3. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Companies Act, 1933, or in any other enactment, a company may with the prior consent in writing of the Minister of Finance be registered under the provisions of that Act having the name "The New Zealand Counties Co-operative Insurance Company, Limited".

(2) The consent of the Minister to the registration of the company may be given upon or subject to such conditions as the Minister thinks fit including, if the Minister so requires, a condition that the company shall not be entitled to exercise any specified powers conferred on it by its memorandum of association or by its articles of association except with the prior consent of the Governor-General in Council.

4. The company may not alter its memorandum of association or its articles of association except with the prior consent in writing of the Minister of Finance.

5. Any County Council may on behalf of the Corporation of its county become a member of the company by executing the memorandum and articles of association of the company or by applying for and taking shares in the capital of the company in accordance with the terms of the memorandum and articles of association or, with the consent of the directors of the company, by acquiring shares from a member of the company.

6. Any County Council may pay for shares in the capital of the company and may for that purpose borrow moneys by way of special loan under the Local Bodies' Loans Act, 1926, by special order, and without taking the steps described in sections nine to thirteen of that Act.
