1989, No. 132

An Act to amend the Meat Export Control Act 1921–22, to repeal the Meat Export Prices Act 1976, and for matters incidental thereto

[12 December 1989]

BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of New Zealand as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Meat Export Control Amendment Act 1989, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Meat Export Control Act 1921–22 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2. Interpretation—(1) The principal Act is hereby amended by repealing section 1A (as inserted by section 2 (1) of the Meat Export Control Amendment Act 1980), and substituting the following section:

“1A. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,— “‘Byproduct’ means any inedible part of a dead animal that is stock; but does not include vells or wool:

“‘Director-General’ means the chief executive of the Ministry:

“‘Levy’ means the levy on stock imposed by section 13 (1) of this Act:

“‘Licensed premises’ means any abattoir, export slaughterhouse, or rural slaughterhouse, licensed under the Meat Act 1981:

“‘Meat’ means any edible part of a dead animal that is stock; but does not include vells:

“‘Minister’ means the Minister of the Crown for the time being responsible for the administration of this Act:

“‘Ministry’ means the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries:

“‘Stock’ means animals that are cattle, sheep, goats, or horses.”

(2) Section 2 (1) of the Meat Export Control Amendment Act 1980 is hereby consequentially repealed.

3. Membership of Board—(1) The principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after section 2, the following section:

“2A. (1) The Board shall comprise—

“(a) Six members representing the meat producers of New Zealand, elected by meat producers in accordance with regulations made under this Act; and

“(b) Four members (being people who, in the Board’s opinion, are qualified by commercial expertise to be members of the Board) appointed by the Minister on the Board’s recommendation; and

“(c) One member representing the dairy producers of New Zealand, appointed by the Minister on the recommendation of the New Zealand Dairy Board.

“(2) Subject to this section, every member of the Board shall hold office for a term of 3 years, but may from time to time be re-elected or reappointed.

“(3) Any member of the Board may resign by written notice to the Minister.

“(4) The Minister may remove any member of the Board from office for disability, bankruptcy, neglect of duty, or misconduct, proved to the Minister’s satisfaction.

“(5) Where a member of the Board dies, resigns, or is removed from office,—

“(a) The resulting vacancy may, at the option of the Board or (as the case may be) the New Zealand Dairy Board, be filled in the same manner as the vacating member was appointed or elected; and

“(b) Subject to this section, the new member shall hold office for the residue of the term of the vacating member.

“(6) Subject to this section, every member of the Board shall continue in office until the election or appointment of a successor.

“(7) The powers of the Board are not effected by any vacancy in its membership.”

(2) Section 4 of the principal Act is hereby consequentially amended by repealing subsection (1), and substituting the following subsection:

“(1) If satisfied that a member of the Board is, because of illness, absence, or other sufficient cause, incapable of performing the duties of a member, the Minister may, on the recommendation of the Board or (as the case may be) the New Zealand Dairy Board, appoint some fit person to act as the member’s deputy during the incapacity; and during the incapacity the deputy has all the powers and authority of the member.”

(3) Section 6 of the principal Act is hereby consequentially amended by repealing subsection (3), and substituting the following subsection:

“(3) The quorum for a meeting of the Board is 6 members.”

(4) The members of the Board immediately before the commencement of this Act under section 2 (2) (a) of the principal Act shall go out of office on that commencement.

(5) Notwithstanding section 2A (2) of the principal Act (as inserted by section 3 of this Act), as soon as is practicable after the commencement of this Act there shall be appointed under section 2A (1) (b) of the principal Act—

(a) Two members of the Board appointed by the Minister for a term of 3 years; and

(b) One member of the Board appointed by the Minister for a term of 2 years; and

(c) One member of the Board appointed by the Minister for a term of 1 year.

(6) The following enactments are hereby consequentially repealed:

(a) Subsections (2) to (10) of section 2 of the principal Act (as substituted by section 2 (1) of the Meat Export Control Amendment Act 1956):

(b) Section 2 (2) of the Meat Export Control Amendment Act 1980.

4. New sections substituted—(1) The principal Act is hereby amended by repealing section 3, and substituting the following sections:

“2B. Board has powers of natural person—(1) Except as provided in this Act, the Board has—

“(a) The rights, powers, and privileges of a natural person; and

“(b) The power to issue debentures; and

“(c) The power to grant floating charges on the Board’s undertaking or property, or any of it; and “(d) The power to do any other thing it is authorised to do by—

“(i) This Act; or

“(ii) Any other enactment; or

“(iii) Any rule of law.

“(2) Paragraphs (b) to (d) of subsection (1) of this section do not affect the generality of paragraph (a) of the subsection.

“(3) The Board shall not exercise any of its rights, powers, or privileges except for the purpose of performing its functions or achieving its object.

“3. Incorporation of Board—The Board is a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal.”

(2) Section 10 of the principal Act is hereby consequentially amended by adding the following subsection:

“(8) For the purpose of securing any advances made or to be made—

“(a) To the Board, for expenditure in relation to any meat over which the Board has under section 10 of this Act assumed control; or the Board has full power on behalf of the owners of the meat to give security over the meat, and to execute any mortgages or other instruments of assurance, in the same manner in all respects as if the Board owns the meat.”

“(b) To the owners of any such meat at the request of the Board,—

(3) The enactments specified in the First Schedule to this Act are hereby consequentially repealed.

(4) The Market Development Committee established under the Meat Export Control Amendment Act 1966 is hereby dissolved.

(5) The following enactments are hereby consequentially revoked:

(a) The Meat Export Control (Removal of Suspension) Order 1961:

(b) The New Zealand Meat Producers Board Retirement Allowance Scheme Approval Order 1969:

(c) The Meat Export Control Order 1974.

(6) The repeal by subsection (3) of this section of the Meat Export Control Amendment Act 1966 does not affect the validity of anything validated by section 15 (2) of that Act.

(7) All money immediately before the commencement of this Act held in the special account referred to in section 12 (3) of the Meat Export Control Amendment Act 1966 shall, on that commencement, become the property of the Board.

5. New sections inserted—(1) The principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after section 7, the following sections:

“7A. Object of Board—The object of the Board is to ensure that the producers in New Zealand of stock from which meat is derived obtain the best possible long term returns for that stock.

“7B. Functions of Board—(1) Subject to subsection (4) of this section, the functions of the Board are—

“(a) To help and promote the development of existing and new markets for New Zealand meat and byproduct; and

“(b) To help and promote the export of New Zealand meat and byproduct; and

“(c) To promote the orderly marketing and sale of New Zealand meat and byproduct; and

“(d) To promote the consumption of meat in general, and New Zealand meat in particular; and

“(e) To help the New Zealand Government in negotiating access to overseas markets for New Zealand meat and byproduct; and “(f) To promote access to overseas markets for New Zealand meat and byproduct; and

“(g) To help to develop and maintain marketing systems for New Zealand meat and byproduct that are suited to the needs of world markets; and

“(h) To help New Zealand meat exporters market New Zealand meat to the best possible advantage in competition with other foodstuffs; and

“(i) To market New Zealand meat that is—

“(i) Owned by the Board; or

“(ii) Under the control of the Board under section 10 of this Act,— to the best possible advantage in competition with other foodstuffs; and “(j) To provide information on market requirements as a guide to—

- “(i) The production of New Zealand stock; or
 - “(ii) The planning of the marketing, packaging, preparation, processing, and production, of New Zealand meat or byproduct; and
 - “(k) To encourage—
 - “(i) The marketing, packaging, preparation, processing, and production in New Zealand of meat and byproduct suited to market requirements; and
 - “(ii) The production in New Zealand of stock from which there may be derived meat and byproduct suited to market requirements; and
 - “(l) To help and promote the bringing about of the greatest possible efficiencies in the distribution, handling, marketing, packaging, preparation, processing, sale, shipping, and transport of New Zealand meat and byproduct consistent with the Board’s other functions; and
 - “(m) To undertake and cause to be undertaken research into meat, byproduct, stock, and the marketing, packaging, preparation, and processing of meat and byproduct; and
 - “(n) To gather, process, and maintain, statistics and other information on and in relation to—
 - “(i) The demand and markets for meat and byproduct:
 - “(ii) The supply of meat and byproduct:
 - “(iii) The costs of processing and producing meat and byproduct:
 - “(iv) The economic state of the New Zealand stock, meat, and byproduct industries; and
 - “(o) To monitor, and from time to time produce reports on, the efficiency, the economic state, and matters relevant to the efficiency or economic state, of the various sectors of the New Zealand stock, meat, and byproduct industries; and
 - “(p) All other functions conferred on the Board by this Act or any other enactment.
- “(2) The functions specified in subsection (1) of this section may be performed within or outside New Zealand, and in relation to matters taking place within or outside New Zealand.
- “(3) It is also a function of the Board to report from time to time to the Minister in relation to—
- “(a) The Board’s functions, and its performance of them; and
 - “(b) The Board’s finances; and “(c) Any other matters the Board thinks fit or the Minister requests.

“(4) In the performance of its functions, the Board shall have regard to the need for it to maintain its capital funds, and provide and maintain adequate reserves.

“7c. Grading of meat for export—(1) The Board may, after consultation with the New Zealand Meat Industry Association Inc., establish grading standards for stock carcasses intended for export.

“(2) While any standards are for the time being in force under subsection (1) of this section, no person shall export from New Zealand any stock carcase that is graded otherwise than in accordance with the standards, or not graded at all.

“(3) The Board has full authority to make and give all arrangements and directions it thinks proper to ensure that stock carcasses are graded in accordance with standards for the time being in force under subsection (1) of this section.”

(2) Section 14 (1) (a) of the principal Act is hereby consequentially amended by omitting the word “grading.”

(3) All grading standards established under section 14 (1) (a) of the principal Act and in force immediately before the commencement of this Act shall have effect as if established under section 7c (1) of the principal Act (as inserted by subsection (1) of this section), and may be amended or revoked accordingly.

6. New Zealand Meat Industry Association Incorporated—Sections 9B (3), 9D (1), and 9E (1) of the principal Act (as inserted by section 57 (2) of the Meat Act 1981) are hereby amended by omitting the words “Exporters Council”, and substituting, in each case, the words “Industry Association”.

7. New sections substituted—(1) The principal Act is hereby amended by repealing sections 13 and 13A (as inserted by section 3 (1) of the Meat Export Control Amendment Act 1980), and substituting the following sections:

“13. Levy on stock—(1) There is hereby imposed on all stock slaughtered in licensed premises (other than premises in the Chatham Islands) a levy.

“(2) The levy applies to stock whether or not it is subject to the Board’s control.

“(3) Before the 1st day of October in any year, the Board may, by notice in the Gazette, fix all the rates at which the levy is to be paid in respect of stock slaughtered on or after that day.

“(4) The Board may under subsection (3) of this section fix a zero rate for stock of any class or description.

“(5) Subject to subsection (4) of this section, the levy shall be paid at the appropriate rate for the time being fixed under subsection (3) of this section.

“13A. Payment of levy—(1) The person who owns stock when it is slaughtered is primarily liable to pay the levy on it.

“(2) The licensee of licensed premises (whether in the Chatham Islands or elsewhere) where stock is slaughtered shall make to the Director-General returns of the stock slaughtered there.

“(3) Every return under subsection (2) of this section—

“(a) Shall be in a form agreed by the Board and the Director-General; and

“(b) Shall be made to the Director-General, on a form provided by the Director-General for the purpose, within 10 days of the end of the period to which it relates; and

“(c) In the case of rural slaughterhouses, shall be made in respect of the quarterly periods ending, respectively, with the 30th days of June and September, and the 31st days of March and December; and “(d) In all other cases, shall be made in respect of weekly periods, each ending at noon on Sunday.

“(4) The Director-General shall give licensees of licensed premises written notice of any amount of the levy payable under this Act; and every licensee who gets notice shall, within 15 days or any longer period the Board allows of getting it, pay the amount, or cause it to be paid,—

“(a) Into any bank account of the Ministry, for the benefit of the Director-General; or “(b) With the approval of the Director-General, into an office of the Ministry specified by the Director-General.

“(5) Subject to section 13B of the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries Act 1953, all money received by the Director-General under this section shall be accounted for in full to the Board, and shall form part of the Board’s funds in accordance with this Act.”

(2) Section 13E of the principal Act (as inserted as aforesaid) is hereby repealed.

(3) The following enactments are hereby consequentially repealed:

(a) The Meat Export Control Amendment Act 1981:

(b) The Meat Export Control Amendment Act 1982.

(4) The rates of levy fixed under section 13 of the principal Act (as repealed by subsection (1) of this section) shall continue in effect as if made under section 13 of the principal Act (as substituted by that subsection).

8. Application by Board of money received by it—

(1) Section 15 of the principal Act is hereby amended—

(a) By omitting the words “All money received by the Board in respect of the sale of meat or otherwise howsoever shall be paid by the Board into a separate account or into separate accounts at a bank to be approved by the Minister of Finance, and shall be applied by the Board as follows”, and substituting the words “Money received by the Board from the sale of meat over which the Board has assumed control under section 10 of this Act shall be applied only”:

(b) By omitting from paragraph (e) the words “advanced to the Board by the Minister of Finance”, and substituting the words “borrowed by the Board for purposes related to the sale of that meat”.

(2) Section 5 of the Meat Export Control Amendment Act 1956 is hereby consequentially repealed.

9. Certain sections repealed—(1) Sections 15B and 17 of the principal Act are hereby repealed.

(2) The preamble to the principal Act is hereby consequentially amended by omitting the words “, and that the expenditure of the Board should be guaranteed by the Government of New Zealand”.

(3) The following enactments are hereby consequentially repealed:

(a) The Meat Export Control Amendment Act 1978:

(b) So much of the Third Schedule to the Public Finance Act 1977 as relates to section 17 of the principal Act.

10. New sections substituted—The principal Act is hereby amended by repealing section 16, and substituting the following sections:

“15D. Board to prepare financial statements—As soon as is practicable after the 30th day of September in each year, the Board shall prepare:

- “(a) Statements of the Board’s financial position at the end of the year ending with that day; and
- “(b) Statements of cash flows during the year; and
- “(c) Statements of the Board’s revenue and expenditure during the year; and
- “(d) All other statements necessary to show fully the Board’s financial position, and the financial results of its proceedings and operations, during the year.

“16. Audit of accounts and financial statements—

(1) The Audit Office shall audit the accounts of the Board, and the statements referred to in section 15D of this Act.

“(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) of this section, the Audit Office shall have and may exercise and perform—

- “(a) All the functions, duties, and powers of an auditor under the Companies Act 1955; and
- “(b) All the powers it has under the Public Finance Act 1977 in respect of public money and public stores, and the audit of local authorities’ accounts.

“(3) The Board shall supply to the Audit Office, as soon as they are available to the Board,—

- “(a) Copies of the annual accounts of; and
- “(b) All other information the Audit Office requires concerning—every body corporate to which the Board has advanced money that has not yet been repaid, or in which the Board holds shares, stock, debentures, or other interests.

“(4) For the purposes of subsection (3) of this section, money required by section 13 of the Meat Export Control Amendment Act 1989 to be paid to the Board shall be deemed to have been advanced by the Board.

“(5) Subsection (3) of this section does not limit the generality of subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

“16A. Annual reports and statements to be laid before House of Representatives—(1) As soon as is practicable after the statements referred to in section 15D of this Act have been prepared in respect of any year and audited, the Board shall prepare and give to the Minister—

- “(a) A report of its proceedings and operations for the year; and
- “(b) A separate report on its use (if any) during the year of its statutory powers; and
- “(c) A copy of each of the statements; and
- “(d) A copy of the report of the Audit Office on the statements.

“(2) As soon as is practicable after receiving any such reports, copies of statements, and copy of the report of the Audit Office on the statements, the Minister shall lay copies before the House of Representatives.”

11. Offences and penalties—(1) The principal Act is hereby amended by repealing section 18A (as inserted by section 6 of the Meat Export Control Amendment Act 1956), and substituting the following section:

“18A. (1) Every person who—

“(a) Without a meat exporter’s licence granted under section 9B of this Act, carries on business as a meat exporter; or

“(b) Being the holder of a meat exporter’s licence under section 9B of this Act, carries on business as a meat exporter otherwise than in accordance with—

“(i) The licence; or

“(ii) Any condition imposed on the licence under section 9D of this Act,— commits an offence against this Act, and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $100,000.

“(2) Every person who—

“(a) Fails or refuses to make a return under section 13A of this Act; or “(b) Fails or refuses to pay any amount of levy required by section 13A of this Act to be paid; or commits an offence against this Act, and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000.

“(c) Knowingly makes a false or misleading return under section 13A (2) of this Act,—

“(3) Every person who—

“(a) While any standards are for the time being in force under section 7C (1) of this Act, knowingly exports from New Zealand any stock carcass that is graded otherwise than in accordance with the standards, or not graded at all; or

“(b) Knowingly includes in any application under section 9B of this Act for a meat exporter’s licence any false or misleading information; or

“(c) Not being the Board or an agent or servant of the Board, makes a contract for the carriage by sea or air of any meat to be exported from New Zealand that is not in conformity with conditions approved by the Board,—

commits an offence against this Act, and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000.

“(4) Every person who—

“(a) Being the holder of a meat exporter’s licence under section 9B of this Act, within a reasonable time of being required under section 9D (4) of this Act to do so, fails or refuses to supply to the Board information it requires the holder to supply to it; or

“(b) Fails or refuses to keep accurate records of the making of any return or payment of any levy under section 13A of this Act; or

“(c) Fails or refuses to keep full particulars of any transaction to which the payment of any levy made or required to be made under section 13A of this Act relates; or

“(d) Fails or refuses to preserve for a period of not less than 2 years from the date they are made—

“(i) Any records of the making of any return or payment of any levy under section 13A of this Act; or

“(ii) Any particulars of any transaction to which the payment of any levy made or required to be made under section 13A of this Act relates; or “(e) At a reasonable time during business hours, wilfully prevents any member, officer, employee, or agent of the Board or Audit Office duly authorised in that behalf by the Board or Audit Office from,—

“(i) Having full and free access to any premises where any record required by section 13c of this Act to be kept is held; or

“(ii) Inspecting any record required by section 13c of this Act to be kept, or any other book, account, document or other paper relating to levies paid or payable under this Act; or

“(iii) Taking a copy of or extract from any such record, book, account, document, or paper; or

“(f) Fails or refuses to comply with any direction under section 14 (1) of this Act,— commits an offence against this Act, and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000.”

(2) Section 6 of the Meat Export Control Amendment Act 1956 is hereby consequentially repealed.

12. Repeal of Meat Export Prices Act 1976—(1) The following enactments are hereby repealed:

(a) The Meat Export Prices Act 1976:

(b) The Meat Export Prices Amendment Act 1982:

(c) Section 57 (3) of the Meat Act 1981:

(d) So much of the First Schedule to the Official Information Act 1982 as relates to the Meat Export Prices Committee.

(2) The Meat Export Prices Committee established under the Meat Export Prices Act 1955, and all of its subcommittees, are hereby dissolved.

(3) The Meat Income Stabilisation Account established at the Reserve Bank of New Zealand and before the commencement of this Act maintained under section 23 of the Meat Export Prices Act 1976 is hereby closed.

(4) For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that—

(a) The attribution to the account referred to in subsection (3) of this section of the following losses (being trading losses incurred by the Board):

(i) In respect of the year that ended with the 30th day of September 1978, $696,733:

(ii) In respect of the year that ended with the 30th day of September 1982, $59,714,968:

(iii) In respect of the following year, $287,918,963:

(iv) In respect of the following year, $150,486,627:

(v) In respect of the following year, $357,628,041; and

(b) The attribution to the account in respect of the year that ended with the 30th day of September 1979 of a profit of $86,601 (being a trading profit made by the Board),— were valid and lawful.

(5) The Schedule to the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries Act 1953 is hereby consequentially amended by omitting the reference to the Meat Export Prices Act 1976 (as substituted by section 30 (2) of the latter Act).

13. Meat Industry Reserve Account—(1) In this section,—

“Agreement” means the deed made on the 30th day of September 1987 between the Minister of Agriculture (acting in the place of the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries) and the Board relating to MIRA:

“MIRA” means the Meat Industry Reserve Account established under section 5 of the Marketing Amendment Act 1939.

(2) For the avoidance of doubt,—

- (a) The actions of the Minister of Agriculture and the Board in entering into the agreement are hereby validated and declared to have been lawful:
- (b) The agreement is hereby validated and declared to have been and to continue to be lawful, and binding on the Minister of Agriculture and the Board, according to its tenor.
- (3) MIRA is hereby closed; and all assets forming part of MIRA immediately before the commencement of this Act are hereby vested in the Board.
- (4) The actions of the Board in making the loans described in the Second Schedule to this Act are hereby validated and deemed to have been lawful; and subject to subsection (6) of this section, the agreements pursuant to which the loans were made are hereby validated and declared to have been and to continue to be lawful according to their tenor.
- (5) To the extent that it was a condition subject to which the Minister of Agriculture or the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries advanced money to the Board out of MIRA that the Board should repay it or any part of it to that Minister or into MIRA, the condition is hereby waived and cancelled, and it is hereby declared that the Board may retain the advance.
- (6) To the extent that it was a condition subject to which the Board lent to any person money advanced to the Board out of MIRA by the Minister of Agriculture or the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries that the person should repay it or any part of it into MIRA, the condition shall be read, and shall be capable of being enforced, as if it required the money or part to be repaid to the Board.
- (7) Where, but for this section, any person would be required to pay any amount into MIRA, or pay it to the Minister of Agriculture or the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries for payment into MIRA, the person shall instead pay the amount to the Board; and the Board may recover it as if it were a debt due to the Board at the time, and in the circumstances, at and in which it would have been required to be paid into MIRA or to that Minister.
- (8) The Board shall pay to any person any amount that, but for this section, the person would be entitled to receive out of MIRA; and the person may recover it from the Board as if it were a debt due to the person at the time, and in the circumstances, at and in which it would have been required to be paid to the person out of MIRA.
- (9) The Board shall indemnify the Minister of Agriculture for any money paid by the Minister in respect of claims that, but for this section, would have been required to be paid out of MIRA.

(10) Subsection (7) of this section does not limit or affect subsection (8) of this section.

(11) The Board may expend any of its funds, including funds derived pursuant to the agreement or under this section, in making payments under this section; and may expend funds derived pursuant to the agreement or under this section for any purpose for which it may lawfully expend its other funds.

(12) The Public Finance Act 1977 is hereby consequentially amended by—

- (a) Repealing section 119; and
- (b) Omitting from the First Schedule item (g).

14. Assets of Board—It is hereby acknowledged and declared that the Board's assets belong ultimately to the producers in New Zealand of stock from which meat is derived, and are for the time being held and administered for their benefit.
