PART I.

CENTENNIAL CELEBRATIONS AND MEMORIALS.

National Council.

National Centennial
Council.

3. (1) There is hereby established a body to be known as the National Centennial Council, which shall consist of—

- (a) The Minister of Internal Affairs, who shall be the Chairman of the Council :
- (b) The Minister of Industries and Commerce, who shall be the Deputy-Chairman of the Council :
- (c) The Under-Secretary for Internal Affairs, who shall be the Executive Member of the Council :
- (d) The Secretary of Industries and Commerce :
- (e) The Secretary to the Treasury :

- (f) The Mayor for the time being of each of the cities of Auckland, Wellington, Christchurch, and Dunedin :
- (g) One person appointed by the Minister to represent the Native race :
- (h) Such other members and associate members as may from time to time be appointed by the Minister.

(2) Any person who immediately before the passing of this Act was a member of the body appointed by the Minister and known as the National Centennial Committee shall be deemed to have been appointed as a member of the National Council under this section.

4. The members and associate members of the National Council, other than Ministers of the Crown and officers in the service of the Government, shall be paid all travelling-expenses reasonably incurred by them in respect of their attendance at meetings of the Council or their travelling with the authority of the Minister on the business of the Council, and may also be paid such further allowances (if any) as may be lawfully appointed in that behalf.

Payment of allowances and travelling-expenses.

5. (1) Meetings of the National Council shall be held at such times and places as the Minister appoints for that purpose.

Meetings of National Council.

(2) The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Council at which he is present. If at any meeting of the Council the Chairman is not present the Deputy-Chairman, if present, or, if he is not present, the Executive Member of the Council, if present, shall be the Chairman. In the absence of all three from any meeting the members present shall select one of their number to be Chairman for the purposes of that meeting.

(3) At any meeting of the Council five members shall form a quorum.

(4) Every question before the Council shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the members present at the meeting of the Council.

(5) The Chairman at any meeting of the Council shall have a deliberative vote, and in the case of an equality of votes shall also have a casting vote.

(6) In the absence from any meeting of the Council of any member being an officer of any Government Department, he may authorize any other officer of his Department to act in his stead, and, subject to the provisions of subsection two hereof, such last-mentioned officer, while so acting, shall for the purposes of this Act have all the powers of the member for whom he is acting.

Procedure of National Council and of national committees.

6. Subject to the provisions of this Act and of any regulations made under this Act, the National Council may regulate in such manner as it thinks fit the procedure of itself and of any national committee.

Functions of National Council.

7. (1) The functions of the National Council shall be—

(a) To consider all questions relating to centennial celebrations and to make recommendations to the Minister with respect to the nature of the celebrations, the approval of celebrations as national, provincial, or local celebrations, and the period or periods in the year nineteen hundred and forty during which the celebrations shall be held :

(b) To consider and make recommendations to the Minister with respect to the approval of provincial and local centennial memorials :

(c) To make recommendations to the Minister and to provincial councils with respect to arrangements for centennial celebrations and with respect to functions, entertainments, pageants, and displays in connection with the celebrations :

(d) Generally to perform such other functions in connection with the centennial as the Minister from time to time directs.

(2) The National Council is hereby declared to be the successor of the National Centennial Committee, and all resolutions of that committee at any meeting thereof held before the passing of this Act shall for all purposes be deemed to be and to enure as resolutions of the National Council.

National Committees.

Committees
Council.

8. (1) The Minister may from time to time appoint such national committees as he thinks fit to assist the National Council and provincial councils in the discharge of their functions under this Act and may appoint as members of any national committee, or authorize any such committee to co-opt as members thereof, persons who are not members of the National Council or of any provincial council.

(2) The Minister may at any time and from time to time discharge, alter, continue, or reconstitute any committee or discharge any member of a committee and, if he thinks fit, appoint another member in his stead.

(3) Every national committee shall be known by such name as the Minister appoints.

(4) Every national committee shall have such functions as the Minister appoints and it shall be the duty of every committee to give to the Minister, the National Council, and provincial councils such advice as they may seek on all matters in connection with the centennial that come within the functions of the committee, and to carry out such directions of the Minister and the National Council as are from time to time given to it.

(5) Every committee heretofore appointed by the Minister as a committee of the National Centennial Committee shall be deemed to have been appointed a national committee under this section.

9. (1) The National Centennial Historical Committee heretofore appointed by the Minister and in existence at the passing of this Act shall continue in existence and be deemed to have been appointed by the Minister under and for the purposes of this Act.

National Historical Committee and committees thereof.

(2) The Minister may from time to time appoint additional or associate members of the National Historical Committee, and may discharge any member of the committee and, if he thinks fit, appoint another member in his stead.

(3) The National Historical Committee may from time to time appoint, discharge, alter, continue, or reconstitute committees to assist it in the discharge of its functions under this Act and may appoint as members of any such committee, or authorize any such committee to co-opt as members thereof, persons who are not members of the National Historical Committee. Any member of any such committee may at any time be discharged by the National Historical Committee, which, if it thinks fit, may appoint another member in his stead.

(4) The standing committee and all other committees of the National Historical Committee appointed before the passing of this Act shall, subject to the last preceding subsection, continue in office for the purposes of this Act as if they had been appointed thereunder, and all acts of such committees heretofore done shall enure for the purposes of this Act as if they had originated thereunder.

(5) Subject to the direction and control of the Minister, the standing committee shall between the meetings of the National Historical Committee have all the powers and authorities of that committee.

Functions of National Historical Committee.

10. The functions of the National Historical Committee shall be—

- (a) To advise the Government, the National Council, provincial councils, and other committees appointed under this Act on all historical matters relating to the centennial :
- (b) To draw up for the information and consideration of all such bodies as aforesaid lists of events and dates in the history of New Zealand which may appropriately be made the subject of centennial celebrations or memorials :
- (c) To gather and collate and make available for use in connection with the centennial, and for purposes of research and study, historical information and books, documents, and other papers :
- (d) In such manner and by such means as the Minister from time to time approves, to direct public interest to the history and development of New Zealand :
- (e) To recommend to the Minister a suitable series of historical surveys in written, pictorial, and map form, or by means of cinematograph films, of such a nature as will give a clear and interesting view of the origin and growth of the settlement, development, and government of New Zealand and of the life and institutions of its people :
- (f) Subject to the approval and direction of the Minister, to arrange for the printing, publication, sale, and distribution of such historical surveys.

Provincial Districts and Provincial Organizations.

11. (1) For the purposes of this Part of this Act, New Zealand shall be divided into provincial districts with the names specified in the First Schedule to this Act and with such boundaries as are specified in that behalf by the Minister by notice published in the Gazette.

Provincial Districts for purposes of centennial.

(2) The boundaries so specified may from time to time be altered in like manner.

12. (1) For every provincial district there shall be a provincial centennial organization, the governing body of which shall be known as the [Name of provincial district] Provincial Centennial Council.

Provincial centennial organizations and councils.

(2) Every provincial organization shall be constituted in such manner as the Minister approves.

(3) Every provincial centennial organization constituted before the passing of this Act at the request of the Minister shall continue to exist as a provincial organization for the purposes of this Act in all respects as if it had been constituted under this section and for all purposes shall be deemed to have been so constituted, and all acts and proceedings of such organizations before the commencement of this Act shall enure for the purposes of this Act as fully and effectively as if they had originated thereunder.

13. The Chairman of each provincial council shall be the person specified in that behalf in the First Schedule to this Act.

Chairmen of provincial councils.

14. (1) Every provincial organization may in such manner as it thinks fit subdivide its district and constitute controlling committees for the subdivisions thereof, and may from time to time alter any such subdivision or abolish such subdivisions, and if it thinks fit re-subdivide its district, and may also from time to time abolish or alter the constitution of any such committee.

Subdivision of provincial districts, and controlling committees for subdivisions.

(2) Every such subdivision made and every such committee constituted before the passing of this Act shall for all purposes be deemed to have been made and constituted under this section.

(3) The powers, functions, and duties of every controlling committee shall be such as the provincial organization from time to time determines.

Functions and powers of provincial organizations.

15. Every provincial organization shall—

- (a) Have power to promote and carry out, or arrange for the promotion and carrying-out of, or approve the carrying-out by its controlling committees of, approved centennial celebrations :
- (b) Erect or approve the erection by its controlling committees of approved centennial memorials :
- (c) Generally do all things necessary to celebrate adequately within its district the centennial or the settlement or development of its district or any part thereof.

Finance of provincial organizations and controlling committees.

16. (1) The funds of every provincial organization or controlling committee shall consist of all grants made to it by the Government or by any local authority, all grants or donations made to it by any person or body of persons, all moneys obtained by it in the course of carrying-out any centennial celebrations, and generally all moneys coming into its possession for the purposes for which it is constituted under this Act.

(2) It shall not be lawful for any provincial organization or controlling committee to expend its funds or any portion thereof except for the purpose of enabling it to carry out its functions under this Act within the provincial district or subdivision, as the case may be, under its control.

(3) Accounts of all moneys received and expended by provincial organizations and controlling committees shall be kept, audited, and published in such manner as the Minister from time to time directs.

(4) All moneys standing to the credit of any provincial organization or controlling committee at the conclusion of the period of centennial celebrations in the year nineteen hundred and forty, after payment of all its liabilities lawfully incurred under this Act, shall be disposed of for such public or charitable purposes as the Minister approves by writing under his hand.

General.

Approval of celebrations and memorials.

17. For the purposes of this Part of this Act the Minister may from time to time, in his discretion, and upon or subject to such conditions as he thinks fit, approve any centennial celebrations or memorials as national, provincial, or local celebrations or memorials.

18. (1) It shall be deemed to be lawful and to have always been lawful for any local authority to expend moneys out of its general fund or account for the purpose of contributing to the funds of any provincial organization or controlling committee or for the purpose of meeting any expenditure incurred by the local authority in connection with its participation in approved centennial celebrations or in connection with the establishment of approved centennial memorials.

Authorizing local authorities and others to expend moneys in connection with centennial.

AMD. 19
No. 5.

(2) Any person, including a company or other incorporated body, a corporation sole, an unincorporated body of persons, and a trustee or board of trustees (whether statutory or not), may from time to time, unless expressly prohibited by any Act or by any instrument of trust, make gifts of money or chattels to any provincial organization or controlling committee for the purpose of augmenting its funds, or to any local authority for any purpose in connection with the centennial.

19. (1) The Minister may from time to time, out of moneys appropriated by Parliament for the purpose and in accordance with such regulations (if any) as may be made in that behalf under this Act, make grants to any provincial organization or controlling committee towards the cost of promoting, arranging, and carrying out approved centennial celebrations, or towards the cost of establishing approved centennial memorials.

Grants of public moneys.

(2) Except for the purpose of celebrations approved by the Minister as national celebrations, no grant shall be made under this section otherwise than by way of subsidy at the rate of one pound for every three pounds of the moneys raised by the provincial organization or controlling committee from other sources.

AMD. 19
No. 5.

(3) Any grant under this section may be made upon or subject to such conditions as the Minister thinks fit.

20. There may from time to time be appointed as officers of the Public Service such officers as may be considered necessary for the purposes of this Part of this Act.

Appointment of officers.

Expenses of administration.

21. All expenses incurred in respect of the administration of this Part of this Act shall be paid out of moneys to be from time to time appropriated by Parliament for the purpose.

Printed matter relating to celebrations.

22. (1) Every person who causes to be printed, published, exhibited, or distributed any written matter relating to any function, entertainment, pageant, or display in which matter it is stated or suggested that the function, entertainment, pageant, or display is organized or approved by the Government, the National Council, or the National Historical Committee, or by any national committee, provincial organization, or controlling committee, or by any duly appointed committee of any such body shall, unless the function, entertainment, pageant, or display was in fact organized or approved as stated or suggested in that written matter, be guilty of an offence and be liable on summary conviction to a fine of one hundred pounds, and in case of a continuing offence to a further fine of five pounds for each day on which the offence is continued.

(2) Every person who prints or publishes or causes to be printed or published any book, pamphlet, leaflet, pictorial representation, map or chart, or other printed matter which bears any statement, design, or device which is reasonably capable of being understood to represent that the printed matter was printed or published by or under the authority or with the concurrence of any of the bodies mentioned in the last preceding subsection shall, unless the printing or publishing, as the case may be, of the printed matter was in fact authorized or concurred in as represented thereon, be guilty of an offence and be liable on summary conviction to a fine of one hundred pounds.

Regulations.

23. (1) The Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, make such regulations as may in his opinion be necessary for giving full effect to the intent and purposes of this Part of this Act.

(2) All regulations made under this section shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days after the making thereof if Parliament is then in session, and, if not, then within fourteen days after the commencement of the next ensuing session.

PART II.

- (b) As to all that area containing three acres one rood thirty perches, commencing at a point on the southern boundary of Lyall Parade distant 200.77 links by a line bearing $198^{\circ} 32' 30''$ from the point of intersection of the northern boundary of Lyall Parade with the western boundary of Kingsford Smith Street ; thence in a general westerly direction along the southern boundary of Lyall Parade by lines bearing $283^{\circ} 31' 25''$, a distance of 715 links, $272^{\circ} 38' 10''$, a distance of 392.8 links, and $261^{\circ} 45'$, a distance of 875 links ; thence in a general southerly direction by a line bearing $197^{\circ} 13'$, a distance of approximately 140 links, to a point on high-water mark ; thence in a general easterly direction along high-water mark, a distance of approximately 1975 links ; thence in a general northerly direction by a line bearing $17^{\circ} 13'$, a distance of approximately 210 links, to the point of commencement.

26. The Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, set apart temporarily for the purposes of the Exhibition any area of any land vested in the Crown, or may (with the consent of the persons in whom the fee-simple of the land is vested or of any local authority in which the control of the land is vested) vest in the company, for so long as may be necessary for the purposes of the Exhibition, the exclusive control of any other land.

Other land may be set apart by Governor-General for purposes of Exhibition.

27. (1) For the purposes of the Exhibition the Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, authorize the Council by resolution to close temporarily any street or any part thereof, and to permit the company to enter into occupation of the same and construct any building or erect any fence thereon, and dig up and remove the soil thereof, and otherwise make use of the street or part thereof closed as aforesaid, as if the same were land set apart under the last preceding section.

Governor-General may authorize temporary closing of streets.

(2) The company shall, as soon as practicable after the close of the Exhibition, and on the request of the Council or of any of the owners of the property adjoining any street or part of a street closed as aforesaid, remove all buildings, fences, and other obstructions on the said street, and restore the soil, surface, and level thereof to the same condition as when the company entered into occupation thereof.

28. (1) The Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, remit or reduce as he thinks fit the duties of Customs or excise and the sales tax payable in respect of any goods for the purposes of the Exhibition, or any land-tax or income-tax payable by the company.

Governor-General may remit or reduce Customs or excise duties, land-tax, and income-tax.

(2) The company, not being constituted to make profits in the form of dividends, is hereby exempted from the payment of license duty under the Stamp Duties Act, 1923.

29. (1) The Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, for the purposes of the Exhibition, suspend, modify, or negative, either absolutely or subject to such conditions as he thinks fit, any of the provisions of the Acts specified in the Second Schedule to this Act in their application to the company or any person employed by it, or to any exhibitor at the Exhibition, or to any person employed in or about the Exhibition.

Inspection of machinery used at Exhibition.

Ibid., Vol. V, p. 527

30. The provisions of the Inspection of Machinery Act, 1928, relating to the inspection of machinery and boilers and to the fencing of machinery and to defective machinery, shall apply to boilers and machinery used at or in connection with the Exhibition :

Provided that no fees shall be charged for any inspection under this section of any boiler or machinery used solely for driving purposes at or in connection with the Exhibition.

Authority to grant loan to the company.

31. The Minister of Finance is hereby empowered, without further appropriation than this section, to pay to the company by way of loan out of the Consolidated Fund, such sum or sums as he thinks fit, not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of twenty-five thousand pounds. The loan hereby authorized shall be free of interest and shall be on such terms (including terms as to the security to be given therefor and as to its repayment) as may be mutually agreed to by the Minister of Finance and the company.

Local authorities may contribute towards cost of or subscribe for shares in the Exhibition.

32. (1) Any local authority may out of its ordinary revenue, or from moneys borrowed in accordance with the next succeeding subsection, defray or contribute towards the cost of collecting and preparing exhibits of the products and resources of its district or of the provincial district in which its district is situated and of exhibiting the same at the Exhibition, or may make to the company grants for the purposes of the Exhibition, or may subscribe for shares in the company to be held by the local authority itself or on behalf of the local authority by the individual members thereof so as to qualify them as directors representing the local authority.

(2) Any local authority may for the purposes of this section borrow money from its bankers by way of overdraft or from any person or persons, and money so borrowed shall not at any time before the thirty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and forty-two, be taken into account in computing for the purposes of section three of the Local Bodies' Finance Act, 1921-22, the maximum amount that may lawfully be borrowed by the local authority, or the amount that the local authority may owe at the end of any year on its general account or on any separate account.

See Reprint of Statutes,
Vol. V, p. 354

33. (1) The Council may in its discretion remit any rates or charges leviable on or payable in respect of any land occupied by or under the control of the company for the purposes of the Exhibition.

Remission of rates, &c., by local authorities.

(2) Any Harbour Board may in its discretion remit any dues or other charges on any goods used or intended to be used for the purposes of the Exhibition.

34. The agreement dated the twenty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and thirty-seven, made between the company of the first part, the Governors of the Wellington College and Girls' High School of the second part, and the Mayor, Councillors, and Citizens of the City of Wellington of the third part, a copy of which is deposited in the office of the Department of Internal Affairs at Wellington under Number I.A. 62/70, is hereby declared to be valid and binding on the parties thereto according to its tenor.

Validating agreement as to Rongotai College.

35. (1) The Council may under the provisions of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1933, make such by-laws as in its absolute discretion it thinks fit, to operate during the period when the Exhibition shall be open to the public, for the following purposes :—

Traffic
by-laws.
1933, No. 30

(a) The control of traffic in the City of Wellington to and from the Exhibition site.

(b) The control of traffic on the Exhibition site.

(2) No such by-law shall be deemed to be invalid by reason of its conflict with any Act or regulation, nor shall its validity be questioned in any proceedings in any Court.

(3) The provisions of sections three hundred and sixty-seven, three hundred and sixty-nine, three hundred and seventy, three hundred and seventy-two, three hundred and seventy-four, and three hundred and seventy-five of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1933, shall apply with respect to any by-laws so made.

Company may make by-laws regulating admission to Exhibition, &c.

36. (1) The company may from time to time make by-laws controlling the admission of persons to and the conduct of persons within any place used or occupied by the company for the purposes of the Exhibition.

(2) Without limiting the general power hereinbefore conferred, it is hereby declared that by-laws may be made under this section providing for—

(a) The exclusion from any such place of any specified class of person either absolutely or subject to such conditions as are prescribed in the by-laws :

(b) The issue by the company of licenses to any specified class of persons therein described :

(c) The exclusion as aforesaid of any person of a class so specified who is not for the time being the holder of a license.

(3) No such by-law shall authorize or be deemed to authorize the issue of a license to any person under the age of sixteen years, and any license issued to any such person shall be void and of no effect.

(4) With respect to licenses as aforesaid, the by-laws may make provision for all or any of the following matters :—

(a) Reasonable fees to be payable upon application for and upon the issue of licenses :

(b) The suspension and revocation of licenses :

(c) Requiring the production of licenses to the company or any other specified person :

(d) Prohibiting or restricting any assignment of licenses or the benefits thereof :

(e) Authorizing the imposition in a license of conditions, to be prescribed in the by-laws, relating to or restricting in any such place as aforesaid :—

(i) The conduct of the licensee or any person employed by him or under his control ; or

(ii) The occupation by the licensee for any purpose of any site ; or

(iii) The activities to be permitted to the licensee ; or

(iv) The employment by the licensee of persons under any specified age :

(f) Requiring the deposit with the company of a prescribed sum of money by way of security for compliance by the licensee with the terms and conditions of the license and for the forfeiture of the deposit upon breach of such terms and conditions.

37. (1) By-laws under the last preceding section may be made, amended, or revoked by the company by resolution of the directors of the company.

Making and publication of company's by-laws.

(2) No such by-law and no amendment or revocation of any such by-law shall have any force or effect until it has been approved by the Governor-General. Every such by-law, amendment, or revocation upon being so approved shall take effect from the date of such approval or from any later date specified in the by-law or amendment or terms of revocation as the case may be.

(3) A copy of every such by-law and every amendment thereof and a notice of every such revocation shall be forwarded by the company to the Minister of Industries and Commerce, who, on being satisfied that it has been duly made by the company and approved by the Governor-General, shall publish it in the Gazette at the expense of the company.

38. (1) Section thirty-six of this Act shall apply with respect to any land or building notwithstanding the fact that it is or forms part of a reserve or other place in respect of which there exists a right of public use or entry.

Application of company's by-laws to reserves.

(2) Nothing in section thirty-six of this Act shall be so construed as to limit any power of the company to exclude or remove any person from any premises of which the company is the occupier for the purposes of the Exhibition and which is free from any right of public use or entry.

39. (1) Every person who commits a breach of any by-law made by the company under the authority of this Act or who, being the holder of a license issued under the authority of any such by-law, commits a breach of any condition contained in the license, may be removed from any premises to which the by-law relates by any officer, agent, or servant of the company or by any constable, and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine of twenty pounds.

Offences and penalties.

(2) Every person commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of twenty pounds who in relation to any license granted under any by-laws made by the company under this Part of this Act, or in relation to an application for or in respect of any such license, does any of the following things, namely:—

- (a) Gives a false name or address of himself or any other person :
- (b) Makes any false representation as to the identity of himself or any other person :
- (c) Makes any false representation as to the previous issue, refusal, or endorsement of a license to himself or any other person under any by-law (whether in force or revoked) made under the provisions of the Agricultural and Pastoral Societies Amendment Act, 1933.

1933, No. 8

Validation of acts done in anticipation of this Part of this Act.

40. All acts of any nature done before the passing of this Act that by virtue of this Part of this Act would have been valid and lawful if they had been done after the passing of this Act shall be deemed to have been validly and lawfully done.
