Preamble.
1. Short Title.

2. Land in Schedule to be vested in Her Majesty the Queen.
Schedule.

AN ACT to vest a piece of Land at Outram, in the Province of Otago, in Her Majesty the Queen as a Reserve for an Electric Telegraph Station.

[18th October, 1875.]

WHEREAS under the powers contained in the one hundred and sixtieth section of "The Otago Waste Lands Act, 1872" (hereinafter termed "the said Act"), the piece of land described in the Schedule hereto was, on the twenty-fifth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, dedicated by the Superintendent of the Province of Otago as a public reserve for the site of a school, but no Crown grant for the same hath yet been made or issued: And whereas it is expedient that the said piece of land described in the Schedule hereto should be vested in Her Majesty the Queen as a site for an electric telegraph station: And whereas the Superintendent, with the advice and consent of his Executive Council of the Province of Otago, has consented thereto:

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act shall be "The Outram Electric Telegraph Station Reserve Act, 1875."

2. Notwithstanding that the said piece of land has been so reserved as aforesaid, and notwithstanding anything contained in the said Act, the said land shall forthwith, upon the passing of this Act, vest in Her Majesty the Queen, and shall be taken and held by Her

Outram Electric Telegraph Station Reserve.

Majesty as a site for an electric telegraph station or for the purposes of other public buildings for the use of the General Government of the colony, without any notification to the Superintendent of the Province of Otago that the same is required for the purpose aforesaid, or publication of any notification in the New Zealand Gazette, as effectually as if the said land had been waste lands of the Crown reserved for the purposes in this section mentioned under the provisions of the twelfth section of "The Waste Lands Act, 1858."

Schedule.

SCHEDULE.

ALL that piece of land containing half an acre, more or less, being Section 9 of Block XV., in the Town of Outram, in the Province of Otago.
