

ANALYSIS

Title
1. Short Title and commencement
2. Offence to carry on business of meat exporter without licence	3. Conditions of meat exporter's licence

1975, No. 119

An Act to amend the Meat Act 1964

[10 October 1975]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title and commencement—(1) This Act may be cited as the Meat Amendment Act (No. 2) 1975, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Meat Act 1964 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

(2) Except as provided in section 2 (2) of this Act, this Act shall come into force on its passing.

2. Offence to carry on business of meat exporter without licence—(1) Section 64 (2) of the principal Act is hereby repealed.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall come into force 6 months after the date of commencement of this Act.

3. Conditions of meat exporter's licence—The principal Act is hereby further amended by inserting, after section 65, the following new section:

“65A. (1) Every meat exporter’s licence issued under section 65 of this Act may, from time to time, have imposed on it by the Minister such conditions as may be recommended to him by the Meat Producers Board, being conditions specifying—

“(a) The quantities and classes and form of meat that may be exported under the licence:

“(b) The countries to which such meat may be exported:

“(c) Any requirements to the effect that the holder of a licence shall make suitable arrangements to enable any other person to export meat from stock raised or fattened by that other person for export:

“(d) Such other requirements as the Meat Producers Board, after consultation with the New Zealand Meat Exporters Council Incorporated, may think appropriate in any particular case.

“(2) In imposing or recommending conditions under this section, the Minister and the Meat Producers Board shall have regard to the orderly export marketing of meat.

“(3) The Minister, on the recommendation of the Meat Producers Board, may from time to time review any conditions imposed on a meat exporter’s licence and may amend such conditions or impose new conditions upon the renewal of the licence.

“(4) For the purpose of making a recommendation under this section, the Meat Producers Board may require the holder of a meat exporter’s licence to supply to the Board such information as it thinks necessary regarding the quantities of meat exported by the holder to any market and the prices received for that meat.”

This Act is administered in the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries.
