1958, No. 76

An Act to amend the Licensing Act 1908

[2 October 1958]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Licensing Amendment Act 1958, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Licensing Act 1908 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2. Service of liquor with meals in licensed tourist houses—Section sixty-seven of the Licensing Amendment Act 1948 is hereby amended by inserting, after subsection two, the following subsections:

“(2A) Notwithstanding anything in paragraph (b) of subsection two of this section, the Commission may from time to time, in its discretion, grant to the holder of any tourist-house licence a permit to sell and dispose of liquor to any person actually partaking of a meal, for consumption as part of the meal, in any specified portion of the licensed premises other than a dining-room, whether that specified portion is within any building or not:

“Provided that no permit granted under this subsection shall authorise any such sale or disposal of liquor as aforesaid at any time after sunset.

“(2B) Any permit granted under subsection two A of this section shall be in writing, and may be granted subject to such conditions and restrictions as the Commission thinks fit, and may at any time in like manner be varied or revoked.”
