Title.	AN ACT to amend the Government Life Insurance Act 1908. [5 December 1951]
	BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—
Short Title.	1. This Act may be cited as the Government Life Insurance Amendment Act 1951, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Government Life Insurance Act 1908 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).
See Reprint of Statutes, Vol. IV, p. 56
Creation of general and special reserves.	2. Section seven of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting in subsection one, after paragraph (h), the following paragraph:— “(hh) Authorize the creation of general and special reserves and prescribe the purposes for which those reserves may be used:”

3. Section twenty-nine of the principal Act is hereby amended by adding the following subsection as subsection two thereof:—

“(2) For the purposes of this section the term ‘ securities ’ includes stocks, shares (whether preference or otherwise), and debentures in any corporation incorporated in New Zealand by or under any Act.”

4. (1) Section thirtyB of the principal Act (as enacted by section nine of the Finance Act 1949) is hereby amended as follows:—

(a) By omitting from subsection one the words “ officers of the Department ”, and substituting the words “ employees of the Department whose duties necessitate the use of a motor car ”:

(b) By omitting from subsection one the words “ on such terms as the Commissioner thinks fit ”, and substituting the words “ on such terms and conditions as the Minister of Finance from time to time directs ”.

(2) Section thirtyB of the principal Act is hereby further amended by adding the following subsection:—

“(3) Motor cars may be purchased under the authority of this section only from persons engaged in selling motor cars by retail.”

5. (1) The principal Act is hereby amended by repealing section thirty-two, and substituting the following section:—

“ 32. (1) For the purpose of controlling and managing investments of the Government Insurance Account (other than investments in securities of the Government of New Zealand or loans to holders of policies) there is hereby constituted a Board to be known as the Government Insurance Investment Board, which shall consist of—

“(a) The Minister in Charge of the Department:

“(b) The Government Insurance Commissioner:

“(c) The Secretary to the Treasury:

“(d) The Public Trustee:

“(e) The Valuer-General:

“(f) One other person to be appointed by the Governor-General in Council.

Investment of moneys in Government Insurance Account in stocks, shares, and debentures.

Amending provisions as to purchase of motor cars for resale to officers of the Department.
1949, No. 39

Government Insurance Investment Board.

“(2) The member appointed under paragraph (f) of subsection one of this section shall, unless he is sooner removed from office by the Governor-General in Council or sooner resigns or vacates his office under subsection three of this section, hold office for a period of two years, and may be reappointed.

“(3) If the member appointed under paragraph (f) of subsection one of this section is absent without leave of the Board from three consecutive meetings of the Board, except by reason of sickness, he shall be deemed to have vacated his office on the Board.

“(4) The member appointed under paragraph (f) of subsection one of this section, not being a person employed in the Government Service, shall be paid such salary or other remuneration as the Minister of Finance from time to time directs, and shall be paid out of moneys appropriated by Parliament for the purpose.

“(5) The powers of the Board shall not be affected by any vacancy in the membership of the Board.

“(6) At any meeting of the Board three members shall form a quorum.

“(7) The Minister in Charge of the Department shall preside at all meetings of the Board at which he is present.

“(8) In the absence from any meeting of the Board of the Minister in Charge of the Department, he may request any other Minister of the Crown to attend the meeting in his stead, and any such other Minister so attending shall act as the Chairman in respect of that meeting, and shall have and may exercise all the powers and functions of the Chairman for the purposes of that meeting.

“(9) If the Minister in Charge of the Department is absent from any meeting of the Board and no other Minister attends the meeting in his stead, the members present may choose one of their number to be the Chairman for the purposes of that meeting.

“(10) In the absence from any meeting of the Board of any other ex officio member of the Board, any officer of his Department appointed by him may attend the meeting in his stead. While any person is attending a meeting of the Board pursuant to this subsection, he shall be deemed for all purposes to be a member of the Board.

“(11) The fact that any person attends a meeting of the Board under subsection eight or subsection ten of this section shall be sufficient evidence of his authority to do so.

“(12) Subject to the proviso to section thirty-three of this Act, every question before the Board shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting at the meeting of the Board.

“(13) Subject to the proviso to section thirty-three of this Act, the Chairman shall have a deliberative vote and, in the case of an equality of votes, a casting vote also.

“(14) Subject to the provisions of this Act and of any regulations thereunder, the Board may regulate its procedure in such manner as it thinks fit.”

(2) Section thirty-three of the Finance Act 1947 is hereby repealed.

Repeal.
1947, No. 6

6. The principal Act is hereby further amended by inserting, after section thirty-two, the following section:—

Passing of resolutions of Board by entries in minute book.

“32A. (1) Anything that may be done by resolution passed at a meeting of the Board may be done by the Board without a meeting by means of an entry in its minute book signed by at least three of its members entitled to vote at a meeting of the Board.

“(2) Any such entry may be signed on behalf of a member by his deputy if at the time of the signing thereof the deputy would have been entitled to attend and act at a meeting of the Board in the absence of the member if a meeting had then been held, and the fact that a deputy signs an entry shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be sufficient evidence that he was so entitled.

“(3) For the purposes of this section a memorandum pasted or otherwise permanently affixed in the minute book and purporting to have been signed for the purpose of becoming an entry therein shall be deemed to be an entry in the minute book, and any such entry may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more members or their deputies.

“(4) The Commissioner shall report to and lay before the Board at each meeting all entries made in the minute book in accordance with this section since the previous meeting of the Board.”

Board may
powers to Commissioner.

7. The principal Act is hereby further amended by inserting, after section thirty-two A (as enacted by the last preceding section) the following section:—

“32B. (1) The Board may from time to time by resolution delegate any of its powers to the Commissioner, either as to matters within its jurisdiction generally, or in any particular case or matter, or any particular class of cases or matters:

“Provided that the Board shall not delegate to the Commissioner power to invest moneys in the Government Insurance Account in the stocks, shares, or debentures of any corporation:

“Provided also that where the Board so directs the Commissioner shall report to the Board at its next meeting any acts of authority exercised by him pursuant to any such delegation.

“(2) Subject to any general or special directions given by the Board, the Commissioner may exercise any powers so delegated to him in the same manner and with the same effect as if they had been directly conferred on him by this Act and not by delegation.

“(3) Where the Commissioner purports to act under any delegation under this section he shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be presumed to be acting within the terms of the delegation.

“(4) Any such delegation may be at any time revoked by the Board, in whole or in part, but that revocation shall not affect in any way anything done under the delegated authority.

“(5) No such delegation shall prevent the exercise by the Board itself of any of its powers under this Act.”

8. The principal Act is hereby further amended by repealing section thirty-three, and substituting the following section:—

“33. Except where the Board has delegated its powers in that behalf to the Commissioner, investments of the Government Insurance Account (other than investments in securities of the Government of New Zealand or loans to holders of policies) shall be made only pursuant to a resolution of the Board:

“Provided that no such investment shall be made unless the Minister or his deputy or, if the Minister or his deputy has not voted on the resolution, the Commissioner or his deputy votes in favour of the resolution to make the investment.”
