[8th September, 1883.]

WHEREAS in the preamble to "The Masterton and Greytown Lands Management Act, 1871" (hereinafter called "the said Act"), it is recited that certain lands were vested in one Charles Rooking Carter for the formation of a settlement upon the principle of a small-farm association, and that the lands described in the Schedules to the said Act, were set apart for public purposes for the service of the said settlement: And whereas a certain acre of land, numbered forty-two on the plan of the Township of Masterton, formed part of the land vested in the said Charles Rooking Carter, and was part of the land set apart for the public service of the said settlement, but, through accident, was omitted from the Second Schedule to the said Act: And whereas it is expedient to amend the said Act so as to vest the fee-simple of the said Town Acre number forty-two in the Trustees of the Masterton town lands and their successors, subject to and upon the same trusts as the lands mentioned in the Second Schedule to the said Act are subject: And whereas it is expedient to amend the said Act and "The Masterton and Greytown Lands Management Act 1871 Amendment Act, 1877," and other Acts amending the same, as hereinafter mentioned: Preamble.
