1901, No. 15.

Title. AN ACT to amend the Law relating to the Exportation of Arms, and other Military and Naval Stores. [16th October, 1901.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short Title.

1. The Short Title of this Act is “The Exportation of Arms Act, 1901”; and it shall form part of and be read together with “The Customs Laws Consolidation Act, 1882” (hereinafter called “the principal Act”).

Power to prohibit exportation of material of war to any country.

2. (1.) The Governor may, by Proclamation, from time to time prohibit the exportation to any country or place therein named of all or any of the following articles: namely, Arms, ammunition, military and naval stores, and any article which in the opinion of the Governor is capable of being converted into or made useful in increasing the quantity of arms, ammunition, or military or naval stores.

(2.) Such Proclamation may be made whenever, in the opinion of the Governor, it is expedient in order to prevent the articles specified therein being used against His Majesty’s subjects or forces, or against any forces engaged or which may be engaged in military or naval operations in co-operation with His Majesty’s forces.

(3.) Without in any way limiting the nature or description of the articles which may be specified in any such Proclamation, the articles set forth in the Schedule hereto may be so specified.

Section 176 of the principal Act to apply.

3. Section one hundred and seventy-six of the principal Act shall apply to any Proclamation made under this Act so far as that section is applicable.
