1996, No. 2—Private

An Act to amend the Presbyterian Church Property Act 1885 and other Acts relating to the Presbyterian Church
[24 April 1996]

WHEREAS—

- A. The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of New Zealand has resolved that the name of the Church shall be the Presbyterian Church of Aotearoa New Zealand:
- B. It is expedient that the General Assembly of the Church should have power to vary certain charitable trusts for Presbyterian purposes where the original purpose is impossible, impracticable, or inexpedient:
- C. In consequence of changes in policy and law relating to the care of children and young persons, it is expedient that the purposes for which trustees who hold trust funds or trust properties for the purposes of Presbyterian orphanages or children's homes or for persons being cared for in such orphanages or children's homes should be expanded:
- D. It is appropriate that lists of the persons who from time to time hold office as Presbyterian Church Property Trustees be filed in the office of the District Registrar of Companies at Wellington:
- E. It is expedient that the requirements prescribed by the Presbyterian Church Property Act 1885, in relation to the execution of documents and the method of contracting by The Presbyterian Church Property Trustees, be simplified:
- F. It is expedient that the powers that may be exercised by the High Court when it orders the sale of land that is not suitable for Church purposes should be extended:
- G. It is expedient that the powers of The Presbyterian Church Property Trustees and of managers of congregations to apply funds held for congregations be enlarged:
- H. It is desirable that the requirement for the consent of the General Assembly to disposal of property not held for congregations be limited to transactions involving borrowing and certain dealings with real property:
- I. It is expedient that the General Assembly of the Church be empowered to appoint alternative trustees of the Beneficiary Fund of the Presbyterian Church and that provisions for investment be simplified:
- J. It is expedient that the power of the General Assembly to delegate its powers should be extended:

- K. It is expedient to repeal certain provisions relating to the computation and investment of the Amalgamated Investment Fund of the Church:
- L. It is expedient that the powers of The Presbyterian Church Property Trustees to employ agents in the investment and management of Church funds should be extended:
- M. The objects of this Act cannot be attained without the authority of Parliament:
- N. On the 19th day of May 1994 the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church by resolution authorised The Presbyterian Church Property Trustees to seek legislation to give effect to the above-mentioned purposes:

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the Parliament of New Zealand as follows:

1. Short Title—This Act may be cited as the Presbyterian Church Property Amendment Act 1996, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Presbyterian Church Property Act 1885 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

2. Interpretation—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, the term “the Trustees” means The Presbyterian Church Property Trustees constituted as a body corporate under section 11 of the principal Act.

3. Change of name of Presbyterian Church—(1) The Presbyterian Church (as recognised by the principal Act) shall, notwithstanding anything in section 4 of the principal Act, be known, as from the commencement of this Act, as “The Presbyterian Church of Aotearoa New Zealand”.

(2) Every reference to the Presbyterian Church of New Zealand in any other enactment or in any document whatsoever shall hereafter, unless the context otherwise requires, be read as a reference to the Presbyterian Church of Aotearoa New Zealand.

PART I

VARIATION OF CHURCH TRUSTS

4. Meaning of “trust property”—In this Part of this Act, “trust property” means any money raised or given, or any real or personal property devised, bequeathed, or given or in respect of which a trust is created, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, and held on behalf of the Presbyterian Church or any part of it by a trustee—

- (a) For any object or purpose directly or indirectly associated with or relating to the Presbyterian Church or the whole or any part of any synod, presbytery, charge, congregation, or mission of the Presbyterian Church; or
- (b) For the purpose of furthering social services, hospital or residential care, or educational needs directly or indirectly associated with or relating to the Presbyterian Church,— whether or not any such trust property has been invested in real or personal property pending its application for that object or purpose.

5. Application of this Part—(1) This Part of this Act shall not apply to any trust property in respect of which, before or after the passing of this Act, a scheme has been approved by the High Court or the Attorney-General under Part III or Part IV of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957 or an application has been made for such approval and not withdrawn.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (1) of this section, the provisions of this Part of this Act are in addition to the provisions of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957 and the provisions of section 10 of the Presbyterian Church Property Amendment Act 1974, to the intent that a trust may be varied under this Part of this Act, or under either of the said Acts.

6. Scheme for application or disposal of trust property—If—

- (a) It becomes or has become impossible or impracticable or inexpedient to carry out the object or purpose of the trust on which any trust property is held; or
- (b) The amount of any trust property available is inadequate to carry out the object or purpose on which the trust property is held; or
- (c) The object or purpose on which any trust property is held has been effected already,— the trustee of the trust property may prepare or cause to be prepared a scheme in writing for the application or disposal of the trust property for some other charitable object or charitable purpose or for a combination of charitable objects or charitable purposes or charitable objects and charitable purposes.

7. Submission of scheme to commission or legal adviser—Every scheme prepared under section 6 of this Act shall be submitted by the trustee of the trust property to—

- (a) A commission of the Presbyterian Church, which shall be a commission authorised by the General Assembly to consider applications under this Part of this Act and which shall include at least 2 persons having legal qualifications; or
- (b) A legal adviser appointed by the General Assembly.

8. Preparation of schemes for application or disposal of trust property—If a scheme prepared under section 6 of this Act relates to trust property that is held for a charitable purpose within the meaning of Part III of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957,—

- (a) The scheme shall provide for the application or disposal of that trust property for a purpose of a kind specified in section 4 of this Act which is also a charitable purpose; and
- (b) The trustee of the trust property in preparing the scheme, and the commission or legal adviser in considering and reporting on the scheme, and the General Assembly to which the scheme is submitted, shall act in accordance with the rules of law that would be applied by the High Court on an application made to it under Part III of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957 if the scheme were submitted to the High Court under that Part of that Act.

9. Statement giving full information—Every scheme submitted under section 7 of this Act shall be accompanied by a statement giving full information about the reasons for the proposed application or proposed disposal of the trust property, together with a copy of the trust instrument (if any).

10. Notice of scheme—On receipt of the scheme, the commission of the Presbyterian Church or the legal adviser to whom the scheme is submitted shall direct the trustee of the trust property as to the person or persons (if any) who shall be served with notice of the scheme and in what manner (if any) public notice of the scheme shall be given.

11. Right to object or to make representations—Any notice served or given under section 10 of this Act—

- (a) Shall state that any person may, within 60 days after the receipt or publication of the notice,—
 - (i) Lodge with the commission or legal adviser written objections to the scheme; or
 - (ii) Make written representations concerning the scheme to the commission or legal adviser; and
- (b) Shall specify an address to which any such written objection or written representation may be sent within 60 days after the receipt or publication of the notice.

12. Powers and duties of commission or legal adviser—

(1) The commission or legal adviser may, if it or the legal adviser thinks fit, after considering the scheme and any objections or representations made in respect of the scheme, remit the scheme to the trustee of the trust property for consideration of any amendments the commission or legal adviser may suggest.

(2) Subject to sections 13 and 14 of this Act, the commission or legal adviser—

- (a) Shall report on the scheme with such amendments (if any) as the trustee of the trust property may accept; and
- (b) Shall submit to the General Assembly—
 - (i) The scheme; and
 - (ii) The report made by the commission or legal adviser on the scheme; and
 - (iii) Any objections or representations made in respect of the scheme.

13. Notice to Attorney-General where trust is for charitable purpose—Where the scheme relates to trust property that is held for a charitable purpose within the meaning of Part III of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, the commission or legal adviser shall, before reporting on the scheme under section 12 of this Act, send to the Attorney-General written notice of the scheme, together with copies of the statement and trust instrument referred to in section 9 of this Act.

14. Objections by Attorney-General—(1) The commission or legal adviser shall, in reporting on the scheme under section 12 of this Act, have regard to any objections that are given to the commission or the legal adviser by the Attorney-General within 90 days after the date on which the notice under section 13 of this Act is given to the Attorney-General.

(2) If the Attorney-General objects to the scheme on the ground that the scheme is not one that should be approved by the Court under Part III of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, the scheme shall not be approved under this Part of this Act.

15. Approval of scheme—Subject to sections 13 and 14 of this Act, if the scheme is approved by the General Assembly, it shall have effect according to its tenor, notwithstanding the terms of any instrument by which the trust was created.

PART II

ORPHANAGE TRUSTS

16. General application of this Part—(1) This Part of this Act applies to the following trust funds:

(a) All trust funds that, at the commencement of this Act, are vested in the Trustees or in other trustees—

(i) For the purposes of Presbyterian orphanages or children's homes in New Zealand; or

(ii) For the care, welfare or benefit of persons being cared for or formerly cared for in Presbyterian orphanages or children's homes in New Zealand; and

(b) Any trust funds that, after the commencement of this Act, are received or held by the Trustees or other trustees for any of the purposes specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(2) This Part of this Act shall not apply where there is no general charitable intention in the trust or where the trust is not charitable.

(3) This Part of this Act applies whether the instrument creating the relevant trust was executed before or after the passing of this Act.

17. Orphanage trusts—(1) Notwithstanding the terms of any trust, but subject to subsection (2) of this section, every trust fund to which this Part of this Act applies that is held by the Trustees shall be held and administered for the welfare of children in New Zealand.

(2) Where any trust fund to which this Part of this Act applies is held by the Trustees for the purposes of or in connection with a specific Presbyterian orphanage or children's home, subsection (1) of this section shall apply in relation to that trust fund only where it is impossible or impracticable or inexpedient to give effect to those original purposes.

18. Power to transfer trust funds and properties—

(1) Any trustee or other person, whether incorporated or not, who, at the commencement of this Act or after the commencement of this Act, hold funds or properties on trust for any of the purposes specified in section 16 of this Act may pay or transfer the whole or any part of any such funds or properties to the Trustees or to the appropriate incorporated social service organisation or organisations of the Presbyterian Church in the area concerned to be held by the Trustees or by such incorporated social service organisation or organisations as trustee or trustees thereof.

(2) Where any funds or property are, under subsection (1) of this section, paid or transferred to the Trustees or to any such incorporated social service organisation or organisations, the Trustees or the incorporated social service organisation or organisations may apply the funds or property so paid or transferred as if,—

(a) In the case of the Trustees, the funds or property were funds or property held by the Trustees under section 17 of this Act; and

(b) In the case of the incorporated social service organisation or organisations, that organisation or those organisations, as the case may be, were the Trustees and the funds or property were held by the Trustees under section 17 of this Act.

(3) Subsection (2) of this section shall have effect notwithstanding that the powers of application conferred by this Act in relation to the funds or property transferred are wider than the powers conferred on the transferor by any instrument creating the trust.

(4) The Trustees may invest and amalgamate funds transferred to the Trustees under subsection (1) of this section with other trust funds held by the Trustees in the Amalgamated Investment Fund established under the Presbyterian Church Property Trustees Empowering Act 1957.

(5) No trustee or other person who pays or transfers, under subsection (1) of this section, the whole or any part of any funds or properties shall remain liable for the proper application of the capital and income of those transferred funds or properties in accordance with any instrument creating the trusts, but the Trustees or other transferee shall, subject to the modifications made to the trusts by this Act, become liable for the proper application and administration of the capital and income of those funds or properties in accordance with any instrument creating the trusts.

19. Power of the Trustees to act with other persons—The Trustees may, in the exercise of their powers under sections 17 and 18 of this Act, join or act in association with any other persons or bodies of persons in doing any act or thing which, in the opinion of the Trustees, will be for the benefit or the welfare of children in New Zealand.
