1962, No. 112

An Act to amend the Limitation Act 1950

[6 December 1962

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Limitation Amendment Act 1962, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Limitation Act 1950 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2. Limitation of actions in respect of bodily injury—
(1) Section 4 of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting in the proviso to subsection (7), after the word “mistake”, the words “of fact or mistake of any matter of law other than the provisions of this subsection”.

(2) In respect of any cause of action in respect of which an action or arbitration has been commenced before the passing of this Act, the said proviso shall apply as if this section had not been passed.

(3) In respect of any other cause of action which accrued before the passing of this Act, the said proviso shall apply as if this section had come into force before that cause of action accrued.

3. Protection of person acting in execution of statutory or other public duty—(1) Section 23 of the principal Act is hereby repealed.

(2) In respect of any cause of action which accrued more than one year before the passing of this Act, and any other cause of action in respect of which an action or arbitration has been commenced before the passing of this Act, the provisions of the principal Act shall apply as if the said section 23 continued in force.

(3) In respect of any other cause of action which accrued before the passing of this Act, the provisions of the principal Act shall apply as if the said section 23 had been repealed before that cause of action accrued.

This Act is administered in the Department of Justice.
