1882, No. 7.—Local.

Title. AN ACT to set at rest Doubts as to the Boundaries of the Borough of Hamilton.
[13th September, 1882.]

Preamble. WHEREAS by Proclamation under the hand of the Governor, dated the twenty-fourth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and issued under and by virtue of "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1876," a certain portion of the districts of Hamilton East and West was constituted a borough within the meaning of the said Act, and certain boundaries thereof were therein defined: And whereas doubts have arisen as to the extent and accuracy of such boundaries, and the validity of such Proclamation, and it is desirable to set such doubts at rest:

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short Title. 1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Borough of Hamilton Boundaries Act, 1882."

Borough of Hamilton to be deemed to have been in existence from 24th December, 1877. 2. The district comprised within the boundaries mentioned and described in the Schedule hereto shall be taken and deemed to be and to have been, as from the twenty-fourth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, properly constituted a borough, under the name of the Borough of Hamilton, within the meaning of "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1876," and the amendments thereto.

All acts and things done, and all proceedings taken, and all contracts entered into, in the name of or on behalf of the said borough since the said date, which would have been lawful if the said borough had been properly constituted and the boundaries thereof correctly defined, are hereby declared to have been and to be valid and effectual to all intents and purposes; and all debts, liabilities, or penalties incurred or accrued since the said date, and now subsisting, may be imposed, recovered, and enforced accordingly.

Schedule.
