

No. LIX.

AN ACT to alter the Boundaries of the Mount Cook Road District, in the Provincial District of Canterbury. MOUNT COOK ROAD
DISTRICT.
[29th November, 1877.]

WHEREAS by "The Canterbury Roads Ordinance, 1872," a road district was constituted and named the Mount Cook District, the boundaries whereof are set forth in the Second Schedule thereto: Preamble.
And whereas it is expedient to alter the boundaries of the said district:

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act shall be "The Mount Cook Road District Act, 1877." Short Title.

2. From and after the coming into operation of this Act the boundaries of the said district shall be those set forth in the Schedule hereto, and all land outside of such boundaries, and which was heretofore comprised within the said district, shall cease to form any part of the said district. Alteration of boundaries of district.

3. Notwithstanding such alteration, the corporate body of such district, and the members of the Board of such portion of the said original district as is comprised within the boundaries set forth in the Schedule hereto, shall continue to be members as though no alteration Rights reserved.
