AN ACT to reserve Land as an Endowment for a Harbour Board to be constituted for the Harbour of Napier. [22nd August, 1874.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act shall be "The Napier Harbour Board Act, 1874."

2. The lands described in the Schedule hereto are hereby reserved and set aside for the use benefit and endowment of such Harbour Board as shall hereafter be constituted for the Harbour of Napier, in the Province of Hawke's Bay, under an Act of the Legislature of the said province, to be passed in pursuance of "The Harbour Board Act, 1870," and upon the constitution of such Board shall vest therein without any conveyance, upon the trusts and for the purposes aforesaid.

3. Such of the said lands as before the passing of this Act shall have been granted by the Crown and shall have been vested in the Superintendent of the said Province, whether subject to any trusts or for any purposes or not, shall, on the passing of this Act, be held by him upon the trusts and for the purposes mentioned in the second section hereof; and such of the said lands as shall not before the passing of this Act have been granted by the Crown, shall, on the passing of this Act, be granted to the Superintendent of the said province, upon the trusts and for the purposes mentioned in the second section of this Act: Provided however that all the lands described in the said Schedule shall be deemed to be reserves within the meaning of and subject to be dealt with under "The Public Reserves Act, 1854," and any Act amending the same, and "The Harbour Boards Act, 1870," and any Act amending the same; but the purposes for which such reserves are hereby made shall not be alterable by the provincial Council of the said Province.
