

ANALYSIS

Title	6. Qualification of elected directors
1. Short Title	7. Managing director
2. Functions of Corporation	8. Extraordinary vacancies
3. Power of Corporation to participate in establishment or development of New Zealand industries	9. Borrowing powers
4. Limitations on powers	10. Guarantees
5. Constitution of Board	11. Disposition of profits
	12. Corporation not a company or a moneylender

---

1970, No. 38

An Act to amend the Development Finance Corporation Act 1964 [29 October 1970]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Development Finance Corporation Amendment Act 1970, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Development Finance Corporation Act 1964 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2. Functions of Corporation—(1) Section 6 of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting from subsection (1) the words “in cases where finance is not available on reasonable terms and conditions for any such purpose”.

(2) The said section 6 is hereby further amended by adding to subsection (2) the following paragraphs:

“(d) To assist persons to set up or expand development projects overseas that will benefit the New Zealand economy:

“(e) To participate and assist in the promotion, reorganisation, or rationalisation of any industry or group of industries with a view to increasing efficiency and productivity.”

(3) Subsection (1) of the said section 6 is hereby consequentially amended by omitting the words “in New Zealand” where those words first occur.

3. Power of Corporation to participate in establishment or development of New Zealand industries—(1) The principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after section 6, the following section:

“6A. Without limiting the generality of section 6 of this Act, it shall also be a function of the Corporation to participate, by such means as it thinks fit, in the establishment of new industries in New Zealand, or in the development or extension of any industry for the time being carried on in New Zealand.”

(2) Section 7 of the principal Act is hereby amended by adding the following subsection:

“(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1) of this section, the Corporation may from time to time—

“(a) Purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire such land or buildings or parts of buildings, whether or not subject to any mortgage, charge, lease, easement, or restrictive covenant or other encumbrance, as in its opinion are necessary or expedient for the performance of any of its functions or powers:

“(b) Erect, alter, rebuild, or add to any building on any land so acquired:

“(c) Grant leases or tenancies of any land or buildings so acquired, or of any part or parts thereof, and create easements and restrictive covenants thereover, and accept surrenders or partial surrenders of any such leases, tenancies, easements, and restrictive covenants.”

4. Limitations on powers—Section 8 of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing subsection (1), and substituting the following subsection:

“(1) The Corporation shall not provide the whole of the finance for any project.”

5. Constitution of Board—(1) Section 9 of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing paragraph (d) of subsection (1), and substituting the following paragraph:

“(d) Not less than 5 nor more than 10 directors elected in accordance with this Act.”

(2) The first additional directors under the said paragraph (d) (as substituted by subsection (1) of this section) shall be appointed by the Board. Any director so appointed shall in the first instance hold office only until the next following annual general meeting of the Corporation, and shall then be eligible for election in accordance with subsection (1) of section 10 of the principal Act.

(3) The following provisions shall apply in respect of the first additional directors elected at the meeting referred to in subsection (2) of this section:

- (a) One of those directors shall retire at the expiration of 1 year from the date of their election, one shall retire at the expiration of 2 years from that date, and the remaining directors shall retire at the expiration of 3 years from that date:
- (b) The director so to retire at the end of 1 year shall be determined by agreement of all of the said directors, and the director so to retire at the end of 2 years shall be determined by agreement of the remaining directors; and, failing agreement on either occasion, the director then to retire shall be determined by lot:
- (c) Every director so retiring shall be eligible for re-election in accordance with subsection (1) of section 10 of the principal Act.

6. Qualifications of elected directors—(1) The principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after section 9, the following section:

“9A. No person shall be qualified to be elected as a director, or to continue in office as an elected director, unless he holds at least 500 shares in the capital of the Corporation.”

(2) This section shall come into force on the 1st day of January 1971.

7. Managing director—The principal Act is hereby further amended by inserting, after section 11, the following section:

“11A. (1) The Board may from time to time appoint one of the elected directors to be the managing director of the Corporation for such period and on such terms as the Board thinks fit.

“(2) Subject to the terms of any agreement entered into in any particular case, the Board may revoke any such appointment.

“(3) A director so appointed shall not, while holding office as managing director, be subject to retirement by rotation or be taken into account in determining the rotation of retirement of directors.

“(4) The appointment of a managing director shall be automatically terminated if he ceases from any cause to be a director.

“(5) The Corporation may pay to a managing director such remuneration by way of fees or otherwise as the Board from time to time determines, in addition to or instead of any remuneration paid to him as a director.

“(6) The Board may confer on a managing director any of the powers exercisable by it, on such terms and subject to such restrictions as it thinks fit, and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, or vary any power so conferred or any such terms or restrictions.”

8. Extraordinary vacancies—Section 12 of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing subsections (3) and (4), and substituting the following subsections:

“(3) An extraordinary vacancy shall be filled by the appointment by the Board of a person qualified to be an elected director.

“(4) Any person appointed to fill an extraordinary vacancy shall hold office in the first instance only until the next following annual general meeting, and shall then be eligible for election in accordance with subsection (1) of section 10 of this Act. If at that meeting he is elected, or any person is elected in his place, he or that person shall hold office for the residue of the term for which the director who vacated office under subsection (2) of this section was elected.”

9. Borrowing powers—Section 17 of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting from subsection (2) the words “an amount equal to five times the authorised capital for the time being of the Corporation”, and substituting the words “such amount in relation to the authorised capital for the time being of the Corporation as may from time to time be fixed by the Board with the approval of the Minister of Finance”.

10. Guarantees—Section 19 of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing the proviso.

11. Disposition of profits—Section 21 of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing the second proviso to subsection (4), and substituting the following proviso:

“Provided also that—

“(a) While the Corporation continues to be exempt from taxation under subsection (1) of section 22 of this Act, no dividend in excess of 6 percent of the paid up share capital for the time being shall be paid in respect of any such financial year:

“(b) After the Corporation ceases to be exempt from taxation as aforesaid, if at the end of any such financial year the Corporation is indebted to the Minister of Finance in respect of interest-free loans under subsection (4) of section 18 of this Act, then, unless the Minister of Industries and Commerce otherwise agrees, the following provisions shall apply in respect of that year:

“(i) No dividend in excess of 6 percent of the paid up share capital for the time being shall be paid if the proportion of the total of all such loans to the total of the Corporation’s borrowings and share capital and reserves exceeds 15 percent:

“(ii) A dividend not exceeding 7 percent of such paid up share capital may be paid if the said proportion exceeds 5 percent and does not exceed 15 percent:

“(iii) A dividend not exceeding 8 percent of such paid up share capital may be paid if the said proportion does not exceed 5 percent.”

12. Corporation not a company or a moneylender—The principal Act is hereby amended, as from its commencement, by adding the following section:

“33. It is hereby declared that the Corporation is not—

- “(a) A company within the meaning of any of the provisions of the Companies Act 1955:
- “(b) A moneylender within the meaning of any of the provisions of the Moneylenders Act 1908.”

---

This Act is administered in the Department of Industries and Commerce.

---