BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Education Lands Amendment Act 1967, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Education Lands Act 1949 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2. Vesting of school sites in Crown—(1) Section 5 of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing subsections (6) and (7), and substituting the following subsections:

“(6) Notwithstanding anything in any other Act, the Governor-General may from time to time, by Proclamation, declare that any school site or part of a school site shall be vested in the Crown in any case—

“(a) Where it is required for, or is in use for the purposes of, a technical institute; or

“(b) Where it was formerly in use for a secondary school and, because the development in the school of technical classes or courses of a special or advanced character has required the establishment of a technical institute, it is now required for, or is in use for the purposes of, a secondary school or a technical institute or both; or

“(c) Where, in any case to which paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of this subsection does not apply, it is no longer required for a school.

“(6A) On and after the date specified in the Proclamation (which may be a date before or after or the same as the date of issue of the Proclamation) or, where no date is specified, on and after the date on which the Proclamation is gazetted, the school site or part of the school site, as the case may be, shall vest in the Crown freed and discharged from every educational trust affecting it, but subject to all leases, encumbrances, liens, or easements affecting it at the date so specified or at the date of gazetting, as the case may require.

“(7) Any land transferred to or vested in the Crown under this section shall thereupon be deemed to be Crown land subject to the Land Act 1948.”

(2) Any date specified in a Proclamation in accordance with subsection (6A) of section 5 of the principal Act (as inserted by subsection (1) of this section) may be a date before the date of the passing of this Act.
