1890, No. 6.—Local.

AN ACT to authorise the Use of a certain Parcel of Land in the Borough of Devonport, in the Provincial District of Auckland, New Zealand; also to empower the Borough Council of Devonport to declare a certain Road therein to be a Public Road, and to vest a Portion of the Foreshore of the Borough in the Borough Council of Devonport, and to vest One-half Acre of the Mount Victoria Recreation Reserve in the Board of Education, Auckland District. Title.

[29th August, 1890.]

WHEREAS within the Borough of Devonport the land described in the First Schedule has been heretofore acquired, set apart, and dedicated as a cemetery, but has not been used for the purposes of a cemetery: And whereas section forty-nine of "The Cemeteries Act, 1882," provides that after the commencement of that Act no cemetery or burial-ground of any kind shall be established within the limits of a borough: And whereas the Borough Council of Devonport have acquired other land outside the limits of the borough suitable as a cemetery, and have set apart and dedicated the same as a cemetery, and it is now expedient that the land within the borough hitherto set apart as a cemetery should be available for other purposes: Preamble.

And whereas certain parcels of land in Devonport, more particularly described in the Second and Fifth Schedules, have heretofore been laid out and used as a public road, but, being portion of the Mount Victoria Domain and Public School Reserve, cannot be alienated without special legislation, and it is desirable to create authority for so doing:

And whereas it is desirable that certain land and foreshore of Devonport, more particularly described in the Third Schedule, should be vested in the Borough Council of Devonport:

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short Title.

1. The Short Title of this Act is “The Borough of Devonport Empowering and Endowment Act, 1890.”

Vesting land as endowment for borough.

2. On the passing of this Act the land described in the First Schedule shall be and is hereby vested in the Borough Council of Devonport as an endowment for the benefit of the said Borough of Devonport, and may be used, subdivided, and leased in accordance with the provisions of “The Municipal Corporations Act, 1886,” and amendments thereof.

Land to be dedicated for public road.

3. On the passing of this Act the lands described in the Second and Fifth Schedules shall be and are hereby vested in the Borough Council of Devonport, to be by the said Borough Council dedicated as a public road.

Foreshore to be vested in Borough of Devonport.

4. On the passing of this Act the land and foreshore described in the Third Schedule shall be and are hereby vested in the Borough Council of Devonport as an endowment for the use of the public, subject, nevertheless, to and reserving the rights to water-frontage now owned or claimed by private owners whose properties have frontage to the said foreshore.

Governor to execute necessary conveyances.

5. The Governor may make and execute such conveyances and other assurances as may be necessary to effectuate the intention of this Act, and for evidencing the title of the said Borough Council to the said lands described in the First, Second, Fifth, and Third Schedules hereto.

Powers to deal with lands under “The Municipal Corporations Act, 1886.”

6. The said Borough Council may deal with the said lands described in the said First, Second, Fifth, and Third Schedules in the manner provided by “The Municipal Corporations Act, 1886,” and amendments.

Governor empowered to vest land in Board of Education.

7. On the passing of this Act the Governor may make and execute all conveyances and assurances as may be necessary to vest in the Education Board of the District of Auckland the land described in the Fourth Schedule, to be accepted by the said Board of Education as compensation for the lands referred to in section three, to be dedicated as a public road, and in fulfilment of an agreement to that effect made in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six between the said Board and the Devonport Road Board, the predecessors of the Devonport Borough Council.
