An Act to amend the Land Transfer Act 1952

[23 October 1963

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Land Transfer Amendment Act 1963, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Land Transfer Act 1952 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

PART I

PRESCRIPTIVE TITLE TO LAND

2. Interpretation—In this Part of this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,— “Application” means an application for a certificate of title made under section 3 of this Act; and “applicant” has a corresponding meaning:

“Local authority” means a local authority within the meaning of the Local Authorities Loans Act 1956, whether by virtue of section 2 of that Act or of any Order in Council under that section.

3. Application for certificate of title based on possession—(1) Where—

(a) Any person has been in possession of any land which is subject to the principal Act, being land for which a certificate of title has been issued or a Crown grant has been registered under that Act, for a continuous period of not less than twenty years, and continues in possession of the land; and

(b) That possession was such that he would have been entitled to apply for a title to the land on the ground of possession if the land had not been subject to the principal Act,— he may, in accordance with the provisions of this Part of this Act, apply to the Registrar in Form U in the Second Schedule to the principal Act for the issue to him of a certificate of title for an estate in fee simple in the land.

(2) For the purposes of this Part of this Act, possession of any land by any person through or under whom the applicant claims shall be deemed to be possession by the applicant.

4. Person with registered interest under disability—

(1) Where the registered proprietor of, or any person shown by the register to be entitled to the benefit of, any estate or interest in any land is under any disability at the expiration of the period of twenty years after the date on which the possession of the land by any other person commenced, the last-mentioned person, or any person claiming through or under him, shall not be entitled to make an application in respect of that land or any part thereof until that registered proprietor or person shown by the register to be entitled as aforesaid has ceased to be under a disability or has died, whichever event first occurs:

Provided that nothing in this subsection shall apply in any case where at the date of any application under this Part of this Act the applicant has been in possession of the land for a period of not less than thirty years.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a person shall be deemed to be under a disability while he is an infant or of unsound mind.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2) of this section, but without prejudice to the generality thereof, a person shall be conclusively presumed to be of unsound mind while he is an inmate (otherwise than as a voluntary inpatient) in an institution within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1911.

5. Examination of application by Registrar and Examiner of Titles—(1) Upon receipt of any application, the Registrar shall cause the application to be examined and reported upon by the Examiner of Titles, and shall thereafter take into account the report of the Examiner, and shall confer with the Examiner on the application.

(2) The Registrar and the Examiner may, if they think fit, dispense with any of the information required to be supplied in the prescribed form of application, if they are satisfied that that information cannot reasonably be ascertained and supplied by the applicant.

(3) The Registrar may by notice to the applicant require the applicant to furnish him with any additional information or documents relating to his application within a reasonable time specified in the notice.

6. Registrar to refuse application if evidence insufficient—Where—

(a) The Registrar and the Examiner are not satisfied on the evidence produced with any application or supplied pursuant to a requisition under subsection (3) of section 5 of this Act that the applicant has been in possession of the land in the manner and for the period specified in section 3 of this Act or where they are satisfied on that evidence that the applicant has been in possession of only part of the land; or

- (b) The applicant fails to comply with any requisition of the Registrar under subsection (3) of section 5 of this Act within the time specified in the notice given to the applicant under that subsection, or within such extended time as the Registrar, in his discretion, may allow,— the Registrar shall refuse the application, either wholly or, as the case may be, as to the part thereof in respect of which he and the Examiner are not satisfied as aforesaid.

7. Notice of application—(1) Where the Registrar and the Examiner are satisfied that the applicant has been in possession of the land or of any part thereof in the manner and for the period prescribed in section 3 of this Act, the Registrar shall cause notice of the application in such form as he thinks fit—

- (a) To be published at least twice on dates specified or approved by the Registrar in such one or more newspapers as he thinks fit, including at least one newspaper circulating in the locality in which the land is situated; and
- (b) To be given to any person who is shown by the register to have or who in the Registrar's opinion has or may have any estate or interest or any claim to any estate or interest in the land or any part thereof, and the notice shall advise that person that any such estate or interest will lapse in respect of any land in the application for which a certificate of title may be issued under this Part of this Act unless a caveat is lodged as hereinafter provided; and
- (c) To be published in such other way (if any) or to be given to such other persons (if any) as he thinks expedient in the circumstances.

(2) Where an application has been refused as to part of the land to which it relates, the notice required by this section shall be given only in respect of the remaining part of the land.

(3) The notice shall fix a date, being not less than one month nor more than twelve months from the date of the first publication of the notice under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section, after which the Registrar may, unless on or before that date a caveat has been lodged as hereinafter provided against the land concerned, proceed with the application.

(4) The Registrar may, at any time before the granting of the application, extend for such period as he thinks fit the time fixed by any notice given pursuant to this section.

(5) For every notice given to any person pursuant to this section the Registrar may charge the same fee as is prescribed for a notice relating to any caveat.

8. Person claiming interest in land may lodge caveat—

(1) Any person claiming any estate or interest, whether legal or equitable or beneficial, in the land or any part of the land to which any application relates may, before the expiration of the time fixed or extended pursuant to section 7 of this Act, lodge a caveat in Form M in the Second Schedule to the principal Act suitably altered to refer to and forbid the granting of the application in respect of that land or part thereof, as the case may be.

(2) Nothing in section 143 or section 144 of the principal Act shall apply to any caveat lodged pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, but, except to the extent that they are inconsistent with the provisions of sections 9 to 12 of this Act, sections 138, 139, 142, 146, and 148 of the principal Act shall, with any necessary modifications, apply to such a caveat.

(3) Any caveat under this section may be withdrawn by the caveator or by his attorney or agent under a written authority, and either as to the whole or any part of the land to which it relates.

9. Caveat by registered proprietor of fee simple or estate for life, etc.—

(1) Where the Registrar is satisfied that the person executing a caveat lodged pursuant to section 8 of this Act is the registered proprietor of an estate in fee simple or an estate for life or in remainder, contingent or otherwise, or an estate by way of executory limitation that has not lapsed in the land to which the application relates or in any part of that land, the Registrar shall refuse the application in respect of the land to which the caveat relates.

(2) Where a caveat lodged pursuant to section 8 of this Act is executed by any person purporting to be the agent of the caveator thereunder, and the caveator is the registered proprietor of any of the estates referred to in subsection (1) of this section, then, unless the Registrar is satisfied by evidence produced to him at the time of the lodging of the caveat that the person executing it has been duly authorised to do so, the Registrar shall give notice to him requiring him to satisfy the Registrar, before a date fixed in the notice, by confirmation of the registered proprietor or otherwise, that he has been duly authorised as aforesaid.

(3) If the Registrar is not so satisfied within the time fixed in the notice given under subsection (2) of this section, or within such extended time as the Registrar, in his discretion, may allow, the caveat shall be deemed to have lapsed at the expiration of that time or extended time, and the Registrar shall mark it as having lapsed under this subsection.

(4) Where the Registrar is satisfied that the person executing any caveat to which subsection (2) of this section applies has been duly authorised to do so, he shall refuse the application in respect of the land to which the caveat relates.

10. Caveat by person claiming as beneficial or equitable owner of fee simple or estate for life, etc.—(1) Where—

(a) The caveator under a caveat lodged pursuant to section 8 of this Act claims to be the beneficial or equitable owner of an estate in fee simple or an estate for life or in remainder, contingent or otherwise, or an estate by way of executory limitation that has not lapsed in the land to which the application relates or in any part of that land; and

(b) The application has not been refused as to the whole of the land or as to that part pursuant to any other provision of this Part of this Act,—

the Registrar shall, unless he is of the opinion that the estate or interest claimed is sufficiently evidenced by the register, give notice to the caveator requiring him, within a time fixed in the notice, being not less than three months after the giving of the notice, to either—

(c) Establish that claim in law and cause himself to be registered as the proprietor of the estate or interest claimed; or

(d) Satisfy the Registrar that the claim to that estate or interest is valid but is of such a nature that it is not capable of being converted into a registered estate or interest.

(2) If, within the time fixed by any notice given under subsection (1) of this section, or within such extended time as the Registrar, in his discretion, may allow, the caveator neither causes himself to be registered as the proprietor of the estate or interest claimed nor satisfies the Registrar as aforesaid, the caveat shall be deemed to have lapsed, and the Registrar shall mark it as having lapsed under this subsection.

(3) If—

- (a) The Registrar is of the opinion that the estate or interest claimed is sufficiently evidenced by the register; or
- (b) Within the time fixed or extended as aforesaid, the caveator causes himself to be registered as the proprietor of the estate or interest claimed in the land or in part thereof, or satisfies the Registrar as aforesaid,— the Registrar shall refuse the application in respect of the land or of that part, as the case may be.

11. Caveat by person entitled to other estate or interest—

(1) Where the Registrar is satisfied that the caveator under a caveat lodged pursuant to section 8 of this Act is the registered proprietor of, or a person shown by the register to be entitled to the benefit of, any estate or interest in the land to which the application relates or in any part thereof (not being an estate in fee simple nor an estate for life or in remainder, contingent or otherwise, nor an estate by way of executory limitation), and the application has not been refused as to the whole of the land or as to that part pursuant to any other provision of this Part of this Act,—

- (a) The Registrar shall notify the applicant that he will proceed with the application if the applicant agrees in writing to accept a certificate of title subject, to the same extent as the existing title, to that estate or interest and to every estate or interest (not being any estate in fee simple or other estate excepted as aforesaid) through or under which the caveator derives his title; and
- (b) The Registrar shall take no further action in respect of the application until the applicant so agrees or until the estate or interest of the caveator is discharged, surrendered, or otherwise extinguished; and
- (c) If the applicant so agrees, the caveat shall be deemed to have lapsed and the Registrar shall mark it as having lapsed under this subsection; and any certificate of title issued to the applicant shall be made subject to every such estate or interest as aforesaid.

(2) Where any land in respect of which an application has been lodged is subject to a registered mortgage, the applicant shall be deemed to be the registered proprietor of the land for the purposes of section 112 of the principal Act and to be the owner of the land and the mortgagor for the purposes of section 92 of the Property Law Act 1952.

(3) Where under this section the applicant agrees to take title subject to any mortgage and a certificate of title is issued to him under section 15 of this Act subject to that mortgage, the provisions of section 96 of the principal Act and of section 104 of the Property Law Act 1952 shall not, in relation to that mortgage, apply with respect to any transfer of the land, whether by the applicant or by any person deriving title through or under him.

12. Caveat by person claiming beneficial or equitable estate less than fee simple—(1) Where—

- (a) The caveator under a caveat lodged pursuant to section 8 of this Act claims to be the beneficial or equitable owner of any estate or interest in the land to which the application relates or in any part of that land, not being an estate in fee simple nor an estate for life or in remainder, contingent or otherwise, nor an estate by way of executory limitation; and

the Registrar shall, unless he is of the opinion that the estate or interest claimed is sufficiently evidenced by the register, give notice to the caveator requiring him, within a time fixed in the notice, being not less than three months after the giving of the notice, to either—

- (c) Establish that claim in law and cause himself to be registered as the proprietor of the estate or interest claimed; or
- (d) Satisfy the Registrar that the claim to that estate or interest is valid but is of such a nature that it is not capable of being converted into a registered estate or interest.

(2) If, within the time fixed by any notice given under subsection (1) of this section, or within such extended time as the Registrar, in his discretion, may allow, the caveator neither causes himself to be registered as the proprietor of the estate or interest claimed nor satisfies the Registrar as aforesaid, the caveat shall be deemed to have lapsed, and the Registrar shall mark it as having lapsed under this subsection.

(3) If, within the time fixed or extended as aforesaid, the caveator causes himself to be registered as the proprietor of the estate or interest claimed, the provisions of section 11 of this Act, as far as they are applicable and with any necessary modifications, shall apply as if the caveator had been the registered proprietor of that estate or interest at the date of the lodging of the caveat.

(4) If—

(a) The Registrar is of the opinion that the estate or interest claimed is sufficiently evidenced by the register; or

(b) Within the time fixed by any notice given under subsection (1) of this section, or within such extended time as the Registrar, in his discretion, may allow, the caveator satisfies the Registrar as aforesaid,— the provisions of section 11 of this Act, as far as they are applicable and with any necessary modifications, shall apply as if the registered proprietor of, or, as the case may be, the person shown by the register to be entitled to the benefit of, the estate or interest claimed were the caveator.

13. Notice of refusal of application to be given to applicant—Where pursuant to any provision of this Part of this Act the Registrar refuses any application as to the whole or any part of the land to which it relates, the Registrar shall give notice of the refusal to the applicant, unless notice has previously been given to the applicant of the refusal of the application as to the land or as to that part, as the case may be, under any other provision of this Part of this Act.

14. Definition of land for which certificate of title may be issued—(1) In this section—

“Title boundary”, in relation to any land, means the boundaries of the land as shown on the certificate of title or Crown grant relative to that land, or on the latest plan of survey approved by the Chief Surveyor of the land district in which the land is situated and held in his office or in the office of the Registrar, as the case may be:

“Occupation boundary”, in relation to any land, means any fence, wall, hedge, building, ditch, or other artificial means, or any natural feature of the land, by which the land actually occupied by the applicant is limited or defined.

(2) Where the Registrar is satisfied that all notices required by this Part of this Act to be advertised or given have been advertised or given and that all times required by this Part of this Act to expire have expired, and that—

- (a) No caveat has been lodged pursuant to section 8 of this Act against the granting of the application; or
- (b) Every caveat so lodged has lapsed or been withdrawn as to all the land to which the application relates or as to any part of that land; or
- (c) All caveats so lodged that have neither lapsed nor been withdrawn as aforesaid affect part only of the land to which the application relates,— the Registrar shall give notice to the applicant requiring him to either—

- (d) Supply a certificate by a registered surveyor that the occupation boundaries, or such of the occupation boundaries as exist, of the land remaining subject to the application, or, as the case may be, of such part of that land as is not affected by or has ceased to be affected by any caveat lodged as aforesaid, coincide with the title boundaries of the land or of that part, as the case may be; or
- (e) Deposit under subsections (1) and (5) of section 167 of the principal Act a plan of survey of so much of that land or of the part thereof as aforesaid as is contained within the boundaries specified in subsection (3) of this section.

(3) The boundaries on any such plan of survey shall be drawn as follows:

- (a) Where the title boundary of the land or any part of that title boundary is the common boundary between that land or any part thereof and land owned by the Crown or by any local authority or held for any public purpose, the plan shall to that extent be drawn in terms of that title boundary or of that part thereof:
- (b) Where the occupation boundary of the land or any part of that occupation boundary is outside the title boundary of that land or any part thereof, the plan shall to that extent be drawn in terms of the title boundary or of that part thereof:
- (c) Where the occupation boundary of the land or any part of that occupation boundary, while purporting to be on the title boundary of the land, is on the inside of that title boundary or the corresponding part thereof, and the land adjoining that title boundary or part thereof on the other side is not owned by the Crown or a local authority and is not held for a public purpose, the plan shall to that extent be drawn in terms of the occupation boundary:

- (d) Where the occupation boundary of the land or any part of that occupation boundary does not purport to be on any title boundary of the land or any part thereof, the plan shall to that extent be drawn in terms of the occupation boundary:
- (e) In any case to which the foregoing provisions of this subsection do not apply, and to the extent to which they do not apply, the plan shall be drawn in terms of the title boundaries of the land or in terms of any new survey boundaries necessary for the definition of the land or to complete that definition, as the case may require.

(4) For the purpose of approving any plan required to be deposited pursuant to this section, the applicant shall be deemed to be the owner of the land.

15. Issue of certificate of title to applicant—(1) Where—

- (a) The applicant has supplied the Registrar with the certificate or deposited the plan required by section 14 of this Act; and
- (b) The Registrar and the Examiner are satisfied that the applicant would, if the land had not been subject to the principal Act, have been entitled on the grounds of possession to the issue to him of a certificate of title under that Act on application made under section 19 thereof; and
- (c) If no sufficient reason to the contrary otherwise appears;—

then, notwithstanding anything in any other Act, the Registrar shall issue to the applicant a certificate of title in form 2 in the First Schedule to the principal Act for an estate in fee simple in the land remaining subject to the application or, as the case may be, the land in the plan, freed of all registered encumbrances, liens, and interests previously affecting the land, except those to which the title is to be subject pursuant to an agreement by the applicant under subsection (1) of section 11 of this Act.

(2) Where any land in respect of which the application was lodged is comprised in a certificate of title that is limited as to parcels, any certificate of title issued under this section may, if the Registrar thinks fit, be similarly limited as to parcels.

16. Title to intervening land where fence, etc., not on boundary—(1) In this section the terms “title boundary” and “occupation boundary” have the same meanings as in section 14 of this Act.

(2) Where—

- (a) A plan of survey prepared by a registered surveyor and deposited pursuant to section 14 of this Act discloses that any occupation boundary is within the title boundary and the plan is made in accordance with the occupation boundary; and
- (b) For that reason the certificate of title issued to the applicant under that section does not include the land between the occupation boundary and the title boundary (in this section referred to as the intervening land); and
- (c) The Registrar is satisfied, from the particulars shown on the plan of survey or otherwise, that—
 - (i) The fence, wall, hedge, building, ditch, or other artificial means of marking the occupation boundary was intended to coincide with or to represent the title boundary; or
 - (ii) Where the occupation boundary is a natural feature of the land, that feature is in close proximity to the title boundary; and
- (d) The Registrar is satisfied that the intervening land or any part thereof is occupied together with other land adjoining the title boundary by the registered proprietor of the fee simple estate in that other land or by some person authorised by him,— the Registrar may notify the registered proprietor of that other land that he may apply to have the intervening land, or, as the case may be, so much thereof as is occupied by him or by any person authorised by him as aforesaid, amalgamated with that other land; and, notwithstanding anything in any other Act, if that registered proprietor so applies, the Registrar may issue to him a certificate of title accordingly (in this section referred to as the amalgamated certificate of title), without fee or on payment of the prescribed fee as the Registrar thinks fit.

(3) Any intervening land that is amalgamated with other land pursuant to subsection (2) of this section shall cease to be subject to any registered encumbrances, liens, interests, and burdens previously affecting that intervening land, and shall cease to have the benefit of any rights, privileges, benefits, or easements previously attached thereto, but shall become subject to the same encumbrances, liens, interests, and burdens and shall have attached thereto the same rights, privileges, benefits, and easements as the land with which it has been amalgamated.

(4) Where the Registrar issues an amalgamated certificate of title under this section, any disposition of, or any application for a separate certificate of title for, any part of the land in that certificate of title shall be deemed to be a subdivision of the land for the purposes of the Municipal Corporations Act 1954 or of Part II of the Counties Amendment Act 1961, as the case may require. The Registrar shall make an entry on every such amalgamated certificate of title that it is subject to the provisions of this subsection.

17. Application in respect of land of dissolved company or other corporate body—Where any application relates to land the registered proprietor of the fee simple of which is a company or other corporate body that has been dissolved and the property of which has vested in the Crown as bona vacantia,—

(a) The Registrar shall not proceed with the application until—

(i) Where there is provision in any Act authorising the Crown to disclaim the land, the land has been disclaimed by the Crown in manner provided by that Act and the applicant has satisfied the Registrar that no proceedings have been commenced in any Court by any person under that Act to become the registered proprietor of the land; or

(ii) Where there is no such provision in any Act, the application is consented to in writing by the Secretary to the Treasury; and

(b) Where in any case to which subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of this section applies the Registrar is aware that any person intends to commence such proceedings, he shall serve notice on that person that an application has been lodged under this Part of this Act and that he will proceed with the application unless the proceedings are commenced within a time specified in the notice and are duly proceeded with; and

- (c) Where any such proceedings have been commenced, the Registrar shall not proceed further with the application unless and until the proceedings have failed or been discontinued; and
- (d) If such proceedings have not been commenced within the time fixed in the notice given under paragraph (b) of this section, or within such further time as the Registrar, in his discretion, may allow, and duly proceeded with, the Registrar shall proceed with the application.

18. Cancellation of certificate of title—(1) Where the Registrar issues a certificate of title to any applicant under the provisions of section 15 of this Act, he shall cancel any other certificate of title for that land or, as the case may be, shall partially cancel any other certificate of title so far as it relates to that land. The memorial of cancellation shall state that the cancellation was made under the authority of this section.

(2) Upon the cancellation of any certificate of title as aforesaid, the estate or interest evidenced thereby and the estate or interest evidenced by any instrument, entry, or memorial shown thereon which has not been required to be brought forward on to the new certificate of title pursuant to subsection (1) of section 11 of this Act shall cease and determine in respect of the land as to which the certificate has been so cancelled.

19. No action against the Crown or Registrar-General of Land except in certain cases—Notwithstanding anything in section 172 of the principal Act, no action shall lie against the Crown or the Registrar-General of Land by the registered proprietor of any land or of any estate or interest in any land by reason of the cancellation, in whole or in part, of any certificate of title to that land or any part thereof and the issue of a new certificate of title therefor under this Part of this Act, except where the registered proprietor—

- (a) Is deprived of that land, estate, or interest or any part thereof by fraud on the part of any applicant or by the error, omission, or misfeasance of the Registrar or of any of his officers or clerks in dealing with any application; and
- (b) Is by the principal Act barred from bringing an action for possession or other action for recovery of the land, estate, or interest.

20. Service of notices—(1) Any notice required by this Part of this Act to be given to or served on any person may be given or served by delivering it to him personally or by sending it to him by registered post addressed to him at his last known place of abode or business in New Zealand, or, in the case of a notice required to be given to any applicant or caveator, at the address for service shown in the application or caveat or at any other address for service subsequently notified by him to the Registrar. A notice so posted shall be deemed to have been given or served at the time when the registered letter would in the ordinary course of post be delivered.

(2) Without limiting the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, where any notice is sent or served by registered post, the production of a receipt given to an officer of the Post Office, and purporting to be signed by the person to whom it is addressed or by his authorised agent, shall be sufficient proof of the service.

21. This Part not to apply in certain cases—No application shall be made under section 3 of this Act—

- (a) With respect to any land owned by the Crown, except as provided in section 17 of this Act:
- (b) With respect to any Maori land within the meaning of the Maori Affairs Act 1953:
- (c) With respect to any land the registered proprietor of the fee simple of which is a local authority:
- (d) With respect to any land held in trust for any public purpose, being a trust noted or deemed to be noted on the register pursuant to section 129 of the principal Act:
- (e) With respect to any land occupied together with any adjoining land by the owner of that adjoining land or by any other person by virtue of the fact that any fence, wall, hedge, building, ditch, or other artificial means of marking the boundary purporting to be on the common boundary between that land and the adjoining land is not on that common boundary:
- (f) With respect to any land occupied together with any adjoining land by the owner of that adjoining land or by any other person by virtue of a change of course of any river, creek, or stream, or by virtue of the isolation of that land from any other land in the same ownership by any river, creek, or stream or by any other natural feature of the land or of adjoining land or by any road.

22. Consequential amendments—The principal Act is hereby amended—

- (a) By inserting in section 62, after the words “to have priority”, the words “but subject to the provisions of Part I of the Land Transfer Amendment Act 1963”:
- (b) By inserting in section 64, before the words “After land has become”, the words “Subject to the provisions of Part I of the Land Transfer Amendment Act 1963”:
- (c) By inserting in section 79, before the words “every such certificate”, the words “subject to the provisions of Part I of the Land Transfer Amendment Act 1963”:
- (d) By adding to the Second Schedule (as amended by subsection (2) of section 3 of the Land Transfer Amendment Act 1959 and by paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 4 of the Land Transfer Amendment Act 1961) the form U set out in the Schedule to this Act.

PART II

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS OF PRINCIPAL ACT

23. Warrant for certificate of title not required in certain cases—Section 16 of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after the words “Order in Council”, the words “or notice by any Minister of the Crown”.

24. Contents of memorial—(1) Section 39 of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting the words “names of the parties thereto”, and substituting the words “name of the person taking the benefit under the instrument”.

(2) Every memorial entered in the register before the passing of this Act which would have been valid if this section had been in force when the memorial was entered is hereby declared to have been validly entered, and the instrument to which it relates is hereby declared to have been duly registered.

25. Bringing down encumbrances on registration of new lease—(1) The principal Act is hereby further amended by repealing section 117, and substituting the following section:

“117. (1) Where upon the registration of a lease—

“(a) The Registrar is satisfied that—“(i) It is in renewal of or in substitution for a lease previously registered; and

“(ii) The lessee is the person registered as the proprietor of the prior lease at the time of the registration of the new lease or at the time of the expiry or surrender of the prior lease, whichever is the earlier, or the personal representative of that person; and

“(b) The lessee or the registered proprietor of any encumbrance or lien or interest to which the prior lease was subject at the time of its expiry or surrender or the personal representative of the registered proprietor so requests,— the Registrar shall state in the memorial of the new lease that it is in renewal of the prior lease or in substitution for the prior lease, as the case may be.

“(2) In every such case the new lease shall be deemed to be subject to all encumbrances, liens, and interests to which the prior lease is subject at the time of the registration of the new lease or at the time of the expiry or surrender of the prior lease, whichever is the earlier.

“(3) For the purposes of the foregoing provisions of this section, all references in any Act or in any agreement, deed, instrument, notice, or other document whatsoever to the prior lease or to the estate of the lessee thereunder shall, unless inconsistent with the context or with the provisions of this section, be deemed to be references to the new lease or to the estate of the lessee thereunder, as the case may be.

“(4) Upon the registration of a new lease in any case to which subsection (1) of this section applies, the Registrar shall record on the new lease all encumbrances, liens, and interests to which it is deemed to be subject as aforesaid in the order of their registered priority.

“(5) The provisions of this section are in addition to and not in derogation of the provisions of section 114 of the Land Act 1948, section 36 of the State Advances Corporation Act 1936, and any other enactment.”
