The Court shall, for the purpose of such inquiry and determination, and notwithstanding the provisions of sections one hundred and three, one hundred and seven, and four hundred and thirty-two of the Native Land Act, 1909, or any other statutory provisions, have and exercise the jurisdiction conferred by section one hundred and four of the Native Land Act, 1909.

Section 7 of the Native Land Claim Adjustment Act, 1910, amended.

(2.) The Court is hereby further authorized and directed to ascertain and determine the shares in which the persons who shall be found to be beneficially entitled to such moneys are respectively entitled thereto.

(3.) From such ascertainment and determination any person interested may appeal to the Native Appellate Court, and, subject only to such right of appeal, such ascertainment and determination shall be final and conclusive.

(4.) The Court shall exercise the jurisdiction hereby conferred upon the application of any person alleging himself to be interested, or of the Native Minister, or of the Public Trustee :

(6.) Subsection two of section seven of the Native Land Claims Adjustment Act, 1910, is hereby amended by omitting therefrom the words "land mentioned in paragraph (a) of," and substituting therefor the words "lands mentioned in"; and by inserting, after the word "Crown" in paragraph (b) thereof, the words "or the Maori Land Board of the district in which the said land is situated."

5. (1.) To give effect to the recommendations of the Chief Judge under section twenty-eight of the Native Land Claims Adjustment Act, 1910, the Native Land Court is authorized and directed—

Giving effect to recommendations of the Chief Judge under section 28 of the Native Land Claims Adjustment Act, 1910.

(2.) The purchase-money to be received as aforesaid by the Public Trustee shall be paid by him to the owners thereof in the proportions determined by the Native Land Court, pursuant to section five of the aforesaid Act.

Power to revoke certain Orders in Council.

7. (1.) Notwithstanding anything in the Native Land Act, 1909, the Governor may by Order in Council revoke, either wholly or as to any part or parts of the land included therein, any Order in Council made by the Governor under powers conferred on him in that behalf by the said Act or by any other Act whereby any of the lands mentioned in the First Schedule hereto have been declared to be subject to any of the provisions or to any part of the said Act; and thereupon the land so subject to such provisions or part of the said Act shall, to the extent of the revocation, cease to be so subject.

(2.) Any land which has been vested in any Maori Land Board by virtue of any Order in Council so revoked shall immediately upon such revocation, without conveyance or transfer, be vested in the owners for the time being beneficially entitled thereto in accordance with their respective interests.

(3.) No Order in Council shall be revoked until and unless the Governor is satisfied that the following conditions have been fulfilled:—

- (a.) That the Native owners or other persons so equitably entitled to any area of land desire the land to be so re-vested in them:
- (b.) That the land is not subject to any lease, license, or contract of purchase:
- (c.) That no moneys are charged on the land or on the revenues thereof in accordance with the provisions of the Native Land Act, 1909, or under any other authority.

Section 40 of Maori Land Laws Amendment Act, 1908, amended.

8. Section forty of the Maori Land Laws Amendment Act, 1908, is hereby amended as follows:—

(b.) By inserting, after the words "apply to" in the third paragraph thereof, the words "that part of"; and by adding, at the end of the said third paragraph, the words "which is included in the leases to Gertrude Helen Meinertzhagen."

(c.) By adding, at the end of the first paragraph of the said section, the following: "If any such lands shall be offered by public auction and not then sold or leased by reason of the reserve prices or rents not being bid, such lands so unsold or unlet at auction may be thereafter sold or leased by contract without auction, and all the provisions of this section shall apply to such sales and leases by contract in the same manner and to the same effect as if such sales or leases had been by public auction."

9. After the coming into operation of this Act, in all leases of land now existing or hereafter granted under the provisions of the Westland and Nelson Native Reserves Act, 1887, where the land is held, used, and occupied for religious or educational purposes, other than for schools carried on for pecuniary gain or profit, it shall be lawful for the Public Trustee to reduce to a nominal rental or to such an amount as he thinks reasonable the rent of any such land so long as the same is used for any of these purposes.

12. (1.) The Native Land Court is hereby authorized and directed, on partition of Ruatoki Nos. 1, 2, and 3 and Te Whaiti Blocks, in the Urewera District Native Reserve, to define the tribal or hapu boundaries, and for the purpose to cancel, if necessary, so much of the existing orders relating to the said lands or any of them as determined the relative interests; and to determine as between members of a tribe or hapu after allocation of their portion the relative interests to which they are entitled.

Power of Native Land Court on partition of certain lands in the Urewera District Native Reserve.

(2.) The Court may in the proceedings inquire and determine whether any person claiming to be entitled has been wrongly omitted from the title, or whether any person included in the title was wrongly included, and to amend the list of owners accordingly.

13. Whereas George Lipsey and Ani Edwards, as executors of the will of Ema Mokena Ripihia, the deceased wife of the said George Lipsey and mother of the said Ani Edwards, became the registered proprietors under the Land Transfer Act of the portion of the Township of Te Aroha known as Section 17D No. 1, Block IX, Te Aroha Survey District, comprised in certificate of title, Volume 166, folio 173, of the Register-book of the Auckland Land Registration District: And whereas, for the purpose of raising money for the payment of the debts of the said Ema Mokena Ripihia, the said George Lipsey and the said Ani Edwards thereafter sold certain portions of the land comprised in the said certificate of title to the Crown : And whereas it is now expedient that the Crown should acquire the balance of the land so comprised as aforesaid : Be it therefore enacted as follows :—

(1.) Notwithstanding any conditions, restrictions, or limitations in the will of Ema Mokena Ripihia, or otherwise howsoever, the registered proprietors of the unsold portion of the land comprised in certificate of title, Volume 166, folio 173, of the Register-book of the Auckland Land Registration District, may execute a transfer thereof to the Crown provided the surviving beneficiaries under the said will join in the execution of such transfer as consenting parties, and thereafter the title of the Crown to the land or any portion thereof comprised in the said certificate of title shall not be called in question by any proceedings whatsoever in the Native Land Court or in any Court of law or equity, nor shall any action lie against the said George Lipsey and Ani Edwards for anything done by them in accordance with the provisions of this section either before or after the passing thereof.

(2.) The purchase-money for the said land shall be paid out of moneys appropriated or available for the purchase of Native lands to the said George Lipsey and Ani Edwards as trustees of the will of the said Ema Mokena Ripihia, and shall be held by the said George Lipsey and Ani Edwards upon the same trusts as those upon which the said land was held ; and the receipt of the said George Lipsey and Ani Edwards for the said purchase-money shall effectually discharge the Crown from any claim or demand whatsoever either by the said George Lipsey or Ani Edwards or by any beneficiary under the said will.

14. The East Coast Native Trust Lands Act, 1902 (hereinafter in this section referred to as the Act of 1902), and section twenty-two of the Maori Land Claims Adjustment and Laws Amendment Act, 1906, and section eleven of the Maori Land Claims Adjustment and Laws Amendment Act, 1907 (hereinafter in this section referred to as the Act of 1907), are hereby amended as follows :—

(1.) The Commissioner shall have and be deemed to have always had, in addition to the powers conferred by the Act of 1907, full power and discretion to sell, lease, or mortgage any lands vested in him as such Commissioner, including lands so vested pursuant to section eleven of the Act of 1902, or otherwise ; and the provisions of this paragraph shall be deemed to be incorporated in any deed or agreement executed pursuant to section twelve of the Act of 1902.

(2.) The Commissioner shall have and be deemed to have always had full power and discretion to raise moneys for any purposes of the whole or of any part of the trust estates vested in him, and to mortgage or charge all such trust estates together, or any one or more of such trust estates, for the purpose of securing moneys advanced or to be advanced to the Commissioner for the purposes of the general trust, or for the purposes of any special trust, whether such special trust relates or not to the blocks mortgaged or charged. The provisions of paragraph (j) of the Act of 1907 shall apply in respect of every mortgage or charge heretofore or hereafter executed or granted by the Commissioner. In the Commissioner's accounts each separate trust estate shall be charged only with such part of such moneys so raised as have been or are intended to be applied for the benefit of such estate, in addition to a due proportion of the general charges of administration.

Lands Act, 1902,

(3.) The Commissioner shall once at least in each year submit to the Native Land Court accounts setting forth all moneys received and expended by him, and the manner in which he has credited or debited, or proposes to credit or debit, each trust estate in respect thereof. The Commissioner shall at the same time lodge with the Native Land Court as many copies of such accounts as there are trust estates, and the Court shall cause one copy to be supplied to a beneficiary to be nominated by the Court for each such estate. The Native Land Court shall, after giving an opportunity to the beneficiaries to be heard in connection therewith, consider such accounts, and may direct any alteration therein. Subject only to such alterations as it requires, the Native Land Court shall confirm such accounts, and upon such confirmation the same shall become binding upon and finally and conclusively determine and ascertain the rights of all parties interested in the matter of such accounts. The Native Land Court or the Minister may, if either thinks fit, require a special audit of any such accounts before the final confirmation thereof. The general expenses of the administration of the trust shall be distributed over the several trust estates as the Commissioner determines, subject to confirmation by the Native Land Court.

(4.) The Commissioner shall submit the previous accounts of the Board and the Commissioner's accounts previous to the passing of this Act to the Native Land Court, which shall, after giving an opportunity to the beneficiaries to be heard in connection therewith, consider such previous accounts, and may direct any alterations therein. Subject only to such alterations as it requires, the Native Land Court shall confirm such previous accounts, and upon such confirmation the same shall become binding upon and finally and conclusively determine and ascertain the rights of all parties interested in the matter of such accounts.

(5.) All moneys received by the Commissioner from all or any of the estates vested in him shall be paid into one banking account in the name of the Commissioner, unless in any particular case it shall appear to the Commissioner or to the Native Land Court expedient to keep a separate banking account for the funds of any special trust.

(6.) The provisions of section four hundred and twenty-four of the Native Land Act, 1909, shall hereafter apply to every trust estate vested in the Commissioner; and no Native beneficiary under any trust shall hereafter be capable of making any charge or other disposition, except an assignment by will of the interest of such beneficiary in such trust estate, or in the rents, profits, or income thereof, or in any moneys raised upon the security thereof.

(7.) The Native Land Court may at any time, if it think fit, in respect of any particular trust estate not comprised in any mortgage or charge executed by the Commissioner and not further required by any scheme of adjustment to provide moneys for the relief of any other estate, order that such estate shall be transferred to the beneficiaries ascertained by such Court to be entitled thereto, and upon such order taking effect the Commissioner shall be discharged of his trust in respect of such estate. No such order shall take effect until the Minister has signified in writing his approval thereof.

fore have included, a lessee by assignment and a sublessee by assignment respectively.
