1989, No. 146

An Act to amend the Civil Aviation Act 1964

[19 December 1989]

BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of New Zealand as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Civil Aviation Amendment Act 1989, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Civil Aviation Act 1964 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2. Sale of liquor at international airports—The principal Act is hereby amended by repealing section 25, and substituting the following section:

“25. (1) Liquor may be sold at international airports to passengers on aircraft departing from or arriving in New Zealand, being passengers who have attained the age of 20 years, but any liquor so sold shall not be delivered by or on behalf of the purchaser to any other person within New Zealand or consumed within New Zealand unless it has been entered by the passenger for home consumption in accordance with the Customs Act 1966.

“(2) The Governor-General may, from time to time by Order in Council, make regulations for either or both of the following purposes:

“(a) Prescribing the circumstances and conditions relating to the control of the sale of liquor at international airports to passengers on aircraft departing from or arriving in New Zealand, being passengers who have attained the age of 20 years:

“(b) Prescribing offences in respect of the contravention of or non-compliance with any provision of any regulations made under this section, and prescribing fines, not exceeding $1,000, that may, on summary conviction, be imposed in respect of any such offence.

“(3) Every person who does any act in contravention of this section commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000.

“(4) Nothing in the Sale of Liquor Act 1962 shall apply to the sale of liquor pursuant to the authority of this section or of any regulations made under this section.

“(5) For the purposes of this section the term ‘international airport’ means any airport at which aircraft customarily arrive in New Zealand from places beyond New Zealand, or depart from New Zealand for places beyond New Zealand.”
