

(2.) With respect to every person who lands in New Zealand under any such regulations, the provisions of the principal Act shall not apply so long as he faithfully observes the conditions prescribed by those regulations or such of them as are applicable to him; but if he does not so observe the prescribed conditions he shall be deemed to have unlawfully landed in New Zealand.

6. Any Chinese who lands in New Zealand in breach of Part III of the principal Act shall, in addition to any penalties incurred by such breach, be liable to be removed from New Zealand; and the master, owner, or charterer of the ship from which that Chinese lands shall jointly and severally be liable to defray the expenses incurred by the Government in so removing him, and in detaining and maintaining him in New Zealand pending such removal.

Chinese landing in breach of Act liable to be removed.

7. Notwithstanding anything in section twenty-eight of the principal Act, paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) of section fourteen of the principal Act shall, mutatis mutandis, extend and apply to Chinese, and sections eighteen to twenty-four of that Act shall extend and apply to Chinese coming within those paragraphs.

Certain provisions extended.

8. Section twenty-nine of the principal Act is hereby amended by adding thereto the following proviso:—

Section 29 of principal Act amended.

“Provided that this section shall not apply in the case of any Chinese so carried in excess who is the bona fide holder of a through ticket to some place beyond New Zealand.”
