Title.

AN ACT to amend the Education Reserves Act, 1928.

[11th November, 1931.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short Title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Education Reserves Amendment Act, 1931, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Education Reserves Act, 1928 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

Provision for extension of leases of education reserves or University endowments.

2. Any lease of a high-school reserve or other education reserve under the principal Act, or of any endowment of the New Zealand University or of a constituent college thereof, which is due to expire at any time not later than the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred and thirty-four, may, with the approval of the Minister of Education, be extended by the leasing authority thereof for a period not exceeding five years.

Renewed leases of education reserves to be subject to encumbrances affecting expired leases.

3. Where on the expiration of any lease of an education reserve granted under the principal Act or under any other authority the holder is granted a renewal thereof, or is granted a new lease of the same land pursuant to any right, power, or authority, such new lease shall be deemed to be subject to all existing encumbrances, liens, and interests (if any) registered against the expired lease, and the District Land Registrar shall record on the new lease all such encumbrances, liens, and interests accordingly in the order of their registered priority.

Extension to education reserves of certain provisions of Land Act, authorizing the postponement or remission of rent.

4. The provisions of sections one hundred and twenty-four and one hundred and twenty-five of the Land Act, 1924 (relating to the postponement or remission, in certain circumstances, of rent payable by Crown tenants), are hereby extended to apply with respect to leases of education reserves administered by a Land Board in accordance with the provisions in that behalf of the principal Act.
