1902, No. 54.

AN ACT to amend "The Military Pensions Act, 1866," and to further extend the Provisions of "The Military Pensions Extension to Contingents Act, 1900." Title. {3rd October, 1902.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act is "The Military Pensions Act, 1902"; and it shall form part of and be read together with "The Military Pensions Act, 1866" (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act"). Short Title.

2. The persons whose names are set forth in the Schedule hereto shall be deemed to be members of the forces enrolled by the Government for service in South Africa, and the provisions of "The Military Pensions Extension to Contingents Act, 1900," are hereby extended to such persons accordingly. Extension of principal Act to Eighth, Ninth, and Tenth Contingents.

3. Section four of the principal Act is hereby repealed, and the following substituted in lieu thereof:— Medical Board.

"(1.) The Governor may from time to time appoint a Board, consisting of not less than three duly qualified medical practitioners, whose duty it shall be to inquire into every claim for a pension or gratuity in respect of a wound or injury received in the actual performance of military duty, or in respect of the death of any officer, non-commissioned officer, or private, and to report thereon to the Governor.

"(2.) No such pension or gratuity shall be granted except on the unanimous recommendation of the Board."

Section 7 of principal Act amended.

4. Section seven of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing the words "six months after his being first certified to be ill," in paragraph (b) thereof, and substituting the following in lieu thereof: "twelve months after his having first been removed from duty on account of such illness, provided the illness is certified to have commenced during and as the result of active operations; or, if he died in consequence of injuries received in the performance of military duty otherwise than in action, within twelve months after having been injured."

Scale amended.

5. (1.) The columns of the scale annexed to the principal Act headed respectively "To widows whose husbands were killed in action," and "Where the father was killed in action," are hereby extended to include those who within twelve months died of their wounds.

(2.) The columns of the said scale headed respectively "To widows whose husbands died from illness contracted in the field," and "Where the father died from illness contracted in the field," are hereby extended to include those who within twelve months died in consequence of injuries received in the performance of military duty otherwise than in action.

Act retrospective.

6. (1.) Sections four and five hereof shall extend to every person whose name appears in the respective Schedules to "The Military Pensions Extension to Contingents Act, 1900," "The Military Pensions Act, 1901," and this Act, whether the contingency in respect of which a pension or allowance is claimed under these Acts occurred before or after the passing of this Act.

(2.) If at any time within one year of the passing of this Act the Governor is satisfied that there is any error or omission in the Schedule to either of the last-mentioned Acts or this Act, he may, by notice in the Gazette, remedy such error or omission.

(3.) On the publication of such notice the names of the persons appearing therein shall be deemed to have been inserted in or omitted from the Schedule to this Act.

(4.) Such alteration shall be subject to ratification by Parliament in the next succeeding session, and if not so ratified shall have no further power or effect.

Governor to grant pensions.

7. Every pension or allowance under the principal Act shall be granted by the Governor; and every such pension shall be deemed to commence as from such date as the Governor determines.
