In this Act, if not inconsistent with the context,—               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>“Company” means any association of persons whether corporate or unincorporate :</li> <li>“British company” means a company established or incorporated in, and having its chief office in, the United Kingdom or in any of His Majesty's dominions or possessions other than New Zealand :</li> </ul> </li> </ol>

“Foreign company” means a company established or incorporated in, or having its chief office in, any foreign country:

“Insurance business” means every class of insurance business except—

(a.) Life insurance, including endowment and annuity contracts; and

(b.) Marine insurance.

PART I.

DEPOSITS BY COMPANIES ALREADY ESTABLISHED AND CARRYING ON INSURANCE BUSINESS IN NEW ZEALAND.

3. (1.) Every British company which has heretofore commenced and is at the commencement of this Act carrying on in New Zealand any class of insurance business specified in the First Schedule to this Act shall, within four months after the commencement of this Act, deposit with the Public Trustee in money the sum specified in that Schedule in respect of such class.

Deposits to be made by existing insurance companies in security of policyholders.

(2.) Every foreign company which has heretofore commenced and is at the commencement of this Act carrying on in New Zealand any class of insurance business shall, within six months after the commencement of this Act, deposit with the Public Trustee in money the sum specified in the Second Schedule hereto.

(3.) Where any British company is carrying on more than one such class of insurance business it shall deposit with the Public Trustee, in accordance with this section, the sum specified as aforesaid in respect of each such class of business.

(4.) Where any British company which is not at the commencement of this Act carrying on all the said classes of insurance business hereafter proposes to carry on any of the said classes, such company shall, before commencing to carry on such class of insurance business, deposit with the Public Trustee in money the amount specified as aforesaid in respect of that class.

4. Every British company or foreign company which has heretofore deposited with the Public Trustee cash or approved securities under the provisions of Part III of the Foreign Insurance Companies' Deposits Act, 1908, shall be entitled to a refund of such cash or to a return of such securities upon making the deposit required by this Act.

Return of deposits made under Part III of Foreign Insurance Companies' Deposits Act.

PART II.

DEPOSITS BY COMPANIES PROPOSING TO COMMENCE INSURANCE BUSINESS IN NEW ZEALAND.

5. (1.) Every British company which hereafter proposes to commence in New Zealand any class of insurance business shall, before commencing such business, deposit with the Public Trustee the sum of fifty thousand pounds.

Deposits to be made by companies hereafter commencing insurance business in New Zealand.

(2.) Every foreign company which hereafter proposes to commence in New Zealand any class of insurance business shall, before commencing such business, deposit with the Public Trustee the sum of one hundred thousand pounds.

PART III.

GENERAL.

Investment of deposits for benefit of companies.

6. (1.) All moneys deposited with the Public Trustee under this Act shall be invested in the Common Fund under the Public Trust Office Act, 1908, and shall bear interest at the rate from time to time payable in respect of investments in the said Common Fund.

(2.) Every company shall be entitled to receive from time to time the income payable in respect of the deposit or deposits made by it.

Deposits to be held in trust for policyholders.

7. (1.) Subject to the provisions of this Act the Public Trustee shall, as to every deposit made under this Act, hold the same as security for policyholders or claimants in respect of policies or other contracts issued, granted, or entered into in New Zealand by the company making such deposit, whether such policies or contracts have been granted or entered into before or after the coming into operation of this Act :

Provided that the deposit made in respect of any class of insurance business shall be held in trust exclusively for policyholders and claimants as aforesaid in respect of that class of insurance business.

Not to be liable for debts of company without consent.

(2.) Until all the obligations in New Zealand of the company making such deposit in respect of such policies or contracts as aforesaid are cancelled, annulled, or liquidated, such deposit shall not be liable to be attached or levied upon, or be subject to any debts of or claims against such company, without the previous consent in writing of the Minister of Finance, who may give his consent on such terms and conditions as he thinks equitable, having regard to the interests of the persons as security for whom such deposits are held by the Public Trustee.

Conditions under which deposits may be withdrawn.

8. (1.) If any company which has made any deposit with the Public Trustee under this Act in respect of any class of insurance business ceases to carry on that class of business in New Zealand, such company may withdraw such deposit—

(a.) On the expiration of six months after service on the Public Trustee of a notice in writing, duly signed on behalf of the company, stating that the company has ceased to carry on that class of business in New Zealand and proposes to withdraw such deposit ; and

(b.) On satisfying the Public Trustee that from the date of the service of such notice the company has not, except as to policies or contracts granted or made before such date, carried on that class of business in New Zealand ; and

(c.) On satisfying the Public Trustee that all the liabilities of the company in New Zealand in respect of that class of business are fully liquidated or provided for.

(2.) The Public Trustee shall cause every such notice as aforesaid, and also his decision with regard to every such proposed withdrawal, to be published at the cost of the company in such manner as he thinks fit.

9. If any company makes default in duly and fully complying with any of the requirements of this Act affecting such company, such company, and also its attorney, general agent, and every other agent, are respectively and severally liable to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds for every day during which such default continues.

Penalty on default in complying with terms of Act.

10. If any such default as aforesaid is continued for a period of three months the Minister of Finance may, by notice published in the Gazette, prohibit the defaulting company from carrying on business or any class of business in New Zealand, either absolutely or for such time as he declares.

If default continues, company may be prohibited from carrying on business.

11. If any such company as aforesaid, or any person as attorney, general agent, or other agent of such company or otherwise for or on behalf of such company, after the publication of such notice as last aforesaid, receives any application for insurance, or accepts any premium for insurance, or otherwise carries on the business of such company in New Zealand in contravention of such notice, then, in addition to and irrespective of the fine specified in section nine hereof, such company and every such person are respectively and severally liable to a fine of one hundred pounds for each and every act so done in breach of such notice.

Further penalty for carrying on business after notice prohibiting.

12. In any action or other proceedings it shall not be necessary to prove that a company has been incorporated, but it shall be sufficient to show that such company is carrying on business or has agreed by the style or description by which it is made a part to any action or other proceedings.

In any action incorporation of company need not be proved.

13. The Foreign Insurance Companies' Deposits Act, 1908, and the Foreign Insurance Companies' Deposits Amendment Act, 1910, are hereby repealed.

Repeals.
