 1979, No. 93

An Act to amend the Industrial Design Act 1966
[13 December 1979]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Industrial Design Amendment Act 1979, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Industrial Design Act 1966 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2. Powers of Council—(1) Section 15 (2) of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after paragraph (c), the following paragraphs:

“(ca) Provide for the recognition of standards of efficiency in the execution of industrial design by establishing awards, and endorsements and indices in respect of products the industrial design of which is for the time being approved by the Council, and provide for the withdrawal of any such recognition or approval:

“(cb) Publish, and supply to persons at their request, details of the registration of persons reaching a prescribed standard of efficiency in the execution of industrial design, and of awards, endorsements, and indices.”

(2) Section 15 of the principal Act is hereby further amended by adding the following subsection:

“(3) Without limiting the generality of the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the Council may from time to time, with the prior consent in writing of the Minister, by notice published in the Gazette, prescribe fees that shall be payable for—

“(a) The registration of persons reaching a prescribed standard of efficiency in the execution of industrial design;

“(b) Entry for any award, or endorsement, or index scheme established by the Council;

“(c) The supply to any person at his request of any details specified in subsection (2) (cb) of this section; and

“(d) The provision of any other service by the Council to any person at his request.”

(3) The following provisions of the principal Act are hereby repealed:

(a) Section 15 (2) (k):

(b) Section 32 (b):

(c) Section 32 (c).

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3) of this section, or section 15 of the principal Act (as amended by subsection (2) of this section), every regulation that is in force immediately before the commencement of this Act and is made under section 32 of the principal Act, relating to fees that are payable to the Council in respect of services provided by the Council, shall continue in force until it is revoked.
