1981, No. 74

An Act to amend the Massey Burial-ground Act 1925

[22 October 1981]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Massey Burial-ground Amendment Act 1981, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Massey Burial-ground Act 1925 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2. Administration of special reserve—The principal Act is hereby amended by repealing section 5, and substituting the following section:

“5. (1) The Minister of Internal Affairs is hereby appointed as the administering body to control and manage the special reserve.

“(2) Where the Minister of Internal Affairs, in performing his function as the administering body of the reserve,—

“(a) Proposes to carry out major works on the reserve, or works that may substantially alter the appearance of the memorial; or

“(b) Otherwise considers it necessary—

he shall consult with such members of the family or descendants of the said William Fergusson Massey as he considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case.”

3. Expenditure of funds on special reserve—The principal Act is hereby amended by repealing section 6, and substituting the following section:

“6. The Minister of Internal Affairs may expend money provided by public subscription, or appropriated for the purpose by Parliament, or otherwise received by him for the purpose, in providing for the control and management of the special reserve and the memorial and tomb on the reserve.”

This Act is administered in the Department of Internal Affairs.
