AN ACT to authorize the raising of a Loan of Seven Hundred and Fifty Thousand Pounds for General Purposes. Title.
[2nd October, 1873.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act shall be “The General Purposes Loan Act, 1873.” Short Title.

2. It shall be lawful for the Governor to appoint any two or more persons he may think fit to be Agents for the purpose of raising and managing the Loan authorized to be raised under this Act, and in their appointments to define the relative powers of such Agents. Appointment of Agents to manage Loan.

3. Such Agents shall have full power and authority to borrow and raise in Great Britain or elsewhere, by bonds debentures or otherwise, such sum or sums not exceeding seven hundred and fifty thousand pounds sterling in the whole, as the Governor in Council may from time to time or at any time direct and determine, for all or any of the purposes expressed in the Schedule hereto, or the payment or repurchase of short-dated debentures issued under this Act. Power to borrow £750,000 for purposes in Schedule.

General Purposes Loan.

Agents to prescribe mode, conditions, and terms of repayment.

4. Such Agents shall have full power and authority to prescribe the mode and conditions of repayment of such Loan, and the time of such repayment, and the rate of interest thereon, and the time and place or places when and where such principal and interest shall be made payable: Provided that as to all debentures bonds or other securities issued in respect of so much of the said Loan as is authorized to be raised for public buildings, the time for the repayment of the moneys secured thereby shall not be made later than ten years from the date of such debentures bonds or other securities.

Time for repayment of moneys borrowed for public buildings.

Annual charge not to exceed 6 per cent., including sinking fund (if any).

5. The annual charge to be imposed on the consolidated revenue under the provisions of this Act shall not exceed for interest and sinking fund (if any) the sum of six pounds for every one hundred pounds expressed to be borrowed.

Pending raising Loan, short-dated debentures may be issued to any extent not exceeding sums mentioned in 3rd section.

6. Pending the raising of moneys hereinbefore authorized to be raised under this Act, it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council to appoint any two or more persons he may think fit to be Agents, and in their appointments to define the relative powers of such Agents, who shall have full power and authority to borrow and raise any sum or sums of money not exceeding the sums mentioned in the third section of this Act, as the Governor in Council may from time to time direct and determine, and to take up the same sum or sums of money in debentures from time to time by the sale hypothecation or mortgage of such debentures, hereinafter referred to as "short-dated debentures," as such Agents may deem expedient.

Rate of interest, &c., of short-dated debentures.

7. Every such short-dated debenture shall bear interest after such rate not exceeding six pounds for every one hundred pounds by the year, and be for such sum and in such form, and with or without coupons attached, and be signed on behalf of the Colony, and be transferable and negotiable in such manner as such Agents shall prescribe.

Times and places of payment of short-dated debentures.

8. The interest and principal of every such short-dated debenture shall be payable at such times and places as such Agents shall prescribe: Provided that the principal moneys secured by any such short-dated debenture shall not be made payable at a later period than seven years after the date of issue thereof.

Short-dated debentures may be accepted in payment for debentures issued for raising the Loan.

9. The Agents authorized under the third section of this Act to raise any moneys therein mentioned may accept any short-dated debentures issued under the sixth section of this Act in payment for any bonds debentures or other securities issued by them for the purpose of raising moneys under the said third section of this Act.

Re-issue of short-dated debentures.

10. In order to provide for the payment of the principal moneys of any short-dated debenture, and whenever any short-dated debenture shall be received in payment or exchange for any bond debenture or other security issued under the third section of this Act, the Governor may order that a like amount of short-dated debentures may be prepared and issued in the place of the short-dated debentures to be or which may have been paid off or exchanged, and thereupon the Agents for the time being appointed under the sixth section of this Act shall have full power and authority to make out and issue the said amount of short-dated debentures so ordered, and the provisions contained in the sixth, seventh, and eighth sections of this Act shall be applicable thereto.

Debentures not to be sold at price to give interest at higher rate than 6 per cent.

11. No bond debenture or other security issued under this Act shall be sold or otherwise disposed of at a price which will yield to the purchaser thereof a higher rate of interest by the year than six pounds for every hundred pounds of the purchase money given for such bond debenture or other security.

Amount outstanding on short-dated
