

ANALYSIS

Title

- | |
|----------------|
| 1. Short Title |
| 2. Regulations |

 1987, No. 14

An Act to amend the Education Act 1964

[16 March 1987]

BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of New Zealand as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Education Amendment Act 1987, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Education Act 1964 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2. Regulations—Section 203 of the principal Act is hereby amended by adding the following subsections:

“(3) Regulations made under this Act may provide for—

“(a) The permanent appointment to any full-time teaching position at a State primary school or secondary or composite school of 2 persons jointly; and

“(b) The tenure of any 2 persons jointly appointed to such a position.

“(4) Regulations of the kind referred to in subsection (3) of this section may provide that a person who has been permanently appointed to a full-time teaching position at a State primary school or secondary or composite school jointly with another person—

“(a) Vacates that position when that other person (for whatever reason) vacates that position; and

“(b) Is in those circumstances entitled to no notice of dismissal, or notice of less than 3 months; and

- “(c) Has no right of appeal against vacating that position by virtue of that other person’s vacating that position, or a more limited right of appeal than specified in this Act; and
 - “(d) Has, if they have lost, or are about to lose that position by virtue of a change in the staffing entitlement of the school concerned, no right of priority in relation to appointment to another position, or a more limited right of priority than specified in this Act; and
 - “(e) Has no right of transfer in particular circumstances, or a more limited right of transfer than specified in this Act;—
- and in that case, notwithstanding any provision of this Act, those regulations shall have effect accordingly.”

This Act is administered in the Department of Education.
