1935, No. 26.

Title.	AN ACT to make Provision for the Assumption by the Government of Direct Liability for certain Debentures issued by the Greymouth Harbour Board and Guaranteed by the Government, and for Matters incidental thereto. [26th October, 1935.
Preamble.	WHEREAS by the Greymouth Harbour Board Loans Consolidation Act, 1910, the Greymouth Harbour Board (hereinafter referred to as the Board) was authorized to redeem and convert its existing loans with the exception of a sum of one hundred thousand pounds mentioned in the said Act, and to raise further loans subject to the limitations imposed by that Act: And whereas pursuant to that authority the Board borrowed the sum of two hundred and sixty thousand pounds by the issue of two hundred and sixty debentures of one thousand pounds each: And whereas payment of the principal moneys and interest secured by the said debentures was guaranteed by the Government under section fifteen of the said Act: And whereas the said sum of one hundred thousand pounds mentioned in the said Act as aforesaid has been repaid by the Board: And whereas it has been agreed by the Government and the Board that it is desirable that the Government should assume direct liability for the said debentures and that the liability of the Board in respect thereof should cease, upon the following conditions, namely— First, that the Government should cease to pay the subsidy now payable to the Board under section five of the Greymouth Harbour Board Amendment Act, 1920; secondly, that the accumulated sinking fund provided for repaying the said debentures should be transferred to the Crown; thirdly, that the proportion of the special rate under section twelve of the Greymouth Harbour Board Act, 1884, now payable to the Board should in future be payable to the Crown; fourthly, that the authority to raise further loans conferred on the Board by the said Greymouth Harbour Board Loans Consolidation Act, 1910, should cease; and fifthly, that as from the day appointed for the next general elections of members of County Councils and Borough Councils the Board should be reconstituted so as to consist partly of non-elective members and partly of elective members: And whereas the details of the reconstitution of the Board have not yet been agreed upon:

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Greymouth Harbour Board Amendment Act, 1935, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Greymouth Harbour Board Act, 1884 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

Short Title.

Act deemed to be a special Act.

Outstanding loans deemed to be Government loans.

Ibid., Vol. VI, p. 1043

Commencement of this section.

2. This Act shall be deemed to be a special Act within the meaning of the Harbours Act, 1923.

3. (1) All moneys borrowed by the Greymouth Harbour Board under the authority of the Greymouth Harbour Board Loans Consolidation Act, 1910, shall be deemed to have been borrowed by the Government of New Zealand on the security of and charged on the public revenues of New Zealand, and the provisions of the New Zealand Loans Act, 1932, and of the Repayment of the Public Debt Act, 1925, shall apply thereto accordingly.

(2) This section shall be deemed to have come into force on the first day of April, nineteen hundred and thirty-five.

(3) The portion that accrued before the commencement of this section of the half-yearly instalment of interest payable in respect of the said moneys on the first day of July, nineteen hundred and thirty-five, shall, without further appropriation than this section, be payable out of the Consolidated Fund.

Application of sinking fund.

4. (1) The accumulated sinking fund now held by the Public Trustee for repaying the moneys referred to in the last preceding section shall hereafter be held by him on behalf of the Crown, and shall be applied in the repayment of those moneys in such manner and at such time or times as may from time to time be directed by the Minister of Finance.

(2) No further instalments (whether due before or after the passing of this Act) shall be payable to the said sinking fund by the Greymouth Harbour Board or by the Crown.

Special rate on coal brought for shipment at Port of Greymouth.

5. (1) There shall be paid by the shipper a special rate of threepence in respect of every ton of coal brought for shipment at the Port of Greymouth.

(2) The said rate shall be collected by such person as may from time to time be appointed in that behalf by the Governor-General, and shall be paid into the Public Account to the credit of the Consolidated Fund.

Consequential repeal.

(3) This section is in substitution for section twelve of the principal Act, and that section is hereby accordingly repealed.

(4) All moneys payable under the said section twelve by way of special rate on coal brought for shipment between the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred and thirty-four, and the passing of this Act shall be deemed to have been payable under this section, and shall be paid and accounted for accordingly.

6. (1) The enactments mentioned in the Schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent indicated in that Schedule.

Miscellaneous repeals.

(2) Section six of the Greymouth Harbour Board Amendment Act, 1920, is hereby amended by omitting from subsection one the words "with the approval of and subject to such conditions as may be imposed by the Governor-General in Council, but".

(3) This section shall be deemed to have come into force on the first day of April, nineteen hundred and thirty-five.

Commencement of this section.
