In certain cases certificates may be given by office-bearers.

10. Any minister of religion not connected with any of the bodies enumerated in the aforesaid Schedule B, who shall furnish to the Registrar-General a certificate, signed by twenty-four householders, declaring that such minister is their officiating minister, shall be entitled to have his name inserted in the list of Officiating Ministers within the meaning of this Act.

Ministers of other denominations.

The signatures to any such certificate shall be attested by some person, who shall verify the signatures to the certificate as the genuine signatures of the persons whose they purport to be, by a solemn declaration made under "The Justices of the Peace Act, 1866," signed by such person, and appended to such certificate.

11. The several ecclesiastical authorities as aforesaid of the respective religious bodies shall send in to the Registrar-General, in the month of December in every year, a correct list of their officiating ministers.

Cancellation of names.

15. In case of notice being sent to the Registrar-General of the suspension or deprivation of any minister whose name may have been entered upon the list of Officiating Ministers, the Registrar-General shall thereupon erase such name from the aforesaid list, and cause a notification to be gazetted that the name of such minister is withdrawn from the list of Officiating Ministers, and such person shall from the date of such publication cease to be an Officiating Minister within the meaning of this Act.

16. The entry of the name of any Officiating Minister heretofore made or hereafter to be made in the book called the "List of Officiating Ministers," and the gazetting of the name of such minister, shall be deemed and taken to be conclusive evidence of the right of such Officiating Minister to act as such from the date of the certificate of the persons or person having ecclesiastical authority, or of the office-bearers, or of the householders aforesaid respectively, as the case may be, sent in to the Registrar-General in respect of such Officiating Minister upon which such entry and publication have been or shall be made.

To be entered in a book open for inspection.

18. Every notice of an intended marriage shall be fairly written in a book to be kept for that purpose, and called the "Marriage-Notice Book," and the signature of the person giving the notice shall be affixed to the entry in the book.

The marriage-notice book shall be open during the ordinary office hours to all persons desiring to inspect the same.

20. In case any father, or mother, or guardian, whose consent is necessary to the marriage of a person under age, shall be non compos mentis, or in case any such guardian shall unreasonably, or from undue motives, refuse or withhold his consent to a proper marriage, then it shall be lawful for any person desirous of marrying in any of the above-mentioned cases to apply by petition to a Judge of the Supreme Court, and, in case the marriage proposed shall upon examination in a summary way appear to be proper, such Judge shall judicially declare the same to be so, and such judicial declaration shall be deemed and taken to be as good and effectual to all intents and purposes as if the father, or mother, or guardian of the person so petitioning had consented to such marriage.

In certain cases Judge of Supreme Court may consent to the marriage of minors.

21. Any person whose consent is required as aforesaid may forbid the issue of the Registrar's certificate, by writing at any time in the presence of the Registrar before the issue of such certificate the word "Forbidden" opposite to the entry of the notice of such intended marriage in the marriage-notice book, and by subscribing thereto his or her name and place of abode, and the relationship or guardianship by reason whereof he or she is authorized to forbid the issue of such certificate.

Issue of certificates may be forbidden.

22. Any person having just and reasonable cause in that behalf may enter a caveat with the Registrar against the grant of a certificate for the marriage of any person named in such caveat.

Caveat may be entered.

If any caveat be entered with the Registrar, such caveat being duly signed by or on behalf of the person who entered the same, together with his or her place of residence, and the ground of objection on which his or her caveat is founded, no certificate shall be granted until the Registrar shall have examined into the matter of the caveat, and be satisfied that it ought not to obstruct the grant of the certificate for the said marriage, or until the caveat be withdrawn by the person entering the same.

Effect of caveat.

Provided always that, in case of a Registrar refusing the grant of a certificate, the person applying for the same shall have a right to appeal to a Judge of the Supreme Court in a summary way, who shall thereupon either confirm the refusal or direct the grant of the certificate.

Appeal on refusal.

23. Every person who shall enter a caveat with the Registrar against the issue of any certificate on grounds which a Judge of the Supreme Court shall declare to be frivolous and vexatious, and that they ought not to obstruct the issue of the certificate, shall be liable for the costs of the proceedings and for damages, to be recovered in an action by the person against whose marriage such caveat shall have been entered.

If caveat vexatious.

CERTIFICATES.

24. Before any certificate as hereinafter mentioned shall be granted by any Registrar, he shall require the person giving notice of the intended marriage to make a solemn declaration of the truth of the several particulars set forth in such notice; and also

No certificate to issue if any impediment.

25. No such certificate shall be issued by any Registrar if any lawful impediment be shown to the satisfaction of such Registrar to the issue thereof, nor if the issue of such certificate shall have been forbidden in manner hereinbefore mentioned by any person or persons authorized in that behalf.

Immediate certificates for marriage may be issued in certain cases.

26. It shall be lawful for the Registrar to whom notice shall have been given under the seventeenth section of this Act, immediately upon receipt of such notice, and upon the making of the declaration required by the twenty-fourth section, by one of the persons intending marriage, to issue a certificate of marriage in the cases following, that is to say,—

When it shall appear from the notice and declaration that both the persons intending marriage are of full age, or, if a person be under age, that such person is a widow or widower; or,

When, the person being under age, and not a widow or widower, the consent in writing of the parent or guardian required to the marriage of such minor shall appear upon the notice, or be delivered to the Registrar in a separate writing, which consent shall be signed by the parent or guardian, either before the Registrar at his office, or before a Justice of the Peace, or a solicitor of the Supreme Court, or an Officiating Minister within the meaning of this Act, and be attested by such Registrar, Justice, solicitor, or Officiating Minister.

Every certificate of marriage issued under this Act shall be in the form Schedule D to this Act.

Cases where issue of certificate to be deferred.

27. When a declaration shall be made under the twenty-fourth section that, to the best of the declarant's knowledge and belief, there is no person within the colony having authority by law to give consent to the marriage, the Registrar shall not issue a certificate of marriage in any case in which one of the parties is a minor until the expiration of fourteen days after the receipt by him of the notice.

Certificate to authorize, but not oblige, Officiating Ministers.

28. Every certificate as aforesaid issued by any Registrar shall be full authority for any Officiating Minister to solemnize any marriage when both the persons intending to contract such marriage dwell in the same district; but, if those persons dwell in different districts, certificates from the Registrars of both districts shall be required.

No such certificate or certificates shall oblige any Officiating Minister to solemnize any marriage.

Notice, certificate, &c., good for three months only.

29. Whenever a marriage shall not have been solemnized within three calendar months after the notice herein required to be given shall have been given to the Registrar, such notice and any certificate which may have been granted thereupon shall be utterly void.

30. Every Registrar shall, on or within seven days after the thirty-first day of March, the thirtieth June, the thirtieth September, and the thirty-first December respectively, in every year, make a return to the Registrar-General of every certificate granted by such Registrar since his last return, and of the particulars stated in every notice received by him.

Proceedings to be within one year.

45. If any valid marriage shall be had under the provisions of this Act by means of any false notice, certificate, or declaration, made by either party to such marriage, as to any matter to which a notice, certificate, or declaration is herein required, it shall also be lawful for the Attorney-General to sue for a forfeiture of all estate and interest in any property accruing to the offending party by such marriage, and the proceedings thereupon and the consequences thereof shall be the same as hereinbefore provided.
