

No. III.

AN ORDINANCE to repeal within the said Colony of New Zealand an Act of the Governor and Council of New South Wales, passed in the third year of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to repeal an Act relating to the Revenue of Customs in New South Wales and to provide for the general regulation thereof," and also a certain other Act of the said Governor and Council of New South Wales, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her said present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for increasing the Duties on Spirits Wine and other Goods and Merchandise imported into the Colony of New South Wales and its Dependencies," and which said Acts of the Governor and Council of New South Wales were adopted and are now in force within the said Colony of New Zealand and its dependencies; and to make provision for the collection of certain Duties on Goods imported into, and for the general regulation of the revenue of Customs in the Colony of New Zealand and its dependencies. [17th June, 1841.]

CUSTOMS.

WHEREAS Her Majesty Queen Victoria, by her Royal Charter and Letters Patent, has been pleased to erect the Islands of New Zealand into a separate and independent Colony, and it is necessary to provide for the collection of certain duties on goods imported therein

Preamble.

Customs.

3 and 4 Wm. IV.

therein and for the general regulation of the revenue of Customs and trade thereof: And whereas by a certain Act of Parliament passed in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the Trade of the British Possessions abroad," it was amongst other things enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of his Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from any British Possession within the limits of the East India Company's charter (excepting the possessions of the said Company) as to His Majesty in Council should appear most expedient and salutary, and that if any goods should be imported or exported in any manner contrary thereto the same should be forfeited together with the ship importing or exporting the same: And whereas no such Order of His late Majesty or of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria in Council has been received in this Colony, and it is expedient to make provisions for the collection of duties on goods imported and for regulating the Customs and trade within the said Colony.

1.. Be it therefore enacted and ordained by the Governor of New Zealand, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council of the same, that from and after the first day of July next, the said recited Acts of the Governor and Council of New South Wales shall be and the same are hereby repealed so far as the same apply to and are in force within the Colony of New Zealand and no further or otherwise, and that this Ordinance shall come into and be and continue in full force and operation for levying certain duties on goods imported into and for regulating the Customs and trade within the said Colony of New Zealand and its dependencies.

Persons employed by Customs deemed officers for such service.

2. And be it enacted and ordained, That every person employed on any duty or service relating to the Customs within the said Colony and its dependencies, by the orders or with the concurrence of the Governor of the said Colony or of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs (whether previously or subsequently expressed), shall be deemed to be the officer of the Customs for that duty or service, and that every act matter or thing required by any law at any time in force to be done or performed by to or with any particular officer nominated in such law for such purpose being done or performed by to or with any person appointed by the Governor of the said Colony or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs to act for or in behalf of such particular officer, the same shall be deemed to be done or performed by to or with such particular officer.

Officers taking any fee or reward not allowed shall be dismissed.

3. And be it enacted and ordained, That if any officer clerk or other person acting in any office or employment in or belonging to the Customs in the said Colony shall take or receive any fee perquisite gratuity or reward, whether pecuniary or of any other sort or description whatsoever, directly or indirectly, from any person not being a person duly appointed to some office in the Customs, on account of anything done or to be done by him or in any way relating to his said office or employment, except such as he shall receive under any order or permission of the Governor of the said Colony, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, every such officer so offending, on proof thereof to the Governor of the said Colony or to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, shall be dismissed from his office; and if any person not being a person duly appointed to some office in the Customs shall give offer or promise to give any such fee perquisite gratuity or reward, such person shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of one hundred pounds.

4. And

Customs.

4. And be it enacted and ordained, That if any officer of the Customs or other person duly authorized to act as such shall make any collusive seizure or deliver up or make any agreement to deliver up or not to seize any vessel boat or goods liable to forfeiture, or take any bribe gratuity recompense or reward for the neglect or non-performance of his duty, every such officer or other person shall forfeit for every such offence the sum of five hundred pounds.

Officers making collusive seizures, to forfeit £500.

5. And be it enacted and ordained, That every person who shall give or offer or promise to give any bribe recompense or reward, or shall make any collusive agreement with any such officer as aforesaid, to induce him in any way to neglect his duty or to do or conceal or connive at any act whereby any of the provisions of any Act of the Imperial Parliament or any law rule order or regulation in force within the said Colony may be evaded, every such person shall, whether the offer be accepted or performed or not, forfeit the sum of two hundred pounds.

Persons offering a bribe to forfeit £200.

6. And be it enacted and ordained, That it shall be lawful for the Collector or other principal officer of the Customs, with the sanction of the Governor of the said Colony, from time to time to appoint the hours of general attendance of the respective officers and other persons under their survey at their proper offices and places of employment.

Hours of attendance.

7. And be it enacted and ordained, That no officer of Customs or person employed in the collection or management of or accounting for the revenue of Customs or any part thereof, nor any clerk or other person acting under them, shall during the time of his acting as such officer or of his being so employed as aforesaid or of his acting as such clerk or other person as aforesaid as the case may be, be compelled to serve in any other public office or employment, or to serve on any jury or inquest or in the Militia, any law usage or custom to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Officers of Customs not liable to serve in parochial or other local offices.

8. And be it enacted and ordained, That no day shall be kept as a public holiday by the Customs except Christmas Day and Good Friday in every year and any days appointed by the Governor's Proclamation for the purpose of a general fast or of a general thanksgiving, and all such days as shall be appointed for the celebration of the birthdays of Her Majesty and of her successors.

Holidays.

9. And be it enacted and ordained, That in all cases wherein proof on oath or affirmation shall be required by any law, or shall be necessary in any matter relating to the Customs, the same may be made before the Collector or other principal officer where such proof or affirmation shall be required to be made, or before the persons acting for them respectively, and who are hereby authorized and empowered to administer the same.

Collector &c. authorized to administer oaths and affirmations.

10. And be it enacted and ordained, That upon examinations and inquiries made by the Collector or other principal officer of Customs or other persons appointed by the Commissioners of Customs to make such examinations and inquiries for ascertaining the truth of facts relative to the Customs or the conduct of officers or persons employed therein, any person examined before them or him as a witness shall deliver testimony on oath, to be administered by such Collector or other principal officer or such other person as shall examine him, and who are hereby authorized to administer such oath; and if such person shall be convicted of making a false oath touching any of the facts so testified on oath, or of giving false evidence on his examination on oath before such Collector or other principal officer of Customs or such other person in conformity to the directions of this Ordinance, every such person so convicted as aforesaid shall be deemed deemed guilty of perjury and shall be liable to the pains and penalties to which persons are liable for wilful and corrupt perjury.

Collector &c. may examine on oath.

General provision.

11. And whereas it is expedient that the officers of Customs should have full cognizance of all ships coming into any port in the said Colony or approaching the coast thereof, and of all goods on board or which may have been on board such ships, and also of all goods unladen from any ship in any port or place in the said Colony: Be it therefore enacted and ordained, That no goods shall be unladen from any ship arriving from parts beyond the seas at any port or place in the said Colony, nor shall bulk be broken after the arrival of such ship within four leagues of the coast thereof respectively, before due report of such ship and due entry of such goods shall have been made and warrant granted in manner hereinafter directed, and that no goods shall be so unladen except at such times and places and in such manner and by such persons and under the care of such officers as is and are hereinafter directed, and that all goods not duly reported or which shall be unladen contrary hereto shall be forfeited; and if bulk be broken contrary hereto, the master of such ship shall forfeit the sum of one hundred pounds.

Goods &c. declared forfeited by law may be seized.

12. And be it enacted and ordained, That all goods ships vessels and boats which by any law in force within the said Colony shall be declared to be forfeited, may be seized by any officer of the Customs.

Vessels not bringing to at stations, master to forfeit not less than £10 nor more than £100.

13. And be it enacted and ordained, That if the master of any ship or vessel arriving at or departing from any port in the said Colony shall neglect or refuse to bring to at the proper stations in such port appointed by the Governor for the boarding or landing of officers of the Customs, the master of such ship or vessel shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of not less than ten nor more than one hundred pounds.

Officers may be stationed in ships in the limits of any port.

14. And be it enacted and ordained, That it shall be lawful for the Collector or other principal officer of Customs to station an officer on board any ship or vessel while within the limits of any port in the said Colony, and the master of every ship or vessel on board of which any officer is so stationed shall provide every such officer sufficient room under the deck in some part of the fore-castle or steerage for his bed or hammock, and in case of neglect or refusal so to do shall forfeit the sum of twenty pounds.

Ships and cargo to be reported on arrival.

15. And be it enacted and ordained, That the master of every ship or vessel arriving in the said Colony, whether laden or in ballast, shall come within twenty-four hours and before bulk be broken to the Custom House, and there make a report in writing to the Collector or other principal officer of the arrival and voyage of such ship or vessel, stating the name country and tonnage, and, if British, the port of registry, the name and country of the master, the country of the owners, the number of the crew and how many are of the country of such ship or vessel, and whether she be laden or in ballast, and if laden, the marks numbers and contents of every package or parcel of goods on board, and where the same was laden, and where and to whom consigned, and where and what goods if any had been unladen during the voyage, and what part of the cargo if any is intended for exportation in such ship or vessel to parts beyond the seas, and what surplus of stores or stock remains on board such ship or vessel, as far as any of such particulars can be known to him; and the master shall further answer all such questions concerning the ship or vessel and the cargo and the crew and the voyage as shall be demanded of him by such officer; and if any goods shall be unladen from any ship or vessel before such report be made, or if the master shall fail to make such report or shall make an untrue report or not truly truly answer the questions demanded of him, he shall forfeit the sum of one hundred pounds.

16. And be it enacted and ordained, That it shall be lawful for the proper officer or officers of the Customs to board any ships or vessels arriving at any port of the said Colony and freely to stay on board until all the goods laden therein shall have been duly delivered from the same, and such officer or officers shall have free access to every part of the ship or vessel, with power to fasten down hatchways and to mark any goods before landing and to lock up seal mark or otherwise secure any goods on board such ship or vessel, and if any place or any box or chest be locked and the keys be withheld, such officer or officers if he or they be of a degree superior to tidewaiters may open any such place box or chest in the best manner in their power, and if they be tidewaiters or only of that degree they shall send for their superior officer, who may open or cause to be opened any such place box or chest in the best manner in his power; and if any goods be found concealed on board of any such ship or vessel they shall be forfeited; and if the officer shall place any lock mark or seal upon any goods on board, and such lock be wilfully opened altered or broken before due delivery of such goods, or if any such goods be secretly conveyed away, or if the hatchways after having been fastened down by the officer be opened, the master of such ship or vessel shall forfeit the sum of one hundred pounds.

Officers to board ships.

17. And be it enacted and ordained, That from and after the first day of July next there shall be raised levied collected and paid unto her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, for the public uses of the said Colony, upon goods wares and merchandize imported into the Colony of New Zealand and its dependencies and landed at any port or place therein, the several duties of Customs as the same are respectively inserted described and set forth in figures in the table to this Ordinance annexed, denominated "A Table of Duties of Customs," except British goods and goods the produce of and imported direct from New South Wales or Van Dieman's Land.

Duties.

18. And whereas, in and by a certain Act of the Governor and Council of New South Wales made and passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her said present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the payment of the Duties of Customs in Her Majesty's Dominions in the Islands of New Zealand," and which has been adopted and is intended still to be in force within the said Colony of New Zealand, it is provided that no duty of Customs shall be charged payable or paid on any tobacco which may be imported into any of the Islands of New Zealand until the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three; and it is expedient that such duty shall commence and be charged payable and paid from the first day of January now next ensuing: Be it therefore further enacted and ordained that so much of the said Act as appoints the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, for the commencement of such duty on tobacco shall be and the same is hereby repealed, and that the said Act in all other respects is and shall be in force within the said Colony of New Zealand and its dependencies.

4 Vict., No. 19.

Duty on tobacco.

19. And be it enacted and ordained, That the person entering any goods shall deliver to the Collector or other proper officer a bill of the entry thereof, fairly written in words at length, containing the name of the importer and of the ship and of the master and of the place from whence they were brought and of the place within the port where the goods are to be unladen, and the particulars of the quality and quantity of the goods and the packages containing the same and the marks and numbers on the packages, and two or more duplicates as the case may require of such bill in which all sums and numbers may be expressed in figures, and the particulars contained in such bills shall be written and arranged in such form and manner and the number of such duplicates shall be such as the Collector or other principal officer or other proper person shall require, and such person shall at the same time pay down all duties due upon the goods, and the Collector or other proper officer shall thereupon grant his warrant for the unlading of such goods.

Unauthorized persons not permitted to make entries.

20. And be it enacted and ordained, That every person who shall make or cause to be made any such entry inwards of any goods not being duly authorized thereto by the proprietor or consignee of such goods, shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of one hundred pounds.

If goods be not entered in 20 days, officers may land and secure them.

21. And be it enacted and ordained, That every importer of goods shall within twenty days after the arrival of the importing ship or vessel make due entry inwards of such goods and land the same, and in default of such entry and landing it shall be lawful for the officers of the Customs to convey such goods to the Queen's warehouse, and if the duties due upon such goods be not paid within three months after such twenty days shall have expired, together with all charges of removal and warehouse rent, the same shall be sold and the produce thereof shall be applied first to the payment of freight and charges next of duties and the overplus if any shall be paid to the proprietor of the goods or other person duly authorized to receive the same.

Entry not to be valid if goods are not properly described in it.

22. And be it enacted and ordained, That no entry nor any warrant for the landing of any goods or for the taking of any goods out of any warehouse shall be deemed valid unless the particulars of the goods and packages in such entry shall correspond with the particulars of the goods and packages purporting to be the same in the report of the ship, or in the certificate or other document where any is required by which the importation or entry of such goods is authorized, nor unless the goods shall have been properly described in such entry by the denominations and with the characters and circumstances according to which such goods are charged with duty or may be imported; and any goods taken or delivered out of any ship or out of any warehouse by virtue of any entry or warrant not corresponding or agreeing in all such respects or not properly describing the same, shall be deemed to be goods landed or taken without due entry thereof, and shall be forfeited.

Goods imported from the United Kingdom or British Possessions must appear in cocket &c. &c.

23. And be it enacted and ordained and declared, That no goods shall be imported into New Zealand as being imported from the United Kingdom or from any other British possession (if any advantage attach to such distinction) unless such goods appear upon the cockets or other proper documents for the same to have been duly cleared outwards at the port of exportation in the United Kingdom or in such other British possession, nor unless the ground upon which such advantage be claimed be stated in such cocket or document.

Goods to be unshipped &c. at expense of importer.

24. And be it enacted and ordained, That the unshipping carrying and landing of all goods, and the bringing of the same to the proper place after landing for examination or for weighing, and the putting of the same into the scales and the taking of the same out of and from the scales after weighing, and the opening and closing of the same, shall be performed by or at the risk and expense of the importer.

Bonds to be taken by the Collector.

25. And be it enacted and ordained, That all bonds relating to the Customs required to be given in respect of goods or ships shall be taken by the Collector or other principal officer of Customs for the use of Her Majesty, and after the expiration of three years from the date

date thereof or from the time if any limited therein for the performance of the condition thereof, every such bond upon which no prosecution or suit shall have been commenced shall be void and may be cancelled and destroyed.

26. And be it enacted and ordained, That before any goods shall be shipped for exportation to the United Kingdom as being the produce of the said Colony or of New South Wales or of Van Diemen's Land or any island of the Pacific Ocean respectively, and upon which any advantage shall be claimed at the port of importation, sufficient proof shall be made to the satisfaction of the Collector or other principal officer of Customs of the identity of such goods being the produce of the said Colony or of New South Wales or of Van Diemen's Land or of some island of the Pacific Ocean respectively, whereupon the Collector or other principal officer is hereby empowered to grant a certificate to that effect.

Certificate of production where advantage is derived at port of importation.

27. And be it enacted and ordained, That if the importer of any goods or his known agent shall make and subscribe a declaration before the Collector or other proper officer that he cannot for want of full information make perfect entry thereof, it shall be lawful for the Collector or other proper officer to receive an entry by bill of sight for the packages or parcels of such goods by the best description which can be given, and to grant a warrant thereupon in order that the same may be landed and secured to the satisfaction of the officers of Customs and at the expense of the importer and may be seen and examined by such importer in the presence of the proper officer; and within three days after the goods shall have been so landed the importer shall make a perfect entry thereof, and shall either pay down all duties due thereon or duly warehouse the same, and in default of such entry such goods shall be taken to the Queen's warehouse, and if the importer shall not within one month after such landing make perfect entry of such goods and pay the duties due thereon together with charges of removal and warehouse rent such goods shall be sold for the payment thereof, and the overplus if any shall be paid to the proprietor of the goods or other person duly authorized to receive the same.

Entry inwards by bill of sight.

28. And be it enacted and ordained, That in all cases where the duties imposed upon the importation of articles into the said Colony are charged not according to weight tale gauge or measure but according to the value thereof, such value shall be ascertained by the declaration of the importer of such articles or his known agent in manner and form following, that is to say:—

Goods subject to ad valorem duty.

I, A.B., do hereby declare that the articles mentioned in the entry and contained in the packages [Here specifying the several packages and describing the several marks and numbers as the case may be] are of the value of .

Witness my hand, this            day of            .

A.B.

The above declaration, signed the            day of            , in the presence of C.D., Collector, [or other principal officer].

Which declaration shall be written on the bill of entry of such articles and shall be subscribed with the hand of the importer thereof or his known agent in the presence of the Collector or other principal officer of the Customs at the port of importation: Provided that if upon view and examination of such articles by the proper officer of the Customs it shall appear to him that the said articles are not valued according to the true price and value thereof and according to the true intent and meaning of this Ordinance, then and in such case the importer or his known agent shall be required to declare on oath before the Collector or other principal officer of Customs what is the invoice price of such articles and that he verily believes such invoice price is the current value of the articles at the place from whence the said articles were imported, and such invoice price with the addition of ten pounds per centum thereon shall be deemed to be the value of the articles in lieu of the value so declared by the importer or known agent and upon which the duties due thereon shall be charged and paid: Provided also that if it shall appear to the Collector or other principal officer that such articles have been found invoiced below the real and true value thereof at the place from whence the same were imported or if the invoice price is not known the articles shall in such case be re-examined by two competent persons to be nominated and appointed by the Governor of the said Colony, and such persons shall declare on oath before the Collector or other proper officer what is the true and real value of such articles at the port of importation in the said Colony, and the value so declared on the oaths of such persons shall be deemed to be the true and real value of such articles and upon which the duties due thereon shall be charged and paid.

If importer refuse to pay duty, goods to be sold.

29. And be it enacted and ordained, That if the importer of such articles shall refuse to pay the duties imposed thereon, it shall and may be lawful for the Collector or other officer of the Customs and he is hereby required to take and secure the same with the casks or other packages thereof and cause the same to be publicly sold within the space of twenty days at the most after such refusal made and at such time and place as such officer shall by four or more days' public notice appoint for that purpose, which articles shall be sold to the best bidder and the money arising from the sale thereof shall be applied in the first place in the payment of the said duties together with the charges that shall have been occasioned by the said sale, and the overplus if any shall be paid to such importer or proprietor or any other person authorized to receive the same.

Drawback on goods exported having paid duty on importation.

30. And be it enacted and ordained, That there shall be allowed upon the exportation of goods wares or merchandise imported into any port in the said Colony a drawback of the duty paid thereon: Provided always that proof be made to the satisfaction of the Collector or other principal officer that the full duties on importation had been paid and that such goods had been duly landed at the port for which the same were cleared, and that no drawback shall be allowed unless the goods on which the same is claimed shall be shipped within three years from the day of importation thereof nor unless the value of the goods upon which the duty is to be returned shall amount to fifty pounds and that such drawback is duly claimed within one year from the day of such shipment: Provided always that no drawback shall be allowed upon any goods which by reason of damages or decay shall become of less value for home use than the amount of such drawback, and all goods so damaged which shall be cleared for any drawback shall be forfeited and the person who caused such goods to be so cleared shall forfeit the sum of two hundred pounds or treble the amount of the drawback in such case at the election of the Governor of the said Colony.

Returned goods entered by bill of store.

31. And be it enacted and ordained, That it shall be lawful to reimport into the said Colony any goods which shall have been legally exported from the same and to enter such goods by bill of store referring to the entry outward and exportation thereof provided the property in such goods continue in the same person by whom or on whose account the same have been exported; and if the goods so returned be foreign goods which had before been legally imported into the said Colony, the same duties shall be payable thereon as would at the time of such reimportation be payable on the like goods under the same circumstances stances of importation as those under which such goods had been originally imported, or such goods may be warehoused as the like goods may be warehoused upon a first importation thereof.

32. And be it further enacted and ordained, That whenever any goods shall be taken to and secured in any of the Queen's warehouses in the said Colony for security of the duties thereon or to prevent the same from coming into home use, it shall and may be lawful for the Collector or other principal officer to charge demand and receive warehouse rent for such goods for all such time as the same shall remain in such warehouse at the rates specified in the Schedule E annexed to this Ordinance.

Rents on goods secured for duty.

33. And be it enacted and ordained, That in case goods shall not be duly cleared from the Queen's warehouse within three calendar months (or sooner if they be of a perishable nature), it shall be lawful for the Collector or other principal officer of Her Majesty's Customs to cause such goods to be publicly sold by auction for home use or for exportation as the case may be, and the produce of such sale shall be applied towards the payment of the duties if sold for home use, and of the warehouse rent and all other lawful charges, and the over-plus if any shall be paid to the person duly authorized to receive the same: Provided always that it shall be lawful for the said Collector or other principal officer to cause any of such goods to be destroyed as cannot be sold for a sum sufficient to pay such duties and charges if sold for home use, or sufficient to pay such charges if sold for exportation: Provided also that if such goods shall have been landed by the officers of the Customs and the freight of the same shall not have been paid, the produce of such sale shall be first applied to the payment of such freight.

Power to sell goods not cleared from Queen's warehouse within limits of a port.

34. And whereas it is expedient to make regulations for the warehousing of spirits tobacco and other goods which may be legally imported, and it is therefore necessary to provide for the appointing of proper warehouses and for the lodging and securing such goods therein: Be it therefore enacted and ordained that it shall be lawful for the Collector or other principal officer by notice in writing under his hand to appoint such warehouses respectively as shall be approved of by him for the free warehousing and securing of goods therein for the purposes of this Ordinance and also by like notice to revoke any such appointment: Provided that every such notice shall be transmitted to the Governor and shall be published in such manner as he shall direct.

Collector or other principal officer to appoint warehouses for bonding goods.

35. And be it enacted and ordained, That it shall be lawful for the importer of any spirits tobacco or other goods to warehouse the same in the warehouses so appointed without payment of any duty on the first entry thereof, subject nevertheless to the rules regulations restrictions and conditions hereinafter contained.

Goods may be warehoused without payment of duty.

36. And be it enacted and ordained, That upon the entry and landing of any goods to be warehoused, the proper officer of the Customs shall take a particular account of the same, and shall mark the contents on each package and shall enter the same in a book to be kept for that purpose, and no goods which have been so warehoused shall be taken or delivered from the warehouse except upon due entry and under the care of the proper officer for exportation or upon due entry and payment of the duty for home use.

Account of goods to be taken on landing.

37. And be it enacted and ordained, That upon entry of any goods to be warehoused the importer of such goods instead of paying down the duties due thereon shall give bond with two sufficient sureties to be approved of by the Collector or other principal officer in treble the amount of duties payable on such goods, with condition for the safe depositing depositing of such goods in the warehouse mentioned in such entry and for the payment of all duties due upon such goods or for the exportation thereof according to the first account taken of such goods upon the landing of the same, and without any abatement on account of deficiency except as by this Ordinance is otherwise provided, and with further condition that no part thereof shall be taken out of such warehouse until cleared from thence upon due entry and payment of duty or upon due entry for exportation, and if after such bond shall have been given the goods or any part thereof shall be sold or disposed of so that the original bonder shall be no longer interested in or have control over the same, it shall be lawful for the Collector or other principal officer to admit fresh security to be given by the bond of the new proprietor or other person having control over such goods, with two sufficient sureties, and to cancel the bond given by the original bonder of such goods or to exonerate him to the extent of the fresh security so given.

Bond upon entry of goods to be warehoused.

Bonds given previous to Ordinance to continue in force.

38. And be it enacted and ordained, That all appointments of warehouses for the warehousing of goods made under the authority of any other Ordinance in force at the time of the commencement of this Ordinance shall continue in force as if the same had been made under the authority of this Ordinance, and all bonds given in respect of any goods warehoused or entered to be warehoused under any Ordinance in force at the time of the commencement of this Ordinance shall continue in force for the purposes of this Ordinance.

Samples may be taken.

39. And be it enacted and ordained, That it shall be lawful for the officers of the Customs to take such samples of any goods as shall be necessary for ascertaining the amount of any duties payable on the same, and all such samples shall be disposed of and accounted for in such manner as directed by the Collector or other principal officer of Her Majesty's Customs.

Bond on entry for exportation.

40. And be it enacted and ordained, That upon the entry outwards of any goods to be exported from the warehouse, the person entering the same shall give security by bond in treble the duties of importation on the quantity of such goods, with two sufficient sureties to be approved by the Collector or other proper officer, that the same shall be landed at the place for which they shall be entered outwards or be otherwise accounted for to the satisfaction of the Collector or other proper officer.

Spirits and tobacco may be re-gauged or re-weighed.

41. And whereas spirits and tobacco and certain other goods are liable in time to fluctuation of quantity by the effect of the atmosphere or other natural causes: Be it therefore enacted and ordained, That it shall be lawful for the Collector or other principal officer or for the proprietor or importer of any such goods as aforesaid to require the same to be re-gauged or re-weighed at the time when the same shall be respectively delivered from the said warehouse, and the duties respectively payable thereon shall be paid according to the quantities ascertained upon such re-gauging or re-weighing unless it shall be mutually agreed by and between the said parties that the said duties shall be paid on the quantities originally entered.

Goods may be re-sorted and re-packed.

42. And be it enacted and ordained, That it shall be lawful for the Collector or other principal officer, under such regulations as he shall see fit, to permit the proprietor or other person having control over any goods so warehoused to sort separate pack and re-pack any such goods and to make such alterations therein or arrangements and assortments thereof as may be necessary for the preservation of such goods, or in order to the sale shipment or legal disposal of the same, and also to permit any part of such goods so separated to be destroyed but without prejudice to the claim for duty upon the whole original original quantity of such goods: Provided always that it shall be lawful for any person to abandon any whole packages to the officers of the Customs for the duties without being liable to any duty upon the same.

43. And be it enacted and ordained, That goods warehoused at any warehousing port in the said Colony, being first duly entered, may be delivered under the authority of the proper officer of the Customs without payment of duty except for any deficiency thereof for the purpose of removal to another warehousing port in the same Colony under bond, to the satisfaction of such officer for the due arrival and warehousing of such goods at such other port.

Goods warehoused may be delivered for removal without payment of duty.

44. And be it enacted and ordained, That if any goods entered or warehoused or entered to be delivered from the warehouse shall be lost or destroyed by any unavoidable accident, either on shipboard or in the landing or shipping of the same or in the receiving into or delivering from the warehouse, it shall be lawful for the Governor of the said Colony for the time being to remit or return the duties payable or paid on the quantity of such goods so lost or destroyed.

Goods lost or destroyed, Governor may remit duties.

45. owners to enter such claim or appearance, and that to the best of his knowledge and belief such ship vessel boat or goods were at the time of the seizure thereof bonâ fide and truly the real property of the person or persons in whose name or names such claim or appearance is entered; and on failure thereof the ship vessel boat or goods shall be absolutely condemned, and judgment shall be entered thereon by default according to the usual method of proceedings of the Court in the same manner as if no claim or appearance had been entered thereto; and every person who shall be convicted of making or taking a false oath to any of the facts hereinbefore directed or required to be sworn, shall be deemed guilty of perjury and shall be liable to the pains and penalties to which persons are liable for wilful and corrupt perjury.

92. And be it enacted and ordained, That upon the entry of any claim to any ship boat or vessel, or to any goods seized for any cause of forfeiture or of any appearance to any information filed for such forfeiture, the person or persons who shall enter the claim or appearance as the owner or owners thereof (in case such claimant or claimants shall reside in the said Colony) shall be bound with two other sufficient securities in the penalty of one hundred pounds to answer and pay the costs occasioned by such claim or appearance; and if such owner or owners shall not reside in the said Colony, then and in such case the attorney or solicitor by whose direction such claim or appearance shall be entered shall in like manner be bound with two other sufficient sureties in the like penalty to answer and pay the costs occasioned by such claim or appearance.

Owners to give security for costs occasioned by the claim or appearance.

93. And be it enacted and ordained, That in case any information or suit shall be commenced or brought to trial on account of the seizure of any ship vessel boat or goods merchandise or commodities whatsoever, or any horses or other animals or any carriage seized as forfeited by this or any other Act or Ordinance relating to the Customs wherein a verdict shall be found for the claimant thereof, and it shall appear to the Judge or Court before whom the same shall have been tried that there was a probable cause of seizure, such Judge or Court shall certify in the record that there was such probable cause, and in such case the person who made such seizure shall not be liable to any action indictment or other suit or prosecution on account of such seizure; and in case any action indictment or other suit or prosecution shall be commenced and brought to trial against any person or persons whatsoever on account of any such seizure as aforesaid, wherein a verdict shall be given against the defendant or defendants, if the Court or Judge before whom such information or suit shall have been tried shall have certified in the said record that there was a probable cause for such seizure, then the plaintiff, besides the things seized or the value thereof, shall not be entitled to above twopence damages, nor to any costs of suit, nor shall the defendant in such prosecution be fined above one shilling.

If suit brought on account of seizure, and the Judge shall certify that there was probable cause, plaintiff to have twopence damages, and defendant fined not more than one shilling.

94. And be it enacted and ordained, That no writ shall be sued out against nor any copy of any process served upon any officer of the Navy or Customs or against any person acting under the direction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs for anything done in the execution of or by reason of his office until one calendar month next after notice in writing shall have been delivered to him or left at his usual place of abode by the attorney or agent for the party who intends to sue out such writ or process as aforesaid, in which notice shall be clearly and explicitly contained the cause of action the name and place of abode of the person who is to bring such action and the name and place of abode of the attorney or agent,

No process to be sued out against any officer making seizure until one calendar month next after notice given.

and that a fee of twenty shillings shall be paid for preparing or serving of every such notice and no more.

No evidence to be adduced but what is contained in the notice.

95. Provided always and be it enacted and ordained, That no plaintiff in any case where an action shall be grounded on any such act done by the defendant shall be permitted to produce any evidence of the cause of such action except such as shall be contained in the notice to be given as aforesaid, or shall receive any verdict against such officer or person unless he shall prove on the trial of such action that such notice was given; and in default of such proof the defendant in such action shall receive a verdict and costs as aforesaid.

Officer may tender amends.

96. And be it enacted and ordained, That it shall and may be lawful to and for every such officer or other person to whom such notice shall have been given as aforesaid, at any time within one calendar month after such notice shall have been given, to tender amends to the party complaining or to his her or their agent or attorney, and in case the same is not accepted, to plead such tender in bar to any action to be brought against him, grounded on such writ or process, together with the plea of not guilty, and other pleas, with leave of the Court; and if upon issue joined thereon the jury shall find the amends so tendered to have been sufficient, that then they shall give a verdict for the defendant; and in such case, or in case the plaintiff shall become non-suited, or discontinue his her or their action, or in case judgment shall be given for such defendant upon demurrer, then such defendant shall be entitled to the like costs as he would have been entitled to in case he had pleaded the general issue only; but if upon issue joined the jury shall find that no amends were tendered or that the same were not sufficient, or shall find against the defendant in such other plea or pleas, then they shall give a verdict for the plaintiff, and such damages as they shall think proper, together with his her or their costs of suit.

Neglecting to tender amends may pay money into Court, or shall have tendered insufficient amends.

97. And be it enacted and ordained, That in case such officer or other person as aforesaid shall neglect to tender any amends before the action brought, it shall and may be lawful for him, by leave of the Court where such action shall be brought, at any time before the trial of the said action, to pay into Court such sum of money as he shall see fit, whereupon such proceedings orders and judgments shall be had made and given in and by such Court as in other actions where the defendant is allowed to pay money into Court.

Action to be commenced within six months next after cause of action has arisen.

98. And be it enacted and ordained, That if any action or suit be brought or commenced as aforesaid, such action or suit shall be brought or commenced within six calendar months next after the cause of action shall have arisen and not afterwards, and the defendant or defendants shall and may plead the general issue and give the special matter in evidence at any trial had thereupon; and if the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall become non-suited, or discontinue his her or their action or suit, or if upon a verdict or demurrer judgment shall be given against the plaintiff or plaintiffs, the defendant or defendants shall or may receive treble costs and have such remedy for the same as any defendant or defendants can or may have in other cases where costs are given by law.

Judges may issue warrants for apprehending offenders prosecuted by indictment or information.

99. And be it enacted and ordained, That whenever any person shall be charged with any offence against this or any Act relating to the Customs, or for which he or she may be prosecuted by indictment or information in Her Majesty's Supreme Court in New Zealand, and the same shall be made appear to any Judge of the same Court, by affidavit or by certificate of an information or indictment being filed against such person in the said Court for such offence, it shall and may be lawful for such Judge to issue his warrant under his hand and or her last place of abode, with a notice thereon endorsed that unless such person shall within eight days from the time of such delivery of a copy of the information or indictment as aforesaid cause a plea to be entered in the said Court to such information or indictment, that the prosecutor of such information or indictment will enter a plea of not guilty on his or her behalf, and that upon affidavit being made and filed in the Court of the delivery of a copy of such information or indictment, with such notice endorsed thereon as aforesaid, to such person or to his or her Attorney or Agent, or at his or her last place of abode, as the case may be, it shall be lawful for the prosecutor of such information or indictment to cause the plea of not guilty to be entered in the said Court to such information or indictment for such person, and such proceedings shall be had thereupon as if the defendant in such information or indictment had pleaded according to the usual course of the said Court.

Proof of payment of duties or of the lawful importation of goods to be on the owner.

101. And be it enacted and ordained, That if any goods shall be seized for non-payment of duties or any other cause or forfeiture, and any dispute shall arise whether the Customs duties have been paid for the same, or the same have been lawfully imported, or concerning the place from whence such goods were brought, then and in such case the proof thereof shall be on the owner or claimer of such goods and not on the officer who shall seize and stop the same.

Averment of certain matters to be sufficient unless the contrary is proved.

102. And be it enacted and ordained, That in case of any information or proceedings had under this or any other Act relating to the Customs, the averment that the Collector or other principal officer of Her Majesty's Customs has directed or elected such information or proceedings to be instituted, or that any ship or vessel is foreign or belonging wholly or in part to Her Majesty's subjects, or that any person detained or found on board any ship vessel or boat liable to seizure is or is not a subject of Her Majesty, or that any person is an officer of the Customs, and where the offence is committed in any port in the said Colony, the naming of such port in any information or proceedings shall be sufficient, without proof as to such fact or facts, unless the defendant in such case shall prove to the contrary.

Persons employed for the prevention of smuggling to be deemed to be duly employed.

103. And be it enacted and ordained, That all persons employed for the prevention of smuggling under the direction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, or the Governor of the said Colony, or of any officer or officers in the service of the Customs, shall be deemed and taken to be duly employed for the prevention of smuggling, and the averment in any information or suit that such party was so duly employed shall be sufficient proof thereof, unless the defendant in such information or suit shall prove to the contrary.

Viva voce evidence may be given that a party is an officer and deemed a competent witness, although entitled to the whole or a share of the seizure, or penalty, or reward, on conviction.

104. And be it enacted and ordained, That if upon any trial a question shall arise whether any person is an officer of the Navy on full pay, or an officer of Customs, or is duly employed for the prevention of smuggling, evidence of his having acted as such shall be deemed sufficient, and such person shall not be required to produce his commission or deputation unless sufficient proof shall be given to the contrary, and every such officer and any person acting in his aid or assistance shall be deemed a competent witness upon the trial of any suit or information on account of any seizure or penalty as aforesaid, notwithstanding such officer or other person may be entitled to the whole or any part of such seizure or penalty, or to any reward upon the conviction of the party charged in such suit or information.

Within what time suits indictments or informations are to be exhibited.

105. And be it enacted and ordained, That all suits indictments or informations exhibited for any offence against this or any other Act or Ordinance relating to the Customs in any of Her Majesty's Courts of

of Record, or Courts of Vice-Admiralty in the said Colony, shall and may be had tried brought sued or exhibited within three years next after the date of the offence committed, and shall and may be exhibited before any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace within six calendar months next after the date of the offence committed.

106. And be it enacted and ordained, That it shall not be lawful for any person to act as agent for transacting any business at the Custom House which shall relate to the entry or clearance of any ship or of any goods or of any baggage unless authorized so to do by license of the Collector or other principal officer of Her Majesty's Customs, who is hereby empowered to require bond to be given by every person to whom such license shall be granted, with one sufficient surety in the sum of two hundred pounds for the faithful and honest conduct of such person and of his clerks acting for him; and if any person shall act as such agent not being so licensed, or if any person shall be in partnership in such agency with any person not so licensed, such person shall in either case for every such offence forfeit the sum of one hundred pounds: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent the clerk or servant of any person or persons in co-partnership from transacting any business at the Custom House on account of such person or persons without such license, provided such clerk or servant shall not transact any such business as clerk servant or agent to any other person.

Persons entering or clearing ships &c. as agents, to be licensed and give bond.

107. And be it enacted and ordained, That it shall be lawful for the Collector or other principal officer of the Customs, with the concurrence of the Governor of the said Colony, by any order under his hand to revoke any such license, and that after a copy of such order shall have been delivered to any such licensed person or to his clerk or left at his usual place of abode or business such license shall be void.

Agents' licenses may be revoked.

108. And be it enacted and ordained, That if any person shall counterfeit or falsify or wilfully use when counterfeited or falsified any entry warrant cocket transire or other document for the unlading lading entering reporting or clearing of any ship or vessel, or for the landing shipping or removing of any goods stores baggage or articles whatever, or shall by any false statement procure any writing or document to be made for any of such purposes, or shall falsely make any oath or affirmation required by this or any other Act for regulating the trade of the said Colony, or shall forge or counterfeit a certificate of the said oath or affirmation or shall publish such certificate knowing the same to be so forged or counterfeited, every person so offending shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of two hundred pounds, and such penalty shall and may be prosecuted sued for and recovered in like manner and by such ways and means as any penalty may be prosecuted sued for and recovered under the provisions and directions of this Ordinance.

Falsifying documents &c., penalty £200.
