1975, No. 82

An Act to amend the Land Act 1948

[9 October 1975]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Land Amendment Act 1975, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Land Act 1948 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2. Recreation permit—The principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after section 66, the following section:

“66A. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the Board may from time to time, either after calling public applications or without competition, grant to any person a recreation permit authorising the occupation and use of any land comprised in a pastoral lease or pastoral occupation licence for any commercial undertaking involving the use of the land for any recreational, tourist, accommodation, safari, or other purpose that, in the opinion of the Board, may be properly undertaken on that land.

“(2) The Board shall not issue a recreation permit to any person other than the holder of the pastoral lease or pastoral occupation licence without the holder’s consent.

“(3) The Board shall not grant a recreation permit in respect of any land for any purpose that, in the opinion of the Board, is incompatible with any water or soil conservation objectives relating to the land.

“(4) As a condition of granting a recreation permit to the holder of any pastoral lease or pastoral occupation licence the Board may require the holder to surrender to the Board any part of the land comprised in the lease or licence in order to facilitate erosion-prevention measures.

“(5) Every recreation permit shall be deemed to be issued subject to the condition that the holder will comply with all local authority bylaws, regulations, and requisitions, and with the provisions of the Town and Country Planning Act 1953, so far as they are applicable to the land.

“(6) Every recreation permit shall be issued on such other terms and subject to such other conditions (whether as to the payment of fees or otherwise) as the Board may determine, whether generally or in a particular case.

“(7) Every holder of a pastoral lease or a pastoral occupation licence who uses or permits to be used any part of the land comprised in the lease or licence for any purpose for which a recreation permit may be issued under this section commits a breach of the lease or licence, rendering the lease or licence liable to forfeiture in accordance with the provisions of this Act, unless he is the holder of a recreation permit authorising the use of the land for that purpose.”

3. Grazing permit—The principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after section 68, the following section:

“68A. (1) The Board may from time to time, either after calling public applications or without competition, grant to any person a permit to graze stock on Crown land.

“(2) Every grazing permit shall be issued on such terms and subject to such conditions as to the payment of fees, the numbers of stock that may be carried on the land to which the permit relates, the times of the year when the stock may be grazed on the land, and such other matters as the Board may determine, whether generally or in a particular case.

- “(3) A grazing permit shall not confer on the holder—
- “(a) The exclusive right to occupy the land to which the permit relates:
- “(b) The status of occupier of the land for the purposes of the law relating to trespass.
- “(4) Every grazing permit shall be revocable by the Board, at will and without compensation, by giving 1 month’s notice in writing to the holder.”
