Leases Act 1908:
- (f) Grant leases and licences for the extraction and removal of coal and other minerals from land of which it may grant leases as aforesaid at such rent or royalty and upon such terms and conditions as the Council shall determine.

See Reprint of Statutes, Vol. IV, p. 1031

(2) The Minister of Education is hereby empowered to make advances on such terms as the Minister of Finance may approve to the Council for the purposes of the College out of moneys appropriated by Parliament for the purpose.

Power to borrow by way of overdraft or temporary loan.

38. In addition to the powers conferred by section thirty-seven of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Council, in anticipation of its revenue, from time to time to borrow money by way of overdraft or on temporary loan on behalf of and for the purposes of the College:

Provided that the amount so borrowed shall not at any time exceed one-twelfth of the revenue of the College from all sources during the immediately preceding financial year of the College:

Provided also that at the end of any financial year of the College the amount of the overdraft or loan shall not exceed the outstanding revenue due to the College in respect of that financial year.
