Title.	AN ACT to authorise the Disposal by Lease or otherwise of certain Mental Hospitals Reserves. [10th October, 1908.]
Preamble.	WHEREAS the land described in the First and Second Schedules hereto is vested in His Majesty for the purposes of a lunatic asylum by the Wellington Asylum, Home, Hospital, and Orphanage Reserves Act, 1888: And whereas the whole of the said land is no longer required for such purpose, and it is expedient to make provision for the disposal of such part thereof as is described in the Second Schedule hereto in the manner hereinafter appearing: And whereas the land described in the Fourth Schedule hereto was by deed of grant dated the eleventh day of February, eighteen hundred and fifty-six, vested in the Superintendent of the Province of Nelson as an endowment for hospitals and lunatic asylums: And whereas by virtue of the Abolition of Provinces Act, 1875, and the Nelson Hospital Reserves Act, 1888, the last-mentioned land is now vested in His Majesty as an endowment for mental hospitals, and it is desirable to make provision for the leasing thereof: BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—
Short Title.	1. This Act may be cited as the Mental Hospitals Reserves Act, 1908.
Exchange of lands between Crown and Wellington Hospital Contributors.	2. (1.) The Governor is hereby authorised and empowered to grant to the Wellington Hospital Contributors (being incorporated as a separate institution under the Hospitals and Charitable Institutions Act, 1908), in exchange for the land described in the Third Schedule hereto, the land described in the Second Schedule hereto, to be held for an estate in fee-simple on trust to be used as a site for a hospital for infectious diseases.

(2.) The Trustees of the said institution are hereby authorised and empowered to transfer to His Majesty the King, in exchange for the land described in the Second Schedule hereto, the land described in the Third Schedule hereto, and all the right, title, and interest of the said institution therein, free from all trusts affecting the same.

(3.) The land so acquired by the Crown shall be deemed to be reserved and set apart accordingly as an endowment for the establishment and maintenance of mental hospitals.

3. (1.) The Governor may, in the name and on behalf of His Majesty the King, from time to time grant leases of the land described in the Fourth Schedule hereto, in such allotments as he thinks fit.

Power to Governor to grant leases.

(2.) On the land described in the Third Schedule hereto becoming vested in the Crown in pursuance of this Act, the Governor may, in the name and on behalf of His Majesty the King, from time to time grant leases thereof, in such allotments as he thinks fit.

(3.) The provisions of the Public Bodies' Leases Act, 1908, shall apply to all leases granted under this section, and the Governor is hereby declared, with respect to the said lands, to be a leasing authority within the meaning of that Act.

(4.) All restrictions and limitations imposed on the leasing of the said lands by any Act or instrument other than the Public Bodies' Leases Act, 1908, are hereby removed.

(5.) A lessee under this Act, or any person claiming through or under a lessee, shall have the same right of relief against re-entry or forfeiture as if the lessor were a person other than the Crown.

4. All revenues received by the Crown under this Act shall be paid into the Public Account, and shall be credited in each financial year to the votes for the establishment and maintenance of mental hospitals in the annual appropriation by Parliament of public moneys.

Application of revenues received from leases.
