AN ACT to further alter and amend "The Customs Tariff Act, 1866." Title.
[19th August, 1873.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act shall be "The Customs Tariff Act, 1873." Short Title.
2. On and after the thirtieth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in lieu of the Duties of Customs chargeable under "The Customs Tariff Act, 1866," on the articles mentioned in the First Schedule hereto, there shall be levied collected and paid to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, upon the articles mentioned in the said Schedule, on importation into New Zealand or on being cleared from any warehouse for home consumption, the several Duties of Customs specified and set forth in the said Schedule. The articles mentioned in the Second Schedule hereto shall be exempt from the payment of any Customs Duties on the importation thereof into New Zealand. Duties substituted in lieu of those hitherto payable.
3. The Duties of Customs imposed by this Act shall be raised levied collected and paid under the provisions of "The Customs Regulation Act, 1858," and "The Customs Regulation Act Amendment Act, 1868," and subject also to all such provisions and regulations as "Customs Regulation Act, 1858," to apply may for the time being be in force for the collection management and receipt of the duties of import in the Colony of New Zealand; and all fines forfeitures penalties and charges recoverable under this Act, excepting the proceeds of sale of goods under section eleven of "The Customs Tariff Act, 1866," may be recovered and applied in the manner directed by "The Customs Regulation Act, 1858," and "The Customs Regulation Act Amendment Act, 1868."

Customs Tariff.

Certain sections of "The Customs Tariff Act, 1866," incorporated.

4. The sections of "The Customs Tariff Act, 1866," numbered four, seven, ten, eleven, and twelve, shall be deemed to be incorporated in this Act.

Value of goods, how estimated.

5. In all cases where any duty is imposed on any goods imported ad valorem or according to the true and real value of such goods, such value shall be understood to be the fair market value thereof, including the value of the case cask or covering of any kind in which such goods are contained, in the principal markets of the country whence the same were exported, with ten per centum added.

Value of goods in certain cases to be verified by declaration of importer or agent.

6. In all cases in which goods shall after the passing of this Act be chargeable with a duty ad valorem or according to the true and real value of such goods, such value shall be verified at the time of entry by the production of the genuine invoice and by the declaration in the form hereinafter prescribed of the importer of such goods, or, with the consent of the Collector or other proper officer of Customs, of his authorized agent:

Port of

I, A.B., do hereby declare that the invoice now produced is the genuine and only invoice of the goods mentioned in the entry and contained in the packages [Here specify the several packages and describe the several marks and numbers, as the case may be]; and that the value of such goods mentioned in the said entry and invoice, and therein stated as [Here state value], was the fair market value of such goods at the time of shipment in the principal markets of the country whence the same were exported.

Witness my hand this day of one thousand eight hundred and .

A.B.

Declared before me the day of .
E.D.,

Collector (or other proper officer).

And such declaration shall be made by the importer or his authorized agent as aforesaid in the presence of the Collector of Customs or other proper officer, and the invoice value so declared shall, with the addition of ten pounds per centum thereon, be deemed to be the value of the goods upon which duty shall be paid. And any person who shall in any such declaration make any false statement, knowing the same to be false, shall be guilty of a misdemeanour, and shall be liable and subject to the like penalties as in case of perjury.

Penalty on false declaration.

Officer may assess value.

7. If upon view and examination of such goods or otherwise it appears to the proper officer that the said goods are not valued according to the true and real value thereof as hereinbefore mentioned, then and in such case the proper officer may detain the goods and shall assess the value thereof; and in case the importer or his agent shall object to pay duty according to the value of such goods so assessed by the proper officer, or in case the value of such goods is unknown or uncertain, then the value of such goods shall be ascertained according to such rules and regulations as the Governor in Council may from time to time make in that behalf, and the duties shall be paid according to the value so ascertained.

Customs Tariff.

8. In cases where it is alleged that the genuine invoice cannot be produced, the Collector of Customs, when he shall think fit, may examine any importer or his agent, or both of them, upon oath as to the value of any goods liable to duty ad valorem, and may if he think fit, after such examination, dispense with the production of the genuine invoice aforesaid; and in case such importer or agent shall upon being summoned neglect or refuse to attend for examination, or shall refuse to be sworn or to answer such questions as shall be put to him by the said Collector, then and in every such case the value of such goods shall be assessed by the Collector of Customs or other proper officer, and such assessed value shall be deemed to be the true and real value thereof; and such importer or agent, or both of them, so neglecting or refusing as aforesaid, shall also be liable to pay a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

Examination of importer or agent on oath.

9. If the importer of such goods or his agent shall neglect or refuse to pay the duties imposed thereon after such examination and assessment as aforesaid, and also the costs of such examination and assessment in the event of the valuation being greater than declared in the bill of entry, the Collector of Customs or proper officer shall detain such goods with the packages thereof, and shall deal with them as directed in the eleventh section of "The Customs Tariff Act, 1866."

How goods to be dealt with if undervalued.

10. If in any invoice or entry any goods entered for ad valorem duty have been fraudulently misdescribed with intent to avoid the payment of the duty or any part of the duty on such goods, or if the oath or declaration made with regard to any such invoice or entry is wilfully false in any particular, the goods so misdescribed, or in respect of which such oath or declaration is wilfully false as aforesaid, shall be forfeited.

Forfeiture of goods in cases of fraud, &c.

11. In order to assist the Customs officers in ascertaining the value of goods subject to ad valorem duty, the Governor in Council may grant a license to one or more persons well acquainted in the opinion of the Governor, as aforesaid, with the character and value of such goods, to act as "Experts" at any port or place, and who, when required by the said Collector or other proper officer, shall assist in assessing the true value of such goods after the entry thereof: And every such Expert shall, before he shall commence to act as such, make and subscribe before the said Collector or some Justice of the Peace an oath in the following form, that is to say:—

License may be granted to "Experts" for valuation of goods.

I swear that, whenever I may be called upon to assist the Collector or other officer of Customs in assessing the value of goods liable to ad valorem duty, I will assess such value truly, to the best and utmost of my knowledge and judgment. So help me God.

And the fees to be paid to every such valuator for each examination shall not be more than ten guineas nor less than one guinea, in proportion to the quantity and value of the goods for the valuation of which his services may have been required.

12. The Collector of Customs or proper officer shall have authority to take the sworn declaration mentioned in section eight of this Act: Provided that any person required to take an oath under this Act may in lieu thereof make affirmation in the manner provided by "The Law Amendment Act, 1856," which affirmation such officer is hereby authorized to take; and such affirmation shall be of the same force and effect as if the person taking it had taken an oath in the usual form.

Collector empowered to administer oath.

Affirmation in lieu of oath.
