BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Provisions of Native Land Act, 1931, to apply to this Act.

See Reprint of Statutes, Vol. VI, p. 103

2. Words and expressions used in this Act shall, unless the contrary intention appears, have the same meaning as in the Native Land Act, 1931 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), and the provisions of the principal Act, so far as applicable, shall extend and apply to the cases provided for by this Act in as full and ample a manner as if this Act had been incorporated with and formed part of the principal Act.

PART I

AMENDMENT OF LAWS

Delegation of powers by Native Trustee.

3. (1) The Native Trustee may from time to time, by Warrant under his hand and seal, delegate to any Registrar of the Court (hereinafter in this section referred to as a Registrar), any of the powers, functions, and duties conferred or imposed upon the Native Trustee by any statute, deed, will, or other instrument.

(2) Any such delegation may relate to any particular matter or thing or may be expressed in general terms, and may at any time be varied or revoked by the Native Trustee.

(3) Notwithstanding that any powers, functions, or duties have been so delegated by the Native Trustee to a Registrar, the Registrar shall, in respect of those powers, functions, or duties, be subject to the direction, supervision, and control of the Native Trustee.

(4) A Registrar shall not be personally liable in damages for any act or thing done or omitted to be done by him in good faith and in pursuance and exercise or in the intended pursuance and exercise of any powers, functions, or duties delegated to him by the Native Trustee.

(5) The fact that any Registrar purports to exercise or perform any of the powers, functions, or duties of the Native Trustee shall be conclusive evidence of his authority so to act, and no Court or person shall be concerned to inquire whether or not those powers, functions, or duties have been duly delegated to the Registrar. All acts and things done or omitted to be done by a Registrar in pursuance and exercise or in the intended pursuance and exercise of any such powers, functions, or duties shall have the same effect and consequence as if they had been done or had been omitted to be done by the Native Trustee.

(6) Where any declaration, transfer, assurance, consent, or other deed or document requires to be signed by a Registrar pursuant to any powers, functions, or duties so delegated to him, the Registrar shall sign his personal name, adding the words, " acting under the authority of the Native Trustee pursuant to section three of the Native Purposes Act, 1945 "; and, where the document requires to be sealed, he shall affix thereto the Native Trustee's seal of office. Any such declaration, transfer, assurance, consent, or other deed or document so executed shall have the same force and effect as if it were executed by the Native Trustee.

(7) The provisions of this section shall be deemed to be in addition to, and not in derogation of, the provisions of section nine of the Native Trustee Act, 1930.

See Reprint of Statutes, Vol. VI, p. 375

4. (1) In respect of each Native Land Court district constituted under the provisions of section twelve of the principal Act, there shall be a Deputy Registrar:

Appointment of Deputy Registrars of Native Land Court districts.

Provided that where one person has been appointed Registrar of two or more districts, one person may be appointed Deputy Registrar of those districts.

See Reprint of Statutes, Vol. VI, p. 108

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection three hereof, a Deputy Registrar shall, under the direction and control of the Registrar, perform such official duties as he is required to perform by the Registrar.

(3) During any absence from duty of the Registrar, or during any vacancy in the office of Registrar, the Deputy Registrar shall have and may exercise and perform all the powers, functions, and duties of the Registrar, including his powers, functions, and duties as a member of any Board and as the administrative officer of any Board, and also any powers, functions, and duties delegated by the Native Trustee to the Registrar pursuant to the provisions of section three of this Act.

(4) The fact that a Deputy Registrar exercises and performs any of the powers, functions, or duties of the Registrar shall be sufficient evidence of his authority so to do, and no person shall be concerned to inquire whether the occasion has arisen requiring or authorizing him so to do.

Certificate of title may be issued for land set apart or acquired by the Crown for Native housing.

1938, No. 17

1935, No. 34

5. (1) Where any land has, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, been set apart under section two of the Native Housing Amendment Act, 1938, or been acquired on behalf of the Crown for any of the purposes of the Native Housing Act, 1935, the District Land Registrar shall, at the request of the Board of Native Affairs, issue in the name of His Majesty the King, a certificate of title for an estate in fee-simple in the land, with a memorial endorsed thereon that the land is subject to the Native Housing Act, 1935; and shall, at the like request, cancel the memorial as to the whole or any part of the land.

(2) Notwithstanding any Act or rule of law to the contrary, the fee-simple estate in the land shall not be merged in any other interest possessed by His Majesty, but shall enure as a separate estate available for the purposes of the Native Housing Act, 1935.

Amendment of provisions of Native Housing Amendment Act, 1938, as to issue of titles.

1938, No. 17

6. (1) Section twelve of the Native Housing Amendment Act, 1938, is hereby amended as follows:—

(a) By omitting from subsection one the words “and the Governor-General may, by Warrant under his hand, authorize the issue of a certificate of title accordingly”:

(b) By inserting, after subsection one, the following subsection:—

“(1A) Where any land is transferred by the Board to such a purchaser, the memorandum of transfer shall disclose that the land so transferred is subject to the provisions of this section, and the District Land Registrar shall enter on the certificate of title issued in the name of the transferee a memorial in accordance with subsection two of this section.”
