

New Zealand.

ANALYSIS.

- | | |
|--|--|
| Title. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Short Title and commencement. 2. University to examine candidates for admission as barristers or solicitors. Saving. 3. Consequential repeals and amendments. 4. Power to make rules of Court. | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 5. Certificates to be in force till 31st January. 6. Maximum number of members of District Law Society Councils increased. 7. Section 72 of principal Act amended. 8. New Zealand Council of Law Reporting may grant moneys to New Zealand Law Society. |
|--|--|

1930, No. 37.

Title.

AN ACT to amend the Law Practitioners Act, 1908.

[25th October, 1930.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short Title and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the Law Practitioners Amendment Act, 1930, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Law Practitioners Act, 1908 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

(2) This Act shall come into force on the first day of January, nineteen hundred and thirty-one.

University to examine candidates for admission as barristers or solicitors.

2. (1) The examination of candidates for admission as barristers or solicitors of the Court shall hereafter be conducted by the University of New Zealand.

(2) The Senate of the University shall prescribe the nature and conditions of such examinations, and the educational and practical qualifications of candidates, and may also prescribe such courses of study and practical training and experience for such candidates as it thinks fit:

Provided that it shall not be competent for the Senate to require that any course of study or practical training shall be taken at a University college in New Zealand by any candidate who for the time being is resident more than ten miles from such college, or who, being engaged in acquiring a profession or trade or earning a livelihood, is, in the opinion of the Minister of Education, thereby prevented from attending lectures.

(3) Except as provided in the next succeeding subsection, no person shall hereafter be admitted as a barrister or solicitor of the Court unless the Court or a Judge thereof is satisfied, by the production of a certificate signed by or on behalf of the Registrar of the University, that the candidate has completed the prescribed courses of study and of practical training and experience, that he has passed the prescribed examinations, and that he has otherwise complied with the requirements prescribed by the Senate of the University in accordance with this section.

(4) Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this section shall apply ^{Saving.} with respect to—

- (a) The admission as barristers or solicitors of the Court of persons who at the commencement of this Act are qualified to be admitted as such; or
- (b) The admission as barristers or solicitors of the Court of persons qualified to be admitted as such, without examination, as provided in the proviso to paragraph (a) of section four of the principal Act or in the proviso to paragraph (b) of section fifteen of that Act or in section forty-two thereof; or
- (c) The admission as barristers of the Court of solicitors applying for admission as barristers pursuant to section five of the principal Act.

(5) Any person of a class referred to in the last preceding subsection may hereafter be admitted as a barrister or solicitor of the Court, as the case may be, as if this Act had not been passed.

(6) Sections four and fifteen of the principal Act, as consequentially amended by the next succeeding section, shall be read subject to the provisions of this section.

3. (1) Sections eight, nine, ten, nineteen, twenty, twenty-one, fifty-two, and fifty-three of the principal Act are hereby repealed.

Consequential repeals and amendments.

(2) Section four of the principal Act is hereby amended as follows:—

- (a) By omitting from paragraphs (a), (c), and (d) (but not from the proviso to paragraph (c)) the words “an examination, as hereinafter provided,” and substituting in each case the words “the prescribed examination”;
- (b) By omitting from paragraph (b) the words “an additional examination, as hereinafter provided,” and substituting the words “such additional examination as may be prescribed”; and
- (c) By omitting from the proviso to paragraph (c) the words “as hereinafter provided,”.

(3) Section seven of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting the words “by examination and inquiry, or by a certificate of examiners as hereinafter provided,”.

(4) Section fifteen of the principal Act is hereby amended as follows:—

- (a) By omitting from paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) (but not from the proviso to paragraph (c)) the words “an examination, as hereinafter provided,” and substituting in each case the words “the prescribed examination”; and
- (b) By omitting from the proviso to paragraph (c) the words “as hereinafter provided,”.

(5) Section seventeen of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting the words "by such examination and inquiry, or by a certificate of examiners as hereinafter mentioned,".

(6) The Second Schedule to the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting therefrom all references to examinations and to the fees payable in respect of examinations.

Power to make rules of Court.

4. All rules of Court required for the purposes of the principal Act may from time to time be made in the manner prescribed by the Judicature Act, 1908.

Certificates to be in force till 31st January.

5. (1) All certificates issued under section forty-six of the principal Act, and in force at the commencement of this Act, shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the terms of such certificates, continue in force until the thirty-first day of January, nineteen hundred and thirty-one. All such certificates issued after the commencement of this Act shall continue in force in accordance with the provisions of section forty-six of the principal Act, as amended by subsection two hereof.

(2) Section forty-six of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting the word "tenth" wherever it occurs, and substituting the word "thirty-first".

Maximum number of members of District Law Society Councils increased.

6. Section sixty-one of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting the word "nine", and substituting the word "eleven".

Section 72 of principal Act amended.

7. Section seventy-two of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting from paragraph (a) the words "and Southland".

New Zealand Council of Law Reporting may grant moneys to New Zealand Law Society.

8. (1) Subject to the next succeeding subsection, the New Zealand Council of Law Reporting may from time to time out of its funds grant to the New Zealand Law Society such sums of money as it thinks fit.

(2) Every such grant shall be made by a resolution passed by a majority of not less than three-fourths of such members of the said Council as are present in person or by proxy at a meeting thereof at which not less than four members are so present.