- (4) The Court may require a translation of documents supplied in support of the application for recognition into an official language of New Zealand.

Article 16. Presumptions concerning recognition

- (1) If the decision or certificate referred to in paragraph (2) of article 15 indicates that the foreign proceeding is a proceeding within the meaning of subparagraph (a) of article 2 and that the foreign representative is a person or body within the meaning of subparagraph (d) of article 2, the High Court is entitled to so presume.
- (2) The Court is entitled to presume that documents submitted in support of the application for recognition are authentic, whether or not they have been legalised.
- (3) In the absence of proof to the contrary, the debtor's registered office, or habitual residence in the case of an individual, is presumed to be the centre of the debtor's main interests.

Article 17. Decision to recognise a foreign proceeding

- (1) Subject to article 6, a foreign proceeding shall be recognised if:
 - (a) the foreign proceeding is a proceeding within the meaning of subparagraph (a) of article 2;
 - (b) the foreign representative applying for recognition is a person or body within the meaning of subparagraph (d) of article 2;
 - (c) the application meets the requirements of paragraph (2) of article 15; and
 - (d) the application has been submitted to the High Court.
- (2) The foreign proceeding shall be recognised:
 - (a) as a foreign main proceeding if it is taking place in the State where the debtor has the centre of its main interests; or
 - (b) as a foreign non-main proceeding if the debtor has an establishment within the meaning of subparagraph (f) of article 2 in the foreign State.
- (3) An application for recognition of a foreign proceeding shall be decided upon at the earliest possible time.
- (4) As soon as practicable, after the Court recognises the foreign proceeding under paragraph (1) of this article, the foreign representative shall notify the debtor, in the prescribed form, that the application has been recognised.
- (5) The provisions of articles 15, 16, 17, and 18 do not prevent modification or termination of recognition if it is shown that the grounds for granting it were fully or partially lacking or have ceased to exist.

Article 18. Subsequent information

From the time of filing the application for recognition of the foreign proceeding, the foreign representative shall inform the High Court promptly of:

- (a) any substantial change in the status of the recognised foreign proceeding or the status of the foreign representative's appointment; and
- (b) any other foreign proceeding regarding the same debtor that becomes known to the foreign representative.

Article 19. Relief that may be granted upon application for recognition of a foreign proceeding

- (1) From the time of filing an application for recognition until the application is decided upon, the High Court may, at the request of the foreign representative, where relief is urgently needed to protect the assets of the debtor or the interests of the creditors, grant relief of a provisional nature, including:
 - (a) staying execution against the debtor's assets;
 - (b) entrusting the administration or realisation of all or part of the debtor's assets located in New Zealand to the foreign representative or another person designated by the Court, in order to protect and preserve the value of assets that, by their nature or because of other circumstances, are perishable, susceptible to devaluation or otherwise in jeopardy; and
 - (c) any relief mentioned in paragraph (1)(c) and (d) of article 21.
- (2) As soon as practicable, after the Court grants relief under paragraph (1) of this article, the foreign representative shall notify the debtor, in the prescribed form, of the relief that has been granted.
- (3) Unless extended under paragraph (1)(f) of article 21, the relief granted under this article terminates when the application for recognition is decided upon.
- (4) The Court may refuse to grant relief under this article if such relief would interfere with the administration of a foreign main proceeding.

Article 20. Effects of recognition of a foreign main proceeding

- (1) Upon recognition by the High Court of a foreign proceeding that is a foreign main proceeding,
 - (a) commencement or continuation of individual actions or individual proceedings concerning the debtor's assets, rights, obligations, or liabilities is stayed;
 - (b) execution against the debtor's assets is stayed; and
 - (c) the right to transfer, encumber, or otherwise dispose of any assets of the debtor is suspended.

- (2) Paragraph (1) of this article does not prevent the Court, on the application of any creditor or interested person, from making an order, subject to such conditions as the Court thinks fit, that the stay or suspension does not apply in respect of any particular action or proceeding, execution, or disposal of assets.
- (3) Paragraph (1)(a) of this article does not affect the right to commence individual actions or proceedings to the extent necessary to preserve a claim against the debtor.
- (4) Paragraph (1) of this article does not affect the right to request the commencement of a New Zealand insolvency proceeding or the right to file claims in such a proceeding.

Article 21. Relief that may be granted upon recognition of a foreign proceeding

- (1) Upon recognition by the High Court of a foreign proceeding, whether main or non-main, where necessary to protect the assets of the debtor or the interests of the creditors, the Court may, at the request of the foreign representative, grant any appropriate relief, including:

 - (e) entrusting the administration or realisation of all or part of the debtor's assets located in New Zealand to the foreign representative or another person designated by the Court; and

- (f) extending relief granted under paragraph (1) of article 19.
- (2) Upon recognition by the High Court of a foreign proceeding, whether main or non-main, the Court may, at the request of the foreign representative, entrust the distribution of all or part of the debtor's assets located in New Zealand to the foreign representative or another person designated by the Court, provided that the Court is satisfied that the interests of creditors in New Zealand are adequately protected.
- (3) In granting relief under this article to a representative of a foreign non-main proceeding, the Court must be satisfied that the relief relates to assets that, under the law of New Zealand, should be administered in the foreign non-main proceeding or concerns information required in that proceeding.

Article 22. Protection of creditors and other interested persons

- (1) In granting or denying relief under article 19 or article 21, or in modifying or terminating relief under paragraph (3) of this article, the High Court must be satisfied that the interests of the creditors and other interested persons, including the debtor, are adequately protected.
- (2) The Court may subject relief granted under article 19 or article 21 to conditions it considers appropriate.
- (3) The Court may, at the request of the foreign representative or a person affected by relief granted under article 19 or article 21, or at its own motion, modify or terminate such relief.
- (4) The Court must, on application of the statutory manager, terminate the relief granted under article 19 or article 21 if—
 - (a) an application for recognition has been made in respect of a debtor that is a registered bank within the meaning of section 2(1) of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1989;
 - (b) the Court has granted that application or the Court has granted relief under article 19; and
 - (c) the debtor is placed in statutory management after that application or relief has been granted.

Article 23. Actions to avoid acts detrimental to creditors

- (1) Upon recognition by the High Court of a foreign proceeding, the foreign representative has standing to initiate any action that an insolvency administrator may take in respect of a New Zealand insolvency proceeding that relates to a transaction (including any gifts or improvement of property or otherwise), security, or charge that is voidable or may be set aside or altered.
- (2) When the foreign proceeding is a foreign non-main proceeding, the Court must be satisfied that the action relates to assets that, under the law of New Zealand, should be administered in the foreign non-main proceeding.
- (3) To avoid any doubt, nothing in paragraph (1) of this article affects the doctrine of relation back as it is applied in New Zealand.

Article 24. Intervention by a foreign representative in New Zealand insolvency proceeding

Upon recognition by the High Court of a foreign proceeding, the foreign representative may, provided the requirements of the law of New Zealand are met, intervene in any proceeding in which the debtor is a party.

Chapter V. Concurrent proceedings

Article 28. Commencement of a New Zealand insolvency proceeding after recognition of a foreign main proceeding

After recognition by the High Court of a foreign main proceeding, a New Zealand insolvency proceeding may be commenced only if the debtor has assets in New Zealand; the effects of that proceeding shall be restricted to the assets of the debtor that are located in New Zealand and, to the extent necessary to implement co-operation and co-ordination under articles 25, 26, and 27, to other assets of the debtor that, under the law of New Zealand, should be administered in that proceeding.

Article 29. Co-ordination of a New Zealand insolvency proceeding and a foreign proceeding

Where a foreign proceeding and a New Zealand insolvency proceeding are taking place concurrently regarding the same debtor, the High Court shall seek co-operation and co-ordination under articles 25, 26, and 27, and the following shall apply:

Article 30. Co-ordination of more than one foreign proceeding

In matters referred to in paragraph (1) of article 1, in respect of more than one foreign proceeding regarding the same debtor, the High Court shall seek co-operation and co-ordination under articles 25, 26, and 27, and the following shall apply:

Without prejudice to secured claims or rights in rem, a creditor who has received part payment in respect of its claim in a proceeding pursuant to a law relating to insolvency in a foreign State may not receive a payment for the same claim in a New Zealand insolvency proceeding regarding the same debtor, so long as the payment to the other creditors of the same class is proportionately less than the payment the creditor has already received.
